[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The Committee on Appropriations had another protracted session to-day on the Naval Appropriation Bill. They have cut down the estimates one-half. The same course will be pursued with the Army appropriations.

The House Committee on Naval Affairs are considering the question of removing the Naval Academy from Annapolis. Several places have been suggested, but nothing decided on.

League Island has many friends in both Houses as the proper site for the rendezvous for iron-clads. Judge Kelley will carry it through the committee.

The President's Message and Gen. Grant's report on the condition of affairs in the South is having a very marked effect in both Houses. The radicals see nothing in it to change their views.

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.]

HARRISBURG, Dec, 20th.—General W. W. A House of Reformation Destroyed by Fire.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 20.—At five o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the New Hampshire House of Reformation, located two miles from this city, and destroyed all but the brick wall.

The inmates, one hundred and twenty in number, were rescued, although most of them were asleep when the fire commenced, and the flames spread rapidly under a high wind. The inmates, except eight or ten, who made their escape, were removed to the stock house connected with the farm. The buildings were insured for $20,000. The loss amounted to $40,000.

From Havana.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Havana advices to the 16th have been received.

Labayen & Brothers' stores and warehouses, filled with kerosene, pitch, turpentine, cordage, linseed, agricultural implements, &c., in Matanzas, was burned. The property was insured for $60,000.

Gonzales, who was arrested in Havana as an accomplice in the Otero murder in Brooklyn, has been released.

A recent conflict of jurisdiction, involving certain heretofore conceded privileges to volunteers, has led to the resignation of many officers of the latter.

At Havana sugar was dull. Molasses, firm. Exchange on the United States, 28½@31 per cent. discount. American Gold, 4@4½ per cent. premium.

From Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 18.—The river is 26 inches high and falling. Four steamers are at the shoals, waiting for a rise to reach here. At Burkesville, to-day, a rise of five feet occurred, which will affect the river at the shoals by to-morrow. It rained here all day.

Cotton is dull; 40½c is the holding price, with few purchasers. Buyers are shy at the ruling rate. Receipts, 440 bales; shipments, 309 bales.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 19.—It has been raining all day and still continues, with a prospect of a big rise in the river. The height of the water on the shoals is 8 inches, and rising.

Chaplain John Lawrence has been appointed, by General Fiske, Judge Advocate to try cases of misdemeanor in which freedmen were implicated. A notice was served on Mayor Brown of his assuming that duty. This order is approved by the citizens generally, as the municipal regulations of this city make it a requisite for officers to arrest people on suspicion of drunkenness, and negroes on all real and imaginary offences.

From St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, December 19th.—The steamer Roanoke was sunk near Commerce and is a total loss. She was valued at $25,000 and owned and insured at Pittsburgh. About a dozen boats are hard aground or caught in the ice between here and Cairo, and much apprehension is felt for their safety.

The weather is cold and no new movement of the ice has taken place; foot passengers have crossed over the river all day, and the mails have been carried over.

The steamer Commodore Tarrand, laden with cotton, was sunk in the Alabama River, on the 14th inst. The boat and cargo are a total loss.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, December 20.—The schooner John Walker, from Georgetown, D. C., for New York, with a cargo of coal, was run into last night, off Black river, and was towed to Hampton bar, where she filled and sank.

The steamships St. Louis and Gen. Sedgwick have sailed for New York.

From Canada.

TORONTO, C. W., Dec. 20.—The Hon. Geo. Brown has resigned his seat in the Cabinet, owing to a grave difference of opinion on important public questions. The particulars have not transpired.

After a debate the subject was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire whether there was any existing contract between the House and publishers of the Globe, it having been contended that such an amendment would interfere with private rights.

Mr. Stevens (Pa.) introduced a bill to pay pensions and damages to the Union property by the rebels, out of the confiscated property. Referred to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

Mr. Lawrence (Ohio) submitted a resolution, which was laid on the table and printed, affirming that Jeff. Davis should be tried and punished for treason; also that those who starved our prisoners should be punished.

ANOTHER HORRIBLE MURDER NEAR NASHVILLE.—On Tuesday night, between the hours of eight and nine o'clock, three horseman, wearing United States army overcoats dyed black, and each having a pair of revolvers buckled around him, went to the house of Mr. James Byrom, keeper of the third toll gate on the Lebanon pike, near a place known as Scott's Hollow, and asked for permission to enter and warm themselves. To this Mr. Byrom readily assented. As soon as they had got well into the room, and had closed the door, the robbers presented their pistols at his head and demanded his money. Mr. Byrom was a brave man and had no idea of being robbed without making some resistance. He immediately seized a chair, and, without waiting to be attacked, commenced hitting right and left, perhaps in the hope that a bold front would deter his unwelcome visitors from farther pressing their demand. All three at once fired at him, killing him almost instantly. Upon the body were found three wounds, one in the back of the head, the ball passing out through the cheek, one in the breast, and one in the bowels. Any of these was sufficiently severe to prove fatal. Just as the last shot was fired, and while his wife was entering the door, the unfortunate man fell back in the midst of his children and expired. Mrs. Byrom, no less courageous and heroic than her husband, immediately attacked the murderers, who leveled their pistols at her, cursed her, and thrust her out of the house. She hastened at once to her neighbors and spread the alarm, but before assistance could arrive, the men had gone. Mr. Byrom was aged about thirty-five or forty years, and leaves five interesting children. He has ever been known as a sober and industrious man. The murder was committed about a mile and a half from the Hermitage, near where Mose Patterson met his death in the summer of 1862.

WILD-CAT IN SNYDER COUNTY.—We have been informed that Simon Roush, who lives near Freeburg, Snyder county, Pa., caught a large wild-cat alive near his house. Mr. Roush is one of the most expert hunters now living. He has frequently caught deer and other wild animals alive.

Finance and Business—Dec. 20, 1865.

There was less activity at the Stock Board this morning, particularly in Coal stocks. The most remarkable change was in St. Nicholas Coal, which opened at 8⅞, and suddenly fell to 7½. Mahanoy advanced to 8½. New York and Middle Coal was firm at 9½. Reading Railroad was firmer, and closed at 53⅜ b. 20 bid. Philadelphia and Erie Railroad sold at 30½, and Catawissa Railroad Common at 22. 126 was bid for Camden and Amboy Railroad; 56¾ for Pennsylvania Railroad; 53 for Germantown Railroad, and 35½ for Catawissa Railroad Preferred. Government Loans were held firmly, with limited sales of the Seven-Thirties at 97⅞; the Ten-Forties at 92½@92¾, and the Five-Twenties at 103¾ for the new, and 103 for the old. Stave Fives were steady at 89½, and City Loans of the new issues, at 89¾@90. Canal stocks were very quiet. Schuylkill Navigation Preferred sold at 33—a decline of ½; Delaware Division at 31—an advance of ½, and Susquehanna Canal at 9—no change. Oil stocks were heavy, and Ocean closed feeble at 19¼. The recent sudden decline in this class of securities causes the public to look upon them with suspicion. Maple Shade, which at one time reached 45, was sold at 5½; Dalzell, which brought 14, sold at 1.44; and for Densmore, which at one period was lively at 17, there was no bid. In Passenger Railway shares the only activity was in Hestonville, which sold freely at 29¼@89¾.
