THE YEAR 1865.

(Concluded from the Second Page.)
7th inst.; Dr. S. A. Müdd, Michael O'Laughhin and Samuel Arnold were sentenced to imprisonment for life, and Edward Spangler was condemned to six years' imprisonment.
7. Sentence of the President relative to the assassins carried out in accordance with above statement: at Washington, capital punishment was inflicted on Mrs., Surratt, Payne, Harold and Atzerott, and the rest of the sentences were carried into effect; efforts were made to get Mrs. Surratt reprieved, but without effect 10. Ford's Theatre, Washington, closed by United States troops, a theatrical performance being announced to take place there that evening; subsequently the place was rented by Government, with privilege of purchase at $100,000.

14. Official information received that the Spanish Government had determined to deliver to the Federal Government rebel ram Stonewall, surrendered to Cuban authoribursed by Spanish Government on account of the Stonewall, but the sum was not de-manded to be repaid, as a right; it was, however, promptly repaid by the Federal

28. By order of Gen. Terry, an election held in the city of Richmond, Va., July 25, is set aside because voters were excluded by reason of absence as soldiers of the United By order of Gen. Terry, an election States army during the rebellion, when no such ground was taken against soldiers absent in the rebel army; also because the officers elected, with but few exceptions, had been conspicuous in inaugurating and sustaining the rebellion, and because the issue was distinctly made and openly avowed at the election as between those men who had aided and abetted the war against the United States authority, and those who had with their lives defended the flag of their August. 1. Following Army Corps ordered by Secretary of War to be discontinued as organizations: 2d, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th 14th, 15th, 17th, 20th, 23d and 24th. 14. Mississippi State Convention to "reconstruct" the Commonwealth organized at Jackson.

Jackson.

16. Reported captures by pirate Shenandeah, in Arctic sea, up to this date, 30 vessels, mostly whalers.

18. Military Commission appointed by President Johnson, to try Captain Henry Wirz, on charge of fiendish cruelty, murder and stargeton of Union prisoners at Archiverton.

and starvation of Union prisoners at Andersonville rebel prison, Georgia.

20. About this date Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, directed the militia of the State to organize under former militia laws, but General Slocum issued a proclamation forbidding such organization.—Ordinance abolishing slavery, and nullifying secession ordinance adopted by Mississippi State

30. General Carl Schurz, being on official visit to the South, called the attention of President Johnson to Governor Sharkey's militia proclamation in Mississippi, and ex-pressing alarm at probable results; Presi-dent Johnson replied, intimating that "the people must be trusted with the govern-ment" of the State; that if such a militia was organized "the Federal forces in Mis sissippi might be reduced." &c., but that if U. S. forces would take care of them: he odded that he believed the people of that section "would act in good faith and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States of the Union," if trusted.

September.

1. Proclamation issued by Gen. Steadman ordering all United States and rebel muskets, ammunition, &c., in Georgia, to be delivered to the Union military authorities in that State, in consequence of statements that such arms were in danger of being used by lawless persons

2. By order of President Johnson, Major General Slocum's order in reference to the Mississippi militia, was countermanded.

11. $200,000 in gold and silver, said to be part of Jeff. Davis's spoils, which had been captured in Georgia, brought to Washington.
14. Nine prominent Indian tribes signed a treaty at Fort Smith, Ark., renouncing their treaties with the late rebel Government and promising to be loyal to the Federal Government. 19. Secession ordinance of South Carolina repealed by the State Convention; there were three votes against the repeal. 21. Choctaws and Chickasaws signed treaty of loyalty to the Federal Govern-ment, in addition to the tribes which had made treaties on the 14th.

23. Slavery abolished in Alabama by vote of 89 to 3, in the State Convention. 25. Ordinance of Secession annulled by Alabama State Convention.

27. Slavery, by a clause of the new Constitution of South Carolina, declared abolished. 29. Rebel war debt of Alabama declared null and void by State Convention.

October. 2, B. G. Humphreys, formerly a rebe Brigadier, elected Governor of Mississippi.

—Manhood suffrage defeated, by a majority of over 4,500, in Connecticut, the question being on an amendment to State Constitution. Constitution.
7. Having annulled secession ordinance on the 6th inst., the State Constitution of North Carolina unanimously abolished slavery.

