ABREAL PRODUCTS AND A CONTRACT Their Parting Visit to the President.

The New Minister to the Republic of Mexico.

The Policy of Our Government Foreshadowed.

From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 23. - The Southern delegations, Senators and all, having decided to go home and wait the action of Congress, called to-day upon the President and notified him of their intention. They expect to return and be admitted by the 4th of next March. The instructions of our new Minister to Mexico, who is ordered at once to his post, and to remain near President Juarez, are of so decided a character that the imperial party will not be long in ascertaining the policy of the U, S. Government.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec. 23d. - The was a heavy loser. "Mr. Evans has manfully struggled since his business eclipse ; latterly as agent for the Florence sewing machines. He has just recommenced his old gift book business, adsteamer Charles Chamberlain has arrived from New York. She had the ship Queen in tow. The latter encountered gales about the 21st, and broke away from the ship off vertising liberally (which was the secret of bis former success), and is likely to make a Absecom Light. BURNED TO DEATH. --ON Saturday last four little children, comprising the family, of Richard Gross, residing in the township of Raleigh, C. W., were burned to death. Mr. and Mrs. Gross left home on Friday, leaving their children to take care of the house. About four o'clock, on Saturday, morning, the house took, fire, and the children parished in the famae children perished in the flames. THE SOUTHEENERS I in Washington manifest great bitterness toward Jeff. Davis-accusing him of being the cause of the ruin of the Confederacy, and needlessly prolonging the war. SPEAKING of a beautiful brunette belle of an Illinois city, our friend accounts for the brownness of her complexion by the fact that she has been so often toasted. AT an agricultural dinner the following toast was given: "The game of fortune; shuffle the cards as you will, spades must win."

COURTS. QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Allison.—The case of Edward Simons, charged with the murder of Bernard Kane, in October last, was heard of habeas corpus, in order to have the accused admitted to bail. It will be remembered that the murder occurred on the Passyunk road, near the prison, the de-ceased being shot by the accused. It was alleged that although the pistol was dis-charged by Simons he did not intend to shoot any one, and as the deceased was standing fifteen feet away, there was no intent to injure him.
