PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. CLOSE OF SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.
The following message from the Governor was The following message from the Grevillor was received:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:
Gentlemen—On the 15th of June last, in consequence of the advance of the rebel army north of the Potomac, the President issued his proclamation calling for militia from this State to repel the invasion. I immediately issued my proclamation of the same date, calling on the militia to come formand. When the men began to assemble under of the same date, calling on the militia to come forward. When the men began to assemble undrithis call of the President, some difficulties arose from their unwillingness to be mustered into the revice of the United States, as mischievous (persons made themselves busy in misrepresenting the consequences of such muster. In this state of affairs I suggested to the President approach of the suggested to the same of the suggested to the same of the suggestion. si ent the expeciency of my chang the infittation as to remove the difficulties which had been thus created. The President approved of the suggestion and, for the purpose of attaining the end proposed by his proclamation, directed me to make a State call for militia. I accordingly, on the 26th day of June, 1863, issued my call for the militia. The United States clothed, equipped, and subsisted the men thus called in the emergency, but declined to pay them, on the ground that Congress had made no appropriation for that purpose. Assurances were, however, received from the War Department, that if the money to pay these troops should ment, that if the money to pay these troops s ment, that if the money to pay these troops should be advanced by corporations or individuals, application would be made to Congress on its meetings, to make the necessary appropriation to refund the money thus advanced. Copies of two telegraphic despatches from the Secretary of War are here with submitted—one addressed to me, dated July 22, 1863, and the other addressed to a member of a committee of the Union League of Philadelphia, dated July 21st, 1863, and which was immediately communicated to me. On the faith of these assurances, I proposed that the moneyed institutions of the State should advance the money, there being no State appropriation for the purpose. I pledged myself that if the money should be so advanced I would recommend an appropriation by the Legislature appropriation for the purpose. I pleaged myself that if the money should be so advanced I would recommend an appropriation by the Legislature o refundit, in case Congress should fail to do so. A copy of my letter on this subject dated July 22d, 1863, is herewith submitted. These being not entirely satisfactory to the gentlemen composing the Committee of Banks, they had an interview with me here, and I finally handed them the paper dated 24th July, 1863, a copy of which is also herewith submitted. Several of the banks; and other corporations in the State acting with their accustomed spirit and patriotism, promptly came forwards and agreed to advance the necessary funds, and the troops were accordingly paid. The disbursements were made, and the pay accounts were so faithfully as well as formally kept by gentlemen who acted entirely without compensation, that they were settled by the Adjutant General of the State, with the accounting officers at Washington, without any objections arising.

The soms thus advanced amount, with interest at the present time, to about seven hundred thouat the present time, to about seven hundred thosand dollars. It ought to be added that little mo sand dollars. It ought to be added that little more than one half of this sum was required to pay the troops during the existence of the emergency. The remainder was expended in paying such of them as against my remonstrance were detained afterwards by the United States for the purpose of entorcement of the draft.

The answer given by the Secretary of War was, of course, sanctioned by the President. The pay of these troops was, in fact, a debt of the United States, and the faith of the Government was pledged to do all in its power to procure the proper States, and the faith of the Government was pledged to do all in its power to procure the proper appropriation by Congress to refund the money. I regret to say that the President has not considered it to be his duty to lay the matter openly before Congress in a message. A bill, it is true, has been introduced, and is now pending in Congress, providing the necessary appropriation, but it has met with opposition, and in the absence of some public declaration by the Executive, of the pledges made by the Government, it may probably be defeated.

Meanwhile, as your session is drawing to a close, I feel bound to redeem the faith of the Executive Department of Pennsylvania, and do therefore earnestly recommend the passage of a law providing for the repayment of the sums advanced, as hereimbefore stated, if Congress should fail to provide therefor at its present session.

Our own good faith will be thus preserved, and it can be in no ether manner. A. G. OURTIN.

House.—The House was called to order at nine o'clock, the special order being the act for payment of claims for damages sustained by reason of rebel raids in border counties of the State.

Mr. Smith (Chester) offered several amendments providing that the Attorney-General shall depute an attorney to appear before the Board of Appraisers in behalf of the State. Also, that the Conrt of Common Pleas of Dauphin county, on the resport of appraisera is directed to affirm or set aside the same, and certify it to the Governor, who is requested to present it to the Governor, who is requested to present it to the Governor shall report to the next Legislature the proceedings in the premises. Also, that ten days' notice shall be given of time and place of payment of claims.

The amendments were adopted and the bill passed finally.

Mr. Smith (Chester) read in place an act te pro-

SEC. 4. The expense of advertising and the printing of bonds and certificates shall be settled in the usual manner by the Auditor-General, and paid by the State Treasurer out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

On motion the House proceeded to the consideration of the bill. Smi'h (Chester) said that this money had

Mir. Smin (Unester) said that this money had been appropriated for the payment of the mittia called into service last summer. There was no doubt but that the General Government would refund the State: the banks, however, looked to the Commonwealth to be reimbursed, and it was necessary for its credit that it should be done.

The bill passed finally.

An act to provide for the instruction and training of orphaned and destitute children of soldiers and sailors was then taken up.

The bill was discussed and postponed for the present.

The following extract from a letter written by Mr. Harris, of Nashville, proves the wide field for labor in that unhappy State: 'You may remember some families newly arrived occupying the large lectureroom on the first floor; one of them numbered eleven, the other thirteen. The former now numbers four, the latter three. The lament of a mother yesterday, as she wiped the death dews from the brow of har only son, a lad of thirteen years, was, 'Ohi oh! I brought my little once a mighty way to get bread to keep soul and body together; now I have bread, and no children to eat it, all gone; you see! O. God! take me—take me, as poor, broken hearted me. ther!' By the stotest her husband with a dead baby in his arms, the last of a family of six.''

All the above diseases and other Uterine complaints have their origin in a loss of the vital power of the body, brought on by injuries, excesses, sedentary hapts, personal abuses, abortions, and the use of flowerful medicines. Some of the preculiar symptoms are dragging pains through the hips and back, weakness of the limbs, and extreme languor and debility throughout the entire system. The effects produced from these troublesceme maladies are almost multitudinous. Consumption, Byspepsia, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Deafness, Blindness, Fits, Insanity and even Iddicoy are not uncommon.

AWRENCE'S METALLIC BROWN PAINT

—SPER CENT METALLIC BASE.

The Metallic base of this Paint is composed of the Pretoxide and Peroxide of Iron. Its properties are such as to give it superiority over all others in the market for the purpose for which it is recommended. commended.

It has been proved by thorough exposure, and by comparison with other paints, to be the only restable Paint to resist the action of salt water and salt atmosphere.

It is therefore especially recommended for ship bottoms, hulls, decks, boiler fronts, smoke stacks and steam pipes. For iron railings, fences, cars, railroad and other bridges, it is not excelled.

railroad and other bridges, it is not excelled.

It is especially adapted for METAL ROOFS.

It is not affected by acids or gases, and is a perfect protector against rust on metals, and from dampness on brick walls.

It mixes and blends readily with other paints, and by comparison to the amount of surface a given weight will cover, costs about one-half as much as other Metallic Paints.

Wherever this Paint has been used, it has given enter the RATISPACTION, which is, we believe, more than can be said of any other paint in the market.