11. President Johnson relieved, on parole

A. H. Stephens and several other prominent rebels who had applied for pardon.

12. Habeas corpus restored in Kentucky by proclamation of the President.

18. Provisional Governor Holden, of North Carolina, notified that the rebel war debt of the State must be repudiated, if its people expected to be "reconstructed."

19. Rebel war debt of North Carolina deelared annulled by State Constitution. 20. Two Western rebel guerillas and murderers hanged; H. C. Magruder, at Louisville, and Champ Furguson, at Nashville; they had both been convicted of horrid atrocities by Military Commissions.

27. Ordinance of Secession repudiated by State Convention of Georgia.—Convention also abolished slavery, but declared that this act should be no bar to future claims for compensation for loss of slaves. for compensation for loss of slaves.

28. First Thursday of December assigned as National Thanksgiving by President Johnson; subsequently the day was generally recommended by the Governors of the various States.—Secretary Seward, by direction of President Johnson, notified Gov. Marvin, of Florida, that the ratification of the Constitutional amendment abolishing slavery was indispensable to a suc-cessful restoration of the loyal relations

November. 2. Statement of finances of United States announced by Secretary McCulloch; total debt, $2,740,854,758 86; total interest, $138,-338,078 59.—Four government yessels sold at auction at Boston, for $53,000.—Valuable property in Loudoun county, Va., which had been held for confiscation, released, and returned to owners.

between Fiorida and the other States of the returned to owners.

6. Delegation of females from Baltimore visited President Johnson, asking Jeff. Davis's pardon; President replied that ar-Dayis's pardon; Fresident replied that arrangements had been made for early legal trial of Dayis.—Pirate Shenandosh arrived off Liverpool, in the river Mersey, and Capt. Waddell surrendered her to British authori-Waddel surrendered her to Bridsh authorities on guard ship Donegal, declaring that he only knew of the close of the war on Aug. 30, from the report of a British ship.

At State Elections in New York, New Jersey, Maryland and Minnesota, the Union party had decided majorities; in Louisiana and Alabama, what was called the "conservative" ticket carried.

7. Georgic State Convention repudiated rebel State war debt—yeas, 133; nays, 117.

8. Mexican affairs, as usual, exceedingly complicated; President Juarez announces that he asks of the country an extension of his term of office, beyond constitutional limits, in view of the invasion of Maximilian and the divided state of the Republic; Ju-arez's capitol was then at Paso del Norte.

9. Captain Waddell and crew of pirate Shenandoah released on parole, by British authorities, at Liverpool.—Major-General Canby withdrew all military control of sanitary regulations in New Orleans, with control of State levees and the taxes by which they were kept up; he also withdrew Provost Marshals in nearly all parishes of Louisiana, and stopped charity issues of rations to persons unconnected with the Union army. 10. Captain Henry Wirz, murderer of Andersonville prisoners, executed, in accordance with ser tence of military commission, approved by the President, at the Old Capiol, Washington, 11. In Georgia State Convention resolutions were adopted appointing a committee to memorialize the President for the relief of persons exempted from amnesty, declar-ing all contracts made during the war valid, and appointing a committee to memorialize Secretary McCulloch to defer the assessment of taxes upon real estate until after the meeting of Congress, and that the assessment be made on the present value; also, a resolution authorizing the Governor to appoint three Commissioners with power to fully investigate the cotton transactions of the State Government, to report to the next Legislature; the delegation from Georgia to Congress, it was declared, intended to urge the recognition of the claim of the State to the said cotton.

12. A stir was caused by party of British marines crossing Canada border into Maine after deserters; the affair finally proved of

13. This day fixed for removal of capita of Mexican republic from Paso del Norte to Chihuahua, by President Jaurez.

15. Excitement caused by Mexican Imperialists firing on an American boat on the Rio Grande, near Brownsville, Texas.

20. Gov. Humphreys sent a message to Mississippi Legisla ture, recommending that negro testimony be admitted into the courts and that the freedmen be encouraged to support their families and educate their children, and assuring them of protection, and that vagrants be forced to work: he suggests the passage of a militia law enabling the militia to protect the people against vagrants, white men and negroes; he deems the passage of these measures of witel in the passage of these measures of vital imand they may secure the withdrawal of the Federal troops.—Liberal reports from Mexico announced that Maximilian had concentrated his forces at the City of Mexico, Vera Cruz, and San Luis Potosi, in view of insufficient French aid. 21. Gen. Palmer indicted for enticing slaves to escape from Kentucky; the charge was brought under slave code of the State but subsequently it was nullified.

