CITY BULLETIN.

OBSEQUIES OF REV. DR. DUCACHET.-The

Onsequies of Rev. Dr. Ducachet, ... The funeral or the Rev. Henry W. Bucachet, D. D., took place yesterday atternoon, from his late residence, on clirary street above Eleventh. The remains of the deceased were enclosed in a mahogany confin covered with black velvet and silver mounted. The plate bore the following inscription:

Rev. Henry William Ducachet, D. D.

Born February 7th, A. D. 1797.

Bied December 13th, A. D. 1895.

The deceased was clothed in his surplice. His face presented a natural appearance, this features being calm and peaceful. A large number of people had been quietly gathering in front of st. Stephen's Church to witness the solemn ceremonies, and the edifice was thrown open at two o'clock. The centre pews were reserved for the relatives, vestrymen, the ordnans and officers of the Burd Orphan Asylum, the pupils of the Parish School or its Siephen's, Sansom street, 2004.

Ninth and the clergy of the church. The rest of the church was opened to the general public, and the seats were soon enti-sty occupied.

The remains reached the church at half-past three o'clock, and the funeral procession passed through the centre asise in the following order: Officiating Clergymen, Riget Rev. W. Bacon Stevens, Lt. D., Bishop of Pennsylvania; Rt. Rev. Horatio Puter, D. D., Bishop of New York; Rev. Mr. Ewer, of New York; Rev. Mr. Ewer, of New York; Rev. Mr. Beeiley, Rev. Dr. Hall, Rev. Mr. Van Pells, Rev. Dr. Motton, Rev. Dr. Dorr, Rev. Dr. Suddards, Rev. Dr. Motton, Rev. Dr. Dorr, Rev. Dr. Suddards, Rev. Dr. Motton, Rev. Dr. Hare, Rev. Mr. Yarnall and Rev. Mr. Dupay.

The family and relatives were followed by the Vest. Rev. Dr. Dorr, Rev. Dr. Rodney, Rev. Mr. Per. Br. Hare, Rev. Mr. Yarnall and Rev. Mr. Dupny.

The family and relatives were followed by the Vestry of St. *tephen's Church; Wm. Kirkham and Edw. Shippen, Wardens, Chas B. Hagner. Dr. Redman, Janues Megee, Wm. Lippincott, Geo. Flitt, J. kogar Thompson, Dr. Dung;ison; Wm. D. Lewis, Thes. Neilson; Saml. B. Brooks. L. C. Clemann, L. B. Krumbhar. Thos. Cadwalader. Dr. swann. Charles N. Bancker. Geo. W. Bichards, Toblas Wagner, and others, members of former vestries.

The ceremony proceeded according to the impressive burial service of the Episcopal Odurch. The Psalter. consisting of the 30th and 90th Psalms, were alternated by the clergy and the choir. The taxt was it Corinthians; xv. 20. The anthem, "I heard a volce." it cost psalm, 3, 6 verses, the 185th Hymn, "Hark from the tombs a deleful, sound," to "Dundee," and ithe introductory sentences were severally chanted by the choir.

The appropriate prayers were then offered, completing the set. Ice. The remains were then placed in the family vault of the deceased, adjoining the church, on the north.

THE LITERARY UNION.—A meeting of the Literary Union of Pennsylvania was held yesterday. The following permanent officers were chosen-president, John I. Rogers; Vice Presidents, A. R. Cutler, E. N. Patterson, W. A. Sliver. Recording Secretary, Mr. C. Winship; Corresponding Secretary, C. A. Dixon: Treasurer, E. A. Snyder; Litrarian, W. W. Revile. The delegates representing the Spring Garden and Philadelphia Lyceum refused to cast their votes. The President made an address upon taking the chair, The delegates from the Byberry Institute and Philadelphia Lyceum then entered a protest against the action relative to the Banneker Institute and the Philadelphia Lyceum subsequently withdrew from the Convention. The following Executive Committee was appointed—Bancroft Literary Union, A. R. Cutler, American, B. W. James; Athenian, R. L. Wright, Jr.: Calhoite Philolathian, J. F. McDevitt; Irving, R. C. Winship; James Page Library, J. F. N. Snyder; Patrick Henry, Benjamin Danleis; Philolathian, A. A. Dixon; Webster, Kinsley J. Tence; Edward Everett, H. W. Beville; Bryant, H. Sterr and John L. Rodgers, President. Adjourned until the fourth Monday in Janusry. THE LITERARY UNION.-A meeting of BUSINESS EDUCATION.—Young men who BUSINESS EDUCATION.—Young men who desire to get a thorough education for business, should attend Bryant, Stratton & Kimberly's Business College. Assembly Bulldings, Southwest corner of Tenth and Chestnutstreets. The unvecedented success which this institution has enjoyed since its foundation, and the high standing which its graduates have taken in the business community, recommend it as the most thorough and practical college in the country. Tae merchant, the farmer or professional man can make his son no better Christmas present than a scholarship at the above institution.

