LATER FROM NEW ORLEANS AND RED RIVER.

New York, April 30.—The steamer Yarrow has arrived from New Orleans with dates to the 21st inst.

A letter from Alexandria dated the 18th states that all was quiet at Grand Ecore. The enemy was still all around our position, and it is hoped that when we are ready for a move they will not be found wanting.

The same letter confirms the death of the rebel Gen. Greene, in the fight with our gunboats, the Confederate prisoners stating it as a fact.

The Red river was slowly falling, but the Mississippi was rising fast, and a rise was expected in consequence in the Red river.

Gen. Stone and others of Gen. Banks's staff had arrived at Alexandria, bound for New Orleans.

A steamer had arrived with dates from Grand Ecore to the 18th. Nothing important had occurred.

A small Union fleet had gone up the Ouachita river.

A cavalry expedition had been sent out on the north bank of the Red river, near Alexandria, by Gen. Grover.

The steamer Merrimac, with 600 troops from Portland, arrived at New Orleans on the 19th, and the De Moly, also with troops from Portland, on the 20th.

The 18th Indiana veterans had arrived at New Orleans from Matagorda, bound for home; on furlough.

General Weitzel would leave New Orleans on the 23d, for a command in Virginia.

W. J. Savory, his sister-in-law, and a colored boy, were blown to pieces on a small island on his estate in the Parish of Iberville, by a rebel torpedo left on the island since last August, out of which he was taking the powder.

The cotton market was active on the 19th at 78c. a bale, for middlings, with sales of 1,700 bales. On the 20th, there being but a small stock, the market was dull, closing firm. Sugar active at 19c. a lb., for fair to prime, and 25c. for white clarified. Molasses active at 90c. a 95c. prime to choice. Gold, 182c. a 185c.; silver exchange in New York, 4c. a premium. The steamer Cahawba from New York, with 600 troops arrived at New Orleans on the 20th.

LATER FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEWBERRY, April 24.—The capture of Plymouth, including Gen. Wessells and his command, is confirmed. Nothing is known here of the movements of the rebels, but it is reported that they have gone to Virginia. Should they attack Little Washington or Newbern, their punishment will be fearful.

The success of the rebels at Plymouth will not compensate them for the loss they sustained. From all accounts Gen. Wessells and his little band of 1,500 veterans fought like heroes for four days and nights, leaving in every street heaps of rebel dead, which they admit will number 1,700. We hear all sorts of reports in regard to the rebel raid on the Neuse river, above the city.

BOAT EXPEDITIONS IN FLORIDA.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The Navy Department has received a communication from Acting Rear Admiral Bailey, commanding the East Gulf Blockading Squadron, giving details of two expeditions in the vicinity of St. Andrew's Sound, Florida, under the direction of volunteer Lieutenant M. R. Browne.

The first expedition consisted of eight refugees, in the boats of the U. S. bark Restless, who proceeded up East Bay. They succeeded in destroying two rebel salt works, with three hundred bushels of salt. There are five companies of rebel cavalry in that vicinity to guard these works, who rebuild them as fast as they are destroyed.

THE WAR IN KENTUCKY.

CINCINNATI, April 30th.—A detachment of the 45th Kentucky, of Gen. Hobson's division under command of Capt. Adams, attacked a force of rebels in Breathitt Hill, Ky., killing four and capturing sixteen men, and twenty-four horses. Capt. Adams then pushed forward and defeated Everett's command, killing two of his officers and capturing thirty-five men.

FROM WASHINGTON.
(By the People's Lib. Office No. 44) CHAS. J. GOOD, WASHINGTON, April 30, 1864.—Messrs. Good, Wade and a sub-committee on the Conduct of the War, have gone to Memphis to look up additional evidence on the massacre at Fort Pillow, and to examine into other subjects of great importance. They are expected back here in the middle of next week.

There is much excitement about the charges of mismanagement of the Treasury, many prominent administration men claiming that the full investigation should be made. Should the Senate reject Governor Chase's favorite policy of exempting the National Banks from local taxation, and pass the House Bank Bill, it will add to the unpleasantness of his present position.

It is understood that the National Committee have commenced arrangements for the Baltimore Convention and that none of the members have in any way advocated its postponement. The Railroad Companies decline bringing the delegates at a reduced fare.
