CITY BULLETIN.

MILTONIAN TABLEAUX AT CONCERT HALL.—LAST WEEK BUT ONE.—As thonsands of our citizens have not yet had an opportunity of attending these Tableaux, now on exhibition at Concert Hall, we would remind them that this is the last week, but one, of the continuance here of this novular exhibition and as it will be this popular exhibition, and as it will be many years before a similar opportunity will occur of witnessing so grand, sublime and instructive an entertainment, we hope they will not fail of improving the opportunity now offered.

The exhibition is chaste and refined, and commends itself to an intelligent, discrimi-nating public. Upon several occasions we have been present, and have noted several of our most distinguished divines, as well as other well-known citizens, in attendance. "Paradise Lost" is well worthy of a second and even a third visit, and many have hon-ored it a half-dozen times, and the little folks—we speak now in a sense peculiarly our own-never tire of viewing the performance.

Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, for the accommodation of ladies and children, commencing at 3

PRESENTS FORTHE HOLIDAYS.—The near approach of the holidays is giving a surprising impetus to business, and the stores along Eighth street are fairly jamped with purchasers. The great difficulty with buyers is to know what present will be most acceptable to their friends. To those who are undecided, we would suggest a visit to the Fancy Goods Store of E. R. Lee, No. 43 North Eighth street, where a choice assertment of suitable presents may be seen. Mr. Lee has just opened a lot of elegant French Fancy Goods, lately imported to order, consisting of Writing Desks, Perfume Boxes, Jewel Boxes, Card Receivers, Bouquet Holders, Bisque Figures, Vases, Bon-bon Boxes, &c. People, however, had better visit the establishment themselves, and whether they contemplate buying or not, they may depend upon being received with politeness; and every facility will be afforded them for the examination of the various articles of use and vertu. We would particularly direct the attention of the buying public, and the ladies most especially, to the large lot of French sample Fans, offered for sale at reasonable rates. They are the most unique and ornate fans we have ever seen. They are made of sandal wood, and are very PRESENTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—The near reasonable rates. They are the most unique and ornate fans we have ever seen. They are made of sandal wood, and are very strong. A large assortment of Photograph Albums, embracing innumerable styles of bindings, are also to be seen. Artemus Ward has said truly that "no family should be without analytic truly that "no family should be without analytic truly that "no family should." be without a photograph album and a barrel of flower." But to go over the list of pretty things would be tedious. To be fully appreciated they must be seen, priced and purchased; and nowhere can they be purchased so reasonably as at No. 43 North Fighth street. Eighth street.

GOLD IN NORTH CAROLINA.-The Commercial List and Price Current, which compiles the most reliable oil and mining intelligence of any paper in the country, says—
"Amidst the excitement of the past four years the gold region of North Carolina, of the richness of which there can be no doubt, has been almost entirely neglected. The closing of the war and movements of the capitalists and laborers of the North to this section has again attracted attention to them. We have been shown at the office of the "Carson Gold Mining Company," No. 407 Walnut street, a number of rich speci-mens of ore just received from a mine in mens of ore just received from a mine in Mecklenburg county, which will favorably compare with anything in California or Nevada. The mine from which these specimens were taken was opened in 1838, and the owners retired with a fortune of half a million just before the breaking out of the rebellion. The mine will soon be further developed by this organization.

GLASSWARE FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—There is not in the entire city a finer stock of usessware than that of fered by Mr. S. S. Fetherston, No. 270 S. Second street, near Spruce. It is selected from the very best manufacturers in Europe and the United States, and comprises the most graceful, elegant and beautiful pat-terns ever offered by the trade in this country. Vases, goblets, wine glasses, dishes, tumblers, and every article which can be pressed or cut into classical or sparkling forms may be seen on Mr. Fetherston's counters and shelves, and they are offered at prices which are astonishingly low. In selecting presents for Christmas or New Years with a counter small counter that the counter that Year, our readers cannot possibly make more advantageous bargains than at No. 270S. Second street.

CITY MORTALITY.—The number of interments in the city during the past week was 286 against 302 during the same period last year. Of the whole number 145 were adults year. Of the whole number 120 were autits and 141 children—68 being under one year of age; 168 were males; 118 females; 83 boys and 58 girls. The greatest number of deaths occurred in the Nineteenth Ward, being 28, and the smallest number in the Twenty-third Ward, where 4 were reported, The principal causes of death were—apoplexy, 5; croup, 6; congestion of the brain, 11; consumption, 48; convulsions, 9; disease of the heart, 8; debility, 15; scarlet fever, 13, and inflammation of the lungs, 25.

SALE OF RICH PARIS HOLIDAY GOODS,-SALE OF RICH PARIS HOLIDAY GOODS.—
By special request of many friends who could not attend the late public sale, that took place at the Art Gallery of B. Scott, Jr., 1020 Chestnut street, L. & P. Grosholtz & Co. have consented to make a last special sale of French fancy articles to be held at Scott's Art Gallery on Thursday evening next, 21st inst., at 7½ o'clock precisely. The well-known reputation of this old firm will warrant a judicious selection of useful and tasty articles best adapted to Christmas presents, and a large attendance is anticipated. This will be positively the last sale of the season.