THE LA PIEBRE HOUSE.—By reference to THE LA PIERRE HOUSE.—By reference to an advertisement in another column it will be seen that the La Pierre House on Broad street, below Chestnut, is offered for rent. The price asked ($15,000 per annum) is but $3,000 more than that received for the property before the way, when hotel property was far less remunerative than at present, and when taxes were very considerably lighter. The La Pierre was always a popular house, and now, when the current of trade is steadily setting westward, the property seems to us to offer a very desirable opportunity for persons familiar with hotel management.

ENGRAVINGS.-The commencement of LINGHAVINGS.—The commencement of A. S. Robinson's sale of fine proof engravings took place last evening at Scott's Art Gallery. 1020 Chestnus street, and although the attendance was very large, the prices obtained were not as satisfactory as was expected, the sale will be continued this evening at 7½ o'clock; when 125 more splendid subjects will be disposed of without reserve. This sale affords persons desirous of making holiday presents, a fine opportunity.

ORGAN CONCERT. The new organ, built by Mr. E. C. Le Droit, for Trinity Church, Catharine street, above Second, has been completed and is to be opened on Friday evening, with an interesting programme of vocal and instromental music. Several of our best organists and vocalists will perferm on the

Another Regiment at Home.-The 188th Regiment P. V. have arrived in this city from City Point, where it was mustered out of service. The members are now at Campi Cadwalader, awaiting final VISITING FIREMEN.—The members of the Minot Steam Fire Engine Company, of Jersey City, have agreed to visit this city on Christmas. While in the city they will be the guests of the Northern Liberty Hose Company.

AN UNFAITHFUL COLLECTOR. - Before Ald, Godbou this morning, John Peterson, a driver in the employ of the Kershaw ice company, was charged with collecting money due the company, and neglect-ing to make a return of it. He was held in $1,000 hail for trial.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.-John Foster, a colored man, was caught in the act of rebbing a money drawer of a store at Seventh and South streets, las evening. He was committed by Ald. Tittermary. THE FENIANS,-Mr. John A. Keenan has been chosen District Centre by the Centres of Circles in this vicinity.

CHRISTMAS AND THE JUVENILES .- The CHRISTMAS AND THE JUVENILES.—The youngsters are now on the qui vive at the near approach of Christmas. This is peculiarly a season of illarity with them. Visions of cake and sugar plums dance through their little brains, to the forgetfulness of everything else. We love the time-honored method of celebrating the occasion by a sumptious cake. We love in memory to recall the time, when a youngster, we sat at the old family board, and head the knife rattle through a thick coating of icing. We saw scores of just such cakes the other day, covered with all kinds of devices, at the store of Levis Buddy, No. 1469 Chestnut street, a few doors above Broad. Mr. B. has a general variety of cakes, ice creams, jellies, &c., and his prices are reasonable.

HWOOD & CARY'S OPENING OF SKATING HATS yesterday was a palpable "hit." Their new skating Hat was examined, applanded, discussed, and purchased by we should think; just about a theusand of the handsomest, best dressed and most sensible looking ladies of our city. The hat is pretty, comfortable, and just the thing for the Skating Park. The article is entirely new, and the price of it moderate.

article is entirely new, and the price of it moderate.

FLEGANT FURS FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—Messrs. A. K. & F. K. Womrath, No. 415 Arch street, have even excelled their own great reputation this season in the extent and magnificence of their stock of Russia Sable, Mink Sable, Chinchilla and Royal Ermine Furs, in each of which they offer superb sets at comparatively reasonable prices. On visiting their spacious balesrooms, a few days ago, we had shown to us a rich muif and cape, of Russia Sable, which had just been purchased by a lady customer at the snug sum of sixteen hundred dollars in gold, making the cost in greenbacks nearly twenty-four hundred dollars! A number of similar sets are now in course of completion, to order, one of the customs of this house being to allow their customers to select the skins they wish, from their stock, and give orders for their manufacture. The extent and character of this expensive class of furs offered by the Messrs. Womrath may be enformed from the fact that, in addition to their own enormous trade here, they have been obliged to supply the principal Furriers of New York from their own importations.

JEFFERSON DANUS IN TOWN.

importations.