22. Gov. Parsons, of Alabama, delivered message to Legislature. He urged the adoption of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery; the passage of laws for the protection of ne-groes and their property; this course he says will secure the admission of our representa-tives in Congress, and will restore to the State all her political rights in the Union; he approves of a special code for the governhe approves of a special code for the govern ment of the negroes and recommends the adoption of vagrant laws to be used upon the whites and blacks alike, and suggests vagrant laws similar to those of Massachusetts; he also recommends that provision be made for destitute white and black per-

24. Rebel ram Stonewall, having been surrendered to the United States, arrived at Washington Navy Yard.—Conflict of authority at Mobile between United States military and civil authorities in case of a cotton agent; military authorities refused to obey a writ of habeas corpus; after some delay the case was finally amicably arranged. 27. J. A. Seddon, late Secretary of War of governor of South Carolina, released from Fort Pulaski; both took the cath.—Presi-dent Johnson wrote to Provisional Governor Holden of South Carolina, thanking him for his efforts towards reconstruction and announcing that the election of persons of rebel tendencies recently had retarded restoration; he added that if the legislature should act in the same rebel spirit much mischief would ensue. 28. Postal service renewed between Sa vannan and Macon and between Millen and Augusta, Ga.

Augusta, Ga.

29. Thirteen western gunboats, two propellers and six "tin clads" sold at Cairo by government for about $88,000.

30. News received at Washington from Mexico that not only the state of Chihuahua but also that of Sinaloa, was being evacua-ted by the French, who could no longer oppose the Republican insurrection: abandoning Moria, Concordia and Mesillas, they were compelled to embark at Mazatlan, where only nine hundred were left; this retreat had encouraged the Juarists, who under the command of General Rubi, were getting ready to attack, thus putting an end to the French invasion of Sinaloa.

. December. 2. Louisiana Legislature, by acclamation passed a resolution to the effect that there is no opposition, open or secret, to the Union or State Government in that State; that slavery is abolished forever, and that they cordially endorse the President's reconstruction policy.

4. Both Houses of Congress organized; in the House, Hon, Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, was elected Speaker, by an overwhelming majority; in organizing, Mr. McPherson, the Clerk, declined to recognize the Townesses, and several other delegations. Tennessee, and several other delegations. alleged not to be properly authorized, but the entire organization was effected with but little debate or difficulty.

5. President Johnson sent his first annual message to both Houses of Congress.— Message of Goy. Bramlette sent to Kentucky Legislature; he stated that 63,975 white, and 25,538 colored soldiers had been supplied by Kentucky to the Union army; that the heresy of Secession is forever banished, and that the Judiciary should decide that Secession is treason; such adjudication could properly be had in the case of Jeff. Davis.

6. Pirate Shennandoah, on the way to New York, put back to Liverpool, in consequence of heavy gales.— Louisians House of Representatives passed a Senate resolution against the recognition of Hahn and Cutler as United States Senators; in the House a special committee reported against the Constitution of 1864, and presented a bill for the calling of a Convention on the 4th of January; Gov. Wells sent message to the Legislature stating that he would be inaugurated at 3 o'clock, but he failed to be there on the plea of indisposition. His course created much indignation, as he fixed no otherday for the inaugurative message in the course created much indignation.

as he fixed no other day for the inauguration; Randal Hunt was elected United States Senator.
7. Day of National Thanksgiving ohserved throughout the country.
9. At Louisville, Ky., in the case of the Commonwealth against Major General J.
M. Palmer, for aiding a slave to escape,
Judge Johnson dismissed the indictment, on the ground that the requisite number of States had adopted the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery, before the indictment, and therefore the criminal and penal acts of the Kentucky Legislature relapenal acts of the Kentucky Legislature relative to slavery were of no effect.

10. Rebel guerilla, named Berry, captured and hanged, almost immediately, in Kentucky. 14. Gov. Jenkins inaugurated as Governor of Georgia; he announced that the laws of the United States are supreme; said that the negroes had behaved well during the war; urged that the blacks should be protected, and have their "rights," &c. and have their "rights," &c. | tempting to rescue persons from the flames. Its, Raphael Semmes, the rebel pirate, Several of the family of Joseph H. Ware, having been arrested at Mobile, was closely guarded. He protested that he should be released, as coming within terms of Joe Johnston's surrender.