THE FAIR CLOSED.—The fair for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, held at Carpenters' Hall, was closed on Saturday evening. The goods remaining were sold at auction. The attendance was large and the bidding, as a general thing, was very spirited. Some of the prices obtained were quite extravagant and considerable amusement was created by the singular disposition of many of the articles gular disposition of many of the articles—ladies' garments being purchased by gentlemen, and men's neckties being "knocked

THE BOOTBLACK ASSEMBLAGES. - The meeting of the bootblacks and newsboys, at the County Court House yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. Addresses were delivered by several gentlemen and were listened to with marked attention by the juveniles. A "Working Boys' Institute" is proposed so that a suitable meeting room can be had and proper books and papers supplied for the boys.

U. A. M.

CORONER'S INQUEST. - An inquest was held on Saturday, by Coroner Taylor, upon the body of Edward Mullen, the driver on the Ridge Avenue Railway, who was killed by being thrown over the dasher in front of the wheels of the car on Friday evening. The verdict was accidental death.

KILLED BY A RAILROAD CAR.-Frank A Maull, a son of William M. Maull, twelve years of age, was killed on Saturday by be-ing run over by a railroad car on Washington street, near Moyamensing avenue. The parents of the deceased reside at No. 330 Catharine street.

SEVRES.—In the great fancy goods sale SEVERES.—In the great fancy goods sale of one thousand lots at 210 Market street on Wednesday morning, will be found only one small teaset of this exquisite china, renowned over the world for its rarity and exceedingly fine material and painting. Ladies will have an opportunity to examine this set, a cursuity so seldom found at public sale on Tuesday morning, at which time will be arranged the largest variety of rich holiday goods that has been offered for a long period.

PRESENTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—A meeting of the Presbyterian Historical So-ciety will be held in the lecture room of the West Spruce Street Presbyterian Church, corner of Spruce and Seventeenth streets, Philadelphia, this evening. The design of this meeting is to diffuse more general information in regard to the great objects of this noble Society. The Rev. Drs. Dales and Breed, of Philadelphia, and McLean, of Red Bank, Monmouth county, New Jersey, will deliver addresses on this occasion. will deliver addresses on this occasion.

HELP THE SICK SOLDIERS,-All the remaining sick and wounded soldiers Eastern Pennsylvania are now in the Christian Street Hospital, all others being closed. The ladies of the old Citizens' Volunteer Hospital are now assisting then and wish to give these remains of our heroes a good Christmas dinner. Poultry, pies, or other suitable gifts for this purpose may be sent to the Hospital, Christian street, below Tenth, care of Steward Gunn. Delicacies of all kinds are in constant use at the hosp tal, andwill be most thankfully received.

FINE PROOF ENGRAVINGS .- A. J. Robin son's sale of fine proof and choice selected engravings commences this evening, at Scott's Art Gallery, 1020 Chestnut street, when about one hundred and twenty-five specimens of the catalogue will be disposed of without reserve. Persons desirous of making presents for the holidays would do well to attend this sale.

ROBBERY.-The coal office of Mr. Markley, at Eleventh and Willow streets, was entered on Saturday, during the absence of Mr. M., and was robbed of a tin box containing valuable papers.

FATAL ACCIDENT,-Philip Riley fell off a dirt car on the Reading Railroad, west of the Columbia Bridge, on Saturday, was run over and killed. He was in the employ of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad.

Another Steamer—A new steam engine is now being built for the Liberty Fire Company of Holmesburg. It will be a protection to the property in that vicinity. DIED OF HER INJURIES .- Mrs. Elizabeth

P. Kern, wife of Benj. F. Kern, who was burned by her clothes taking fire at her residence, No. 1701 Marketstreet, died from her injuries on Saturday afternoon. OLD LUNDY LANE IN NEW ORLEANS. General Scott has arrived safely in the Crescent City, to spend the winter among those who so short time ago were his mortal foes, and now, doubtless, if they do not heartily greet him, will give him the respect due his station. The necessity of going to New Orleans to avoid the cold weather is unnecessary to those who buy their, winter clothing at Chas. Stokes & Co's one price, under the Continental. Their clothing will keep you warm mid Polar snows.

PRESERVE THE HAIR.—Jules Hauel's Eau Athenieme Hair Renovator is not a dye, but a wonderful chemical discovery, void of deleterious properties. It will transform gray hairs into their pristine color and beauty, obviate the decadence of hair, and replace what age os ill-health has removed, without discoloring the skin or the finest linen. Sold by all Druggists, and at the Laboratory of Eugene Bize & Fricke, successors to Jules Haul & Co., 930 Arch street, Philadelphia.