JEFFERSON DAVIS IN TOWN.—We had an interview with Jeff. Davis last evening he having arrived in town by the night line from the South. Jefferson looked well personally, albeit wofully shabby in respect to dress. He assured us confidentially that he had come hither in the fond hope that the government would permit him to procure for himself a full outil at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, No. 603 and 605 Chestmu street, above Sixth. We assured Jefferson D. that it was more than he deserved; but we urged, too, that because he had not acted like a gentleman, and it was no reason why he should not be allowed too look like one. We woke up then. We had been, dreaming.

HOLDAY CONFECTIONERY.—The world is HOLIDAY CONFECTIONERY.—The world is now out-doing its holiday shopping, and the discreet portion of it invariably call in at the great popular Confectionery establishment of E. G. Whitman & Co., No. 318 Chestnut street, below Fourth. Their stock of Christmas Confections is vast, varied and comprehensive; their goods are elegant, choice, delicious and wholesome, and the demand for them such that purchasers would do well to call early before the great rush and crush of the eleventh hour come. The boxes of choice dainties put up by this firm are just, the things for neat, handy and acceptable Christmas gifts. A MOST ACCEPTABLE PRESENT, to a gen. tiemen, is a box of Fragrant Cigars, CAFFEE, at EROAD and CHESTNUT, imports all of the BEST brands, and sells at cost—and MORE TOO.

SHARP RETORT .- Horne Tooke, when SHARP RETORT.—Horne Tooke, when asked by George the Third whether he played at cards, replied, "I cannot, your majesty, tell a king from a knave." You may easily distinguish a man of cultivated taste from a boor or sloven, by the style of his cravat scarf, gloyes, etc. If you desire to be au fait in these essentials, visit the great Furnishing Bazaar of Mr. Henry Atkinson, No. 220 Chestnut street, and procure your supplies. Mr. Atkinson has for some weeks past been adding largely to his stock of faacy goods, and he now offers many novelties not to be had elsewhere. Ladies who design making presents to their gentlemen friends, will find this just the place to visit. DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS AND CATARRH. JEARNESS, DIMNIESS AND CATARRI,—

OLD LUNDY, LANE IN NEW ORLEANS.-General Scott has arrived safely in the Crescent City, to spend the winter among those who so short time ago were his mortal foes, and now, doubtless, if they do not heartily greet him, will give him the respect due his station. The necessity of going to New Orleans to avoid the cold weather is unnecessary to those who buy their winter clothing at Chas. Stokes & Co's one price, under the Continental. Their clothing will keep you warm mid Pelar snows.

New Jersey Matters.

A New Steamboat.—The new steamboat belonging to the Camden and Philadelphia Steamboat Ferry Company, called the Camden, is so far advanced towards completion that it will be employed on the ferry on Sunday next. It is larger than any ferry boat hying between Camden and Philadelphia, and is finished in superior style. It was constructed under the direction of Capt. A. B. Frazee, superintendent of the ferry.

ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY.-Last night, as a woman was passing the common near Second and Penn streets, she was assaulted by some villain who sprang out from a concealment. The screams of the female soon brought assistance, when the scoundrel fied. He was pursued but escaped. DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—The wholesome chastisements which the Mayor inflicts upon disorderly characters for breaches of the peace, ought to serve as a warning to that class of individuals; but, they still continue in their wickedness. Last night and this morning several were fined for rowdy beaution.

TAXES.—The City Solicitor has notified about eighty owners or reputed owners of lots in Camden, that unless the claims against them due the city for paving curbing, &c., are paid by the 10th of February next, said lots will be sold. Some of these lots are eligibly situated, and are valuable.

Madame Ponisi appears this evening at the Arch in "The School for Scandai," afterpiece, "Turning the Tables." At the Chestnut "A Nation's Destiny," which was very successful last night, will be repeated; to-morrow atternoon a matinée will be given. At the Walnut Brougham repeats "Dombey & Son;" afterpiece "The Good For Nothing," At Assembly Building Signor Biltz holds forth to-night and to-morrow afternoon. At Concert Hall "Paradise Lost" will be given this evening and to-morrow afternoon. The Circuses are in full feather, as will be seen by the advertisements.

Houses of Gypsum.—In Nevada there is a bed of pure crystalized semi-transparent gypsum. Similar deposits have been discovered in the mountains of Colorado. It has been suggested that this material be used in the construction of houses. It is easily dressed into shape, as it breaks readily into dressed into shape, as it breaks readily into regular squares, presenting smooth, polished surfaces. The transparent qualities, where it is perfectly crystalized, would, perhaps, be sufficient for the admission of light, and this renders windows unnecessary. A house of this kind would equal in beauty and brilliancy the fabled palace of the genii. Some of the specimens of gypsum from beds dissovered in Summit county are most beautifully variegated, and as it hardens on exposure to the weather, we know of no reason why it would not make the most desirable of building material."—Denver News, Nov. 29th.