"16. The Virginia Representatives not having been admitted to Congress, dissatisfaction was expressed in Virginia Legislature, but a resolution embodying that feeling was on objection being made, withdrawn.

18. Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State, issued his Proceeding to announce which issued his Proclamation announcing that Twenty seven States out of Thirty six, being more than two thirds, had adc ted the Constitutional Amendment abolisting Blavery and that "the amendment aforesaid has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United -Secretary Seward, by direction of President Johnson relieved Provisional Governor Parsons of Alabama from his office, with a view of remitting the government of the State to the chief magistrate ment of the State to the chief magistrate chosen by the people of that common wealth. 19. Highly interesting message from President Johnson, embodying a report of a trip through a portion of the South by Gen. Grant sent to Congress; the report and message were very favorable as respects the disposition of the Southern people to come back to their former relations in the Union. 20. Congress adjourned over until Jan. 5, leaving question of reconstruction and all other important legislation until after holidays. 21. President Lincoln's remains removed to new yault at Springfield.—At Savannah trial of Gen, W. W. H. Mercer, charged with murder, in shooting seven Union prisoners in December last, temporarily suspended, awaiting orders from Washington.

—Hon, L. D. Campbell, of Ohlo, nominated by the President Minister to Mexico, and Hon. John Bigelow nominated as Minister to France.
25. Slight disturbances between low whites and blacks at the South, but not serious; at Alexandria, Va., a riot of some magnitude occurred, provoked by white rowdles. 28. Preparations made at Washington Navy Yard, for reception and trial of Semmes, the pirate.

PHILADELPHIA IN 1865.

DEATHS OF PROMINENT CITIZENS.

Murders, Disastrous Fires, Serious Accidents and Other Events.

[Prepared Expressly for the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.]

January. New City Councils organized. James Lynd elected President of the Select Branch nd Wm. S. Stokley President of the Common Branch.

Captain John A. Winslow, of the U. S. S. Kearsarge, presented with a handsome gold watch, valued at $600, by the Board of Underwriters. Robert H. Beresford, a well-known citizen.died. Anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation celebrated by the colored people at Mrs. General Grant presented with a new house on Chestnut street.

3. George W. Fetter, Esq., installed as Principal of the Girls' High and Normal

A meeting of the members of the bar was held in reference to the death of Hon. Geo.

M. Dallas.
G. Milton Allen, Cashier of the Custom-House, arrested for the embezzlement of about $90,000 belonging to the Government. The money was subsequently returned to the Government by Colonel William B. Thomas, Collector of this Port, out of his private funds.
4. Funeral of Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, took place.

5. Vice Admiral D. G. Farragut visited the city.
6. Mrs.-General David B. Birney presented with a handsome house by a number of citizens. 8. Edwin Walter, Secretary of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, died. He had been connected with the Company 40 years.

9. Anniversary of the battle of New Orleans celebrated by the Soldiers of the war of 1812, the previous day having been Sunday. 10. A meeting of citizens was held in aid of the suffering poor of Savannah, Georgia.

12. Brilliant ball given by the Republican Invincibles at the Academy of Music. An address was delivered by George Francis

13. Meeting at Concert Hall in reference to the exclusion of colored people from passenger railway cars. Address by J. Miller McKim, Esq; Rev. W. H. Furness, Rev. Phillips Brooks, Rev. Dr. Bellows and B.

H. Brewster, Esq.
15. Andrew McMarity, a sergeant of marines, stabbed and killed on the U. S. transport steamer Bermuda, near the Navy Yard, by Wm. Hopkins. 16. Meeting of the Corn Exchange in aid of the Savannah sufferers.

17. Intelligence received of the death of Wm. H. Fry, a well-known broker of the city, at Santa Cruz, W. I.
18. Salute of the Koystone Battery in honor of the capture of Fort Fisher.

20. New three-cent notes made their appearance in the city.
21. Saddle and accoutrements voted to Major-General W. S. Hancock, at the Great Sanitary Fair, presented to him at the La Pierre House.

25. Explosion at the fire-works establish ment of Francis Fry, Market street, west of Fortieth. Three lives lost. Geo. Flynn shot and killed while atempting to desert from the Receiving ship. 28. Delaware river frozen over and people crossed above Richmond.

