PHILADELPHIA SADDLE AND HARNESS EETABLISHMENT.-At this season, when everybody is spending money for the en-joyment of their friends or themselves, one is perplexed to know in all cases what class of goods to invest in, and the thought has occurred to us in passing the splendid Saddle and Harness Establishment of Mr. S. R. Phillips, Nos. 30 and 32 South Seventh street, above Chestnut, that for presents to gentlemen, rejoicing in the luxury of horses and carriages, there is a most fruitful field for the selection of Christmas and New Year's gifts in an establishment of this kind. Philadelphians are especially fortunate in possessing so extensive and magnificently stocked a warehouse in this department, and one thas is conducted by a gentleman so thoroughly conversant with the wants so thoroughly conversant with the wants and tastes of our people, and so ready to gratify them with promptness and courtesy. This popular old house, as most of our readers are aware, has, during a period of more than thirty years, stood without a fival in this department; and the shield of gold and silver Medals displayed in one of the windows proves that this pre-eminence is not local but world-wide. One of the medals, for example, was awarded to Mr. Phillips by the World's Fair, London, in 1851, where all the foremost manufacturers of harness on both sides of the Atlantic had entered the lists for competition. The same entered the lists for competition. The same proud triumph was achieved by this house at the World's Fair, held in New York in at the world's Fair, held in New York in 1853, and was similarly acknowledged; our own Franklin Institute has repeatedly cor-roborated this flattering verdict, in which it has been imitated by State Fairs throughout our country almost without number. It has often occurred to us that the success, influence and position of a business house of this character, are matters of public interest, and we trust that the liberty we have here taken will be tolerated on these grounds. Mr. Phillips began his business career in an humble way, and has attained the present eminence in this branch by hard knocks. Having started on the true basis of supplying his customers with the best goods, allowing no misrepresentations in selling them, living habitually within his income and lending his aid to every useful public enterprise according to his ability, he has enterprise according to his ability, he has grown with our city, become known to and respected by her citizens, until now every intelligent Philadelphian knows that the house of S. R. Phillips is the place to obtain the best, most elegant, and most reliable harness, and all other trappings necessary to the outfit of a first-class stable. There are few classes of manufactures in There are few classes of manufactures in which there is a wider field for the display. of taste and originality, or in which these elements are more essential to success, than in the production of Harness and Saddlerg, Both of these characteristics Mr. Phillips possesses in a high degree; and they are clike indicated in the construction and possesses in a high degree; and they are alike indicated in the construction and arrangement of his businessedifice, already referred to, and in the style, variety and rare beauty of his manufactured goods. Nor is any genus too expensive for him to employ, in order to preserve the unrivaled character of his workmanship. When he finds the right man for the right place in his work-rooms, the latter is certain to be come a fixture, some of his assistants having continued steadily in his employ during the last thirty years. Being by far the most extensive manufacturer of Harness in America, his facilities for obtain-ing and keeping constantly on hand the finest stock of materials are correspondingly superior; and as his trade is not local but national, he is obliged to keep constantly (made up ready for delivery at an hour's notice) an immense stock of at an hour's notice) an immense stock of all the various grades of Harness, from the least costly to the most expensive. There is probably not a day in the yea the house of S. R. Phillips does a from two hundred to three hund double and single harness made wants of all-from the man who the luxury of affording his fami horse and wagon, to the million equipage is maintained at an an thousands. Nothing that taste or wealth supply is wanting in his yearly importations of ornan up goods, and expensive trapp larger than those of any other retail manu-factory, in this branch, in the United States THE RETURN OF THE HIBERNIA .- The delegates from the fire companies which in-tend to participate in the reception of the tend to participate in the reception of the members of the Hibernia Fire Company, on their return from Washington, held another meeting last evening. afternoon we visited Eastwick Skating Park near Gray's Ferry, and witnessed merry scenes calculated to make the skater's heart bound with delight. This park not only surpasses all others of this city, but is also the most extensive, best regulated and safest in this country. Neither New York nor Boston can boast of one that is near its could equal.

