

BY MRS. A. M. SCHULTZ. Awake, awake! for the flaming east Is red with the coming day, My struggling breast disdains its rest, And I haste o'er the hills away. Up from the valley!—up from the plain! Up from the river's side! For I come with a gush, and a torrent's rush And there's wealth in my swelling tide. Fo

I am fed by the melting rills that start Where the sparkling snow peaks gleam; My course is free, and with greatest glee I leap in the sun's broad beam, Though torn from the channels deep and old I have worn through the craggy hill, Yet I flew in pride as my waters glide, And there's mirth in my music still.

I sought the shore of the sounding sea From the far Sierra's height, With a starry breast and a snow-capped crest, I foamed in a path of light; But they bore me thence in a winding way-They fettered me like a slave. And as serfs of old were sold for gold, So they bartered my soil-stained wave,

Through the dim tunnel, down the dark shaft, Search for the shining ore;

Hoist it away to the light of day Which it never has seen before! Spade and shovel, mattock and pick-

Ply them with eager haste; For my golden shower is sold by the hour, And the drops are too dear to waste.

Lift me aloft to the mountain brow; Fathem the deep blue vein! And I'll sift the soil for the shining spoil, As I sink to the valley again; The swell of my swarthy breast shall bear Pebble and rock away, Though they brave my strength, they shall yield at length, But the glittering gold shall stay.

Mine is no stern and warrior march. Nor stormy trump and drum;

As with conquering step I come; But I touch the tributary earth, Till it owns a monarch's sway. And with eager hand, from a conquered land.

I bear its wealth away.

Awake! awake!-there are loving hearts

In the land you left afar; There are tearful eyes in the homes you prize, As they gaze on the western star, Then up from the valley!-up from the hill!

Up from the river's side! For I come with a gush and a torrent's rush And there's wealth in my swelling tide.

Pennsylvania Military Agency.

We take the following interesting facts from the report of Col. Fr. Jordan, Military agent of the Commonwealth, at Washing ton, for 1865:

The act of the Legislature, making it the duty of this agency to collect the pay, bounty and pensions, for our soldiers, and for the relatives of such as are deceased, free of charge, was approved on the 4th of May, 1864. As soon as practicable thereafter, 1 prepared the books, forms and blanks neces sary to the organization of this branch of duties. The first claim was filed on the 6th of June, 1864; and a total of 729 applications had been entered at the date of my last annual report.

Since then one thousand nine hundred and twenty applications have been filed for arrears of pay, bounties, dc., and one thou-sand and seventy-five have been audited, and certificates issued, or money paid, as follows: To fathers of deceased soldiers,

385, amounting to, To mothers of deceased soldiers,

88, amounting to To wildows of deceased soldiers, 149, amounting to To brothers and sisters of deceased

To widowed mothers and wives of prisoners, 14, amounting to to discharged soldiers, 431, 1,407 36 amounting to . 81,831 81

Total.

$222.571 24 Of the total number of these claims filed this year and last year, one hundred and two have been rejected, and one thousand three hundred and thirty remain yet undisposed of.

In addition to the above, three hundred and fifty-three applications for pensions have been prepared and filed. One hundred and twenty-six have been allowed, and certificates issued therefor as follows:

To widows, 74, amonnting to, . $9,458 84 To mothers, 4, To invalids, 48, . 1,397 59 . 2,090 63 **

$12,947 08

Totals, 126

Of the total number of claims filed for pensions this year, and last year, three hun-dred and fifty-nine yet remain to be finally acted upon by the pension office... One hundred and ninety certificates for pay and bounty were received from soldiers and their representatives, and the money collected upon them and paid over, amounting to forty-five thousand one hundred and fiftyone dollars and eighty-five cents.

Thirty-five pension vouchers were also received and collected for the parties entitled thereto, amounting to two thousand one hundred and eighty-three dollars and sixtytwo cents. Thus making the total amount collected by this agency, during the fiscal year, two hundred and eighty-two thousand eight hundred and fifty-three dollars and seventysix cents.

During the past year transportation has been issued by this agency, as follows: For the remains of deceased soldiers, 313 For persons to accompany the same, $\frac{331}{250}$ For other persons,

Total.

894 The excess of persons over bodies transported is accounted for by the fact that in some cases the parties failed to recover the remains, and in other cases the parties were female relatives, and out of money, when transportation would be issued for two.

transportation for persons not in charge of bodies, was nearly all for sol-liers discharged from Pennsylvania regiments, some sick, some wounded, and all without the means to get home.

PROMPT AND HONORABLE ACTION,-We clip the following handsome notice of the prompt way in which some of our Philadelphia Insurance Companies do business, from the Crawford Democrat, Meadville, Pa. As our readers well remember, the front of Messrs. Gill & Shryock's hardware build-ing, which is one of the best in town, was greatly damaged by the fire of the 25th of last month. The building being insured in the Philadelphia Enterprise Company, Wm. McLaughlin, Esq., the agent of that com-pany, called on Messrs. Gill & Shryock the morning after the fire, and authorized them morning after the fire, and authorized them to have the damages repaired. As the large panes of glass in the windows had nearly all been broken by the heat, and as they were of a very costly kind, some necessary delay was occasioned before the glass could be brought on from New York. However, about one week ago the work of repairing was completed, the bill made out and placed in the hands of Mr. McLaughlin the areat in the hands of Mr. McLaughlin, the agent for the Enterprise, who at once forwarded the same to Philadelphia for approval; and in just four days from the mailing of Mr. McLaughlin's letter, Messrs. Gill & Shry-ock received a sight draft covering their claim. There was no halting or grumbling, or higgling on the part of the agent, or the company, but the money was paid promptly and honorably at the earliest possible day.

JEWELRY.—With the approach of Christ-mas the demand for jewelry becomes very general. The objectof each person who intends purchasing is to be the unber of jewelry stores in Pbiladelphia is le-gon, inexperienced parties are quite at see to know where and with whom to deal. No kind of business offers such inducements for extortion as that of jew-etry. Very few can distinguish the real from the counterfeit diamond, and tewer still can guard against the dishonest dealer in the preclous metals. Unitesi-tatingly we recommend Mr. John Breanan, No. 13 S. Eighth street, as a business man of the highest in-tegrity. His stock is most varied and select. It con-sists of the rarest goods, offered at reasonable prices. His selection of diamonds, preclous stones, gold and silver watches, plated ware and faucy articles is really beautiful; and if any reader, intends purchasing a Christmas present he should first pay a visit to Bren-nan's No. 13 S. Eighth street. DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS AND CATARRH.— J. Isaacs, M. D., Professor of the Eye and Ear, treats all diseases apperlaining to the above memoers with the; utmost success. RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 20.-General Terry has given assurance to a committee of the Legislature that the most vigorous measures had been taken to preserve peace and afford ample protection to citizens. He deems no action necessary on the part of the Legislature. The Legislature adopted a resolution to-day requesting the Governor to urge the Postmaster-General to increase the mail facilities of Virginia. A memorial was re ceived from Robert E. Lee, President of the Washington College, asking for an appro-priation and the establishing of five additional professorships in that institution.

Somera & Son, No. 625 Chestaut statet.under Jayne's Hall, with commendable liberality, have reduced the prices of their elegant stock of ready-made clothing, so as to place them within reach of all. If the benevolent will bear this in mind in spending their money, and take those to whom a new suit of clothing would be a blessing to this popular old establishment and have them suited fit a needed gar-ment, they will be doing good to others and find real pleasme in the act of giving, which does not attach to the bestowal of mere articles of tasteand fancy.