Cabinet manufactory of T. & J. A. Hen kels, on Sixth street, below Jefferson, de-stroyed by fire. Loss $15,000. No inarance.
31. Third anniversary of the United States Christian Commission celebrated by a large meeting at the Academy of Music. States Christian Commiss

Addresses by Rev. Alex. Reed, Rev. B. W. Chidlaw, Gen. C. B. Fisk, A.D. Richardson, Esq., and Rev. Dr. Newton. February.

EVENING BULLETIN establishmen sold, the partnership having expired, and was purchased by Gibson Peacock, for himself and F. L. Fetherson, Casper Souder, Jr., Ernest C. Wallace and Thomas J. Wil-iamson. Passenger Railway Companies increased their fare to seven cents.

2. Locomotive boiler exploded on the North Pennsylvania Railroad next Hatfield. Five persons killed. Francis Grice, an old Naval Constructor,

6. James Wilson died from the effect of a blow upon the head with a shovel, dur-ing a political discussion at the Philadelphia Gas Works. Works. 7. Fancy dress ball of the La Coterie Blanche Doubleday Court Martial organized.

George Munday, "the hatless prophet," 8. Disastrous conflagration at Ninth and Washington streets. Originated in a coal oil establishment and burned about fifty dwellings. Samuel McMenamon Fleetwood, a member of the Moyamensir Hose Company, burned to death while at and George Whitefield, wife and daughter, also perished in the fiames.

9. Several meetings held for the relief of the sufferers by the fire at Ninth and Washington streets.

10. Judge Ludlow charged the Grand Jury in reference to the storage of coal oil Dock street, below Third. Loss $10,000.

Fire at No. 908 Market street, occupied by Chas. Burkhardt, Martin Barkhardt and Harding Newhouse. Loss $16,000.

12. Heavy snow storm. 15. The Coroner's jury in the case of those burned at the fire at Ninth and Washington streets, rendered a verdict, that there had not been due care in grading the yard in which the coal oil was tread. which the coal oil was stored. Honora Power,known as "Crazy Norsh,"

16. Match game of billiards for the cham pionship of Pennsylvania, between Victor Estephe and John T. Montgomery. Estephe victorious. 18. Mayor Henry offered a reward of

$1,000 for the detection of the incendiaries who fired the coal oil establishment at Ninth and Washington streets. 22. Washington's birthday celebrated by the ringing of bells, firing of salutes, raising of bunting and a general suspension of busi

Thomas White, colored, died from the effects of being shot in Middle alley, on the Wm. Walker, a soldier at the Chestnut Hill Hospital, was kicked to death at a tavern opposite the Hospital. 23. Draft commenced in the First and Second Districts. First and Second Wards drawn. 24. Draft continued-Third, Fourth and Seventh Wards, Captain George Taylor, for many years gate keeper at the Pennsylvania Hospital, 25. Draft in the Fifth and Eighth Wards Elliston Perot, of the firm of Wood & Perot, iron founders, died.

27. Draft in the Sixth and Ninth Wards.
28. Drafting concluded in the First and second Districts, by drawing Tenth and Eleventh Wards.

1. Alderman Christopher Brazer died. 3. John Notman, a well-known architec died.

Colored Union League celebrated the adoption by Congress of the Constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. Oration by John S. Rock, of Boston. 5. St. James' German Reformed Church Corinthian avenue, below Poplar street consecrated 6. Good Will Engine and Franklin and Perseverance Hose Companies returned from Washington, where they participated in the inauguration of President Lincoln. Large torchlight procession.

Margaret Smith murdered by her husband on Shippen street above Sixth in a drunken quarrel.

7. Accident on Philadelphia and Trenton railroad at Bristol. Washington train ran into a disabled Adams' express train—five killed and a number wounded.
Wm. H. Paul, treasurer of the Walnut street theatre, died.

John B. Ellison, an old merchant, died. 11. Ex-Sheriff John Thompson died. 7th Union League Regiment (213th P. V. left for seat of war.

13. Howard's express car burned a Manayunk, Loss from $12,000 to $15,000.

14. Mrs. Rachel Hancock died from the effects of a shot while the Provost Guard was firing at a deserter in Fourth street, below Buttonwood.

15. Philadelphia Conference M.E. Church commenced its sessions. 16. Orphan's Home, on Twenty-third street bove Brown, dedicated.