Only those who have engaged in this happy recreation can appreciate the beauty of the scene on reaching this delightful of the scene on reaching this delightful park as we crossed the bridge. The lithe forms of the skaters sailing hither and thither apon the smooth ice; the gay scarfs streaming in the fresh breeze; the burnished skates flashing in the clear sunlight—all made up ascene to delight the eye; while the inspiring music of the band, as it floated out upon the sharp air, together with he music of a thousand voices and of the he music of a thousand voices and of the The surroundings are quite romantic. The icy lake is bounded on the west by steep hills, and skitted here and there with tall trees; while on the eastern and southern margin masses of rough, wild-looking rocks rise like a distant mountain. With eager impatience we hastened to don our skates and mingle with the gay crowd. How pleasantly the hours flew by, unnoticed amid the pure enjoyment! By and by the sun declined, and the glittering steel and plassy lake drank in his last red rays. Sui in the twilight the sport went on, and the pale moon looked pleasantly down on the gay scene. As we have stated, Eastwick Park is the best conducted in the country. None are admitted but subscribers for the season, so that the harmony is never distarbed by disorderly characters. Mr. Lowry has spared no pains to make his subscribers as comfortable as possible, and has erected build-ings, saloons, etc., that afford every convenience.

ADVANTAGES OF THE SCHEME. First.-Under no circumstances can it be any disad-vantage to the Student, inasmuca as he will receive his instruction at the same price as has heretofore been charged, and whatever he may afterward re-ceive for his acholarship will be really a gift on the part of the propriet is. If he dispose of it at its cost, hiscourse of instruction will cost him nothing. Recond.-The scheme is entirely practicable, as its success will require less tran three times the parconage enjoyed by this Institution during the past year. Third.-Whether n be eventually carried out of not, the student will be redeemable as above proposed. To success will remain good at a'l events, and his scholarship will be redeemable as above proposed. THE DISTRIBUTION OF SOUP TO THE POOB. -There are many associations in the city for the relief of the poor of Philadelphia. The most prominent institutions of this kind are the soup houses, of which there are now several in Philadelphia. Some ac-count of the operations of one of these benevolent societies will give an idea of the immense amount of relief afforded to suffering humanity. The Northern Soup Society, which is located on Fourth street, above Brown, was established in 1817. The report for the year 1865 shows that the house was opened for the distribution of soup on the 29th of December, 1864, and: was closed on the 25th of March, 1865. During that period 54.381 quarts of soup were gratuitonaly dis. the 25th of March, 1866. During that period 54,381 quarts of soup were gratuitously dis-tributed and 2,094 quarts were sold. The whole number of adults and childen who were partakers of the harity was 3,288, whom 426 were colored. The following ticles were used in the manufacture of 157 hyperbolic of hearth 2 hyperbolic soup: 157 bushels of beans, 8 bushels of peas, 30 bushels of training, 125 bushels of potatoes, 60 bushels of hominy, 16 tons of coal, 7 barrels of flour, 1,173 legs and shins of beef, 70 pounds of pepper and 3 sacks of salt.

salt. As above stated, the society was established in 1817. In that year 23,887 quarts of soup were made. With the exception of fourteen years, the distribution has continued since that time. The quantity of soup distributed in each year of that time has raised from 3,816 to 116,753 quarts. The distribution during the distribution during the past twenty years

MOOTATIONS. CLOTHING FOR HOLIDAY PRESENTS. — Messra. C. Somers & Son. No. 525 Chestant' street, un-der Jayne's Hall, have reduced the prices of their elegant stock of ready-made clothing, so as to place them within reach of all. If the benevolents will bear this in mind and take these to whem a new suit of clothing would be a blessing, to this popular old establishment, and have them suited in a garment, they will be doing good to others, and find a real pleasure in the act of giving, which does not attach to the bestowal of mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a real pleasure for mere articles of taste and fand a for the bestowal of mere articles of taste and fand a for the bestowal of mere articles of the for the for the bestowal of mere articles of the bestowal of mere articles of the for the for the bestowal of mere articles of the bestowal of the bestowal of mere articles of the bestowal of mere articles of the bestowal of mere articles of the bestowal of mere art

SEWING MACHINES FOR CHRISTMAS PRE-SEWING MACHINES FOR CHRISTMAS PRE-SENTE-Amid all the clash and clang of rival sewing machines, the Wheeler & Wilson Machine, sold at No. 70 Chestnut street, stands up in the stern majeriy and dignity of a Colossus. Its supremacy is indisputed and indisputable. It is the most appropriate and valuable gift to a lady that could be made. Their sales for pre-seous have, during the past week, probably exceeded those of all the other machines combined. Over 7,000 of these machines have been sold in Philadelphia.

A GREAT CHRISTMAS ESTABLISHMENT IS A. L. Vansant's, Ninth and Chesinut. Superb French Boxes, the bean ideal of a gift to a lady: deticlous Con-jections, French and American Mixtures, Chocolate Preparations, and a thensand tempting novelities now prace his counters.

THE DECISION NOT REVERSIBLE, -- While "twistid loopstitch" and "reversible iour-stitch" are "twisted loopstitch" and "reversible iour-stitch" are "complimented" by being in the others company, the public adhere to their former-decision, of recented, ihat the "drover & Baker" is the only machine suita-tle for holiday presents, as it is the only one that can do all kinds of sewing sperfectly, and KMBROTORE is the correctness of the above.

A CHRISTMAS RIG .- An ancient poet thus

A UTRISTMAS FIG.—All ancient poet thus speaks of Christmas: 'With fuotsteps slow in furry pail y'clad, His brows envreathed with laurel never sere, Old CHRISTMAS comes to close the waned year." This style of costume might have done in old times and for a mythical personage, but for the discreet Christmas observer there is nothing like a dirst-class sult from the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above sixth. Bixth

CHRISTMAS CONFECTIONS. — Christmas and Confectioners are as appropriate in conjunction as they are aliterative. To procure co-fectionery in the highest condition of perfection, it is only necessary to pay a visit to the famous popular establishment of E. G. Whitman & Co., No. 318 Chestnut street, below Fourth. The drain upon the firm is immense at this time; but their resources are equal to it, and all comers are served promptly and satisfactorily with the best, the freshest, the most elegant, and the most whole some dainties. E. G. Whitman & Co.'s neat boxes of choice fancy confectionery are just the thing for christ-mas gifts, and they are immensely the rage. CHRISTMAS CONFECTIONS. - Christmas

A CHRISTMAS GIFT.-No more thoroughly appropriate Christman present can be made, either to gourself or to a friend, than a ton or two of the splendid coal sold by W. W. JULES HAUEL'S EAU ATHENIENNE, OR JULES HAUEL'S EAU ATHENIENNE, OR HAR BENOVATOR.-This chemical disc.very is not a dye; acting on the capillary tubes, it changes gray hair into a brown or black, beautifui and illeilko, whereby decadence is prevented, and the ravages of age and ill health repaired by a beautiful growth of the most soft and glossy hair. It will not stain the skin or discolor the finest linen. Sold by all Druggists, and at the Laboratory of Eugene Bize & Frick. successors to Jules Hauel & Co., 330 Arch street, Philadelphia. narts. 42.033 97,139

FINE HOLIDAY CONFECTIONS .- The pre-FINE HOLIDAY CONFECTIONS.—The pre-sent holiday season is marked with the finest achiev-ments of the confectioner's art. Mr. August Tillmes, the popular dealer, at No. 205 South Ninth street, pre-sents a gorgeous array of articles in his line. which for beauty of design, and excellence of material, cannot be aurpassed. His asortiment of bon-bons comprise over ferty different; kinds, and in connection with a brillian; and endiess variety offCram almonds, French Nougat, Cream Chocolates, Roasted Jordan Almonds, Sugar Flums, Plain and French Secrets, Candide Fruits, cto., renders this establishment a most attractive resort for all in quest of fine confectionery. We might state in addition that Mr. Tillmes used only the best qualities of sugar in the manufacture of the above articles, as the rumber of jeweiry stores in Philadeiphia is its goa, inexperienced parties are onlie at sea to know where and with whom to deal. No kind of business offers such inducements for extortion as that of jew-eirs. Very few can distinguish the real from the counterfield diamond, and tewer still can guard against the dishonest dealer in the precious metals. Unhed-tatingly we recommend Mr. John Brennan, Nu is a Explub street as a business man of the highest in-tegrity. His stock is most varied and select. It con-sists of the rarest goods, offered as reasonable prices. His selection of diamonds, precious stores, goid and sulver watches, plated ware and fancy articles is really heastiful; and if any reader, incends purchasing a Christmas present he should first pay a visit to Bren-nan's No, 18 & Eighth street.