17. St. Patrick's day. Parade of the Fenian Brotherhood and presentation of flags to that organization at the Chestnut street theatre.

19. Wm, Nathaniel West, who had been double for several year. for the murder of his wife, was pardoned.
20. Right Rev. Alonzo Potter, Episcopal Bishop of this Diocese, left for California for the benefit of his health. 21. Geo, Constantine Collins, a prominent lawyer, died.

22. Draft in the Twenty-fifth Ward.

Bodies of the Whitfield family, who had perished in the flames at Ninth and Washington streets, were found.

23. Meeting on behalf of the Southern refugees. Judge Strong presided, and ad-dresses were delivered by E. Spencer Miller and George H. Stuart. Annual Conference of the M. E. Church. adjourned finally.

28. Wm. Hopkins put on trial for th murder of Andrew McMarity.

Pews of the Cathedral disposed of uction.

Rev. Eugene A. Sullivan, of St. Paul's R. C.) Church, died. 30. Hopkins convicted of murder in the first degree.

David Gregory tried and convicted of the murder of Stephen Vieria, at No. 837 South Second street, on the 4th of November, 1864. April.
2. Baptist church at Holmesburg burned.

Loss $4,300.

3. News of the capture of Richmond re ceived. Great rejoicing. State House bell rung. Blowing of steam-whistles and ring-ing of bells on the fire apparatus in front of Independence Hall. Impromptu parade of the firemen. Mass meeting in front of the Custom House. Meeting of merchants at the Exchange, to relieve the wounded. Partial illumination of the city in the evening
4. Union League celebrated the capture of Richmond. The members marched to In dependence Hall, where a prayer was delivered by Rev. Dr. Brainerd, and addresses were made by Charles Gibbons, Esq., and Rev. Phillips Brooks.

5. Press Club of Philadelphia took its new quarters, No. 515 Chestnut street. Funeral of Major C. Izard Maceuen, 198th Regiment P. V., who was killed at Peters hegiment P. V., who was killed at Petersburg, took place, and was attended by the Union League.

Jubilee meeting at the Academy of Music; Prayer by Rev. Thomas H. Stockton, and addresses by Rev. R. J. Parvin, Rev. H. M. Scudder, Hon. John Sherman, and George H. Strayt. For

H. Stuart, Esq.
6. City Councils passed resolutions of thanks for the capture of Richmond.
8. Eighth Union League Regiment (214th P. V.) left for the seat of war.
9. News of the surrender of Lee's army received. Illumination of the city and blowing of steam whistles and ringing of the fire bells, firing of cannon, &c.

10. Rejoicing for the capture of Lee's army. Salutes fired and turn out of the army. Salutes fired and turn out of the school children in procession.

11. Mrs. Gen. Meade serenaded by the Union League, 12. Mayor Henry issued a proclamation

12. Mayor Henry issued a proclamation for a general celebration of the victories on the 17th inst.

18. Billiard match for the championship of Pennsylvania, between Victor Estepha and E. H. Nelms. Estepha was victorious.

14. Flags displayed in honor of the celebration at Fort Sumter for its recapture.

The colored people celebrated the recent victories.

victories. victories.

15. Intelligence of the assassination of President Lincoln received. General gloom throughout the city. Suspension of business, tolling of bells, fiags displayed at half-mast, and buildings draped in mourning.

16. Services in all the churches in reference to the death of President Lincoln.

17. Meeting of Union League and various public bodies relative to the murder of the President, '19; General suspension of business be tween 12 M. and 3 P. M., during the funeral of President Lincoln in Washington.

20. City Councils passed resolutions relative to the assassination of the President.

22. President Lincoln's body arrived in the city, and was received and escorted to Independence Hall by a large military and civic procession. ( 23: Remains of President Lincoln laid in state in Independence Hall, and were viewed by thousands of persons, from six-o'clock, A. M., to 12 o'clock, P. M.

24. President Lincoln's body left for New York, and was escorted to the depot by the First City Troop, 215th Regiment P. V., and several fire companies. Exercises at the Boys' and Girls' High Schools, in reference to the death of the several fire companies.

President. 26. Ninth Union League Regiment (216th P. V.) left for the South.

27. Edward Ingersoll assaulted for dis loyal language used in a speech in New New municipal hospital, on Hart's Lane

28. News of Johnston's surrender re 30. Alleged plot to burn the city. Hotels and public buildings guarded and Fire Department held in readiness for immediate

1. Charles E. Clark, the paying teller of the Commercial Bank, discovered to be a defaulter to the extent of nearly $400,000. Fire at H. S. Henry & Co.'s wool store on Front street. Loss $6,500.

2. Ferdinand and Ernestine Eversbach, residing in Knight's court, Cherry street, below Ninth; quarreled and dangerously wounded each other. Mrs. Eversbach subsequently jumped from the window at the Pennsylvania Hospital and was killed. Her husband died of his wounds.

24th regiment U. S. Colored Troops left or the South. General Grant passed through the city on a visit to his family at Burlington, N. J. 3. Lieutenant General Grant and family took possession of their new house on Chest-5. Thomas H. Craige, a well known ma nufacturer, died. 8. Charles E. Clark, the defaulting paying eller of the Commercial Bank, arrested The light draught monitor Yazoo launched

The light draught monitor Yazoo launched at Crump's ship yard.

10, 62d N. Y. Regiment passed through the city on its way home. This was the first regiment to return from the war. Every day for weeks subsequently troops were passing through the city and were entertained at the Union and Cooper Shop Volunteer Refreshment Saloons.

14 New Union League House, on Broad.

14. New Union League House, on Broad street, taken possession of by the members. Heavy storm of wind and rain. Some twenty or thirty houses in the Nineteenth Ward blown down and considerable damage done in other parts of the city. Wagner Free Institute dedicated. 12. H. K. Smith retired from Superintendency of the P., G. & N. R. R. and was presented with a magnificent gold watch and chain by the employes of the Company.

13. Dr. Thomas D. Mitchell, a prominen physician and a professor in the Jefferson Medical College, died.

15. Riot at Girard Park. Two men shot nd several stabbed. 16. Pennsylvania Home for Invalid Sol diers and Sailors inaugurated by a large meeting at the Academy of Music. 17. Merrick & Son's foundry partially destroyed by fire. Loss $75,000.

18. Monitor "Koka" launched at Kaighn's

19. Disturbance at Eleventh and Pine streets in consequence of a colored man en tering a passenger railway car. Several persons injured. 20. James W. Cummings, with several aliases, arrested for having robbed the Walpole Bank, N. H., of bonds amounting to

22. Freshet in the Schuylkill. All the mills at Manayunk stopped.

Lincoln Monument Association formed, with Hon. Alexander Henry as President.

William H. Jones, a well known printer,

James Dunlap, a retired merchant and 23. 81st Convention of the P. E. Church of this Diocese commenced its sessions. A division of the Diocese agreed upon. Gunboat Swatara launched at the Navy

26. Dr. Henry McMurtrle, Professor of Anatomy and Physiology in the Central High School for many years, died. 31. Collis' Zonaves arrived in the city. This was the first Philadelphia regiment to reach home. The others followed in quick succession. June. Fast Day, appointed by the President, generally observed.

 Soldiers' Reading Room, Twentieth lowing poison,
18. Citizens' Volunteer Hospital taken

3. David Gregory, convicted of murder, sentenced to be hanged.

Wm. P. Israel, Sr., a prominent merchant died chant, died. 5. Rev. Dr. Vaughan, one of the oldest presbyters of the P. E. Church in this Diocese, died. 7. Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations commenced its sessions.

S. General Meade arrived and was re ceived by a committee of City Councils.

10. Review of the returned Philadelphia troops, General Meade commanding, by Governor Curtin and General Cadwalader. Banquet to Gov. Curtin and Gen. Mead at the Continental. Wm. Hopkins sentenced to be hanged for murder. Steamer Bosphorus, the first of a line to Liverpool, arrived.

11. Generals Meade, Howard and Fisk visited the Young Men's Christian Associa-tion and delivered addresses.

12. Gov. Curtin addressed the soldiers at Camp Cadwalader.
Corner-stone of Third Congregational

Church, Eighteenth street above Green; George Francis Clay, the oldest master drayman in the city and a survivor of the French revolution, accidentally drowned.

15. Firemen's parade to receive the Independent Fire County of the County o pendence Fire Co. on the return from a visit o Reading. Charles Borhek, a music teacher and organist at St. Peter's P. E. Church, died.

18. New Methodist Church, Nineteenth and Poplar streets, dedicated.

19. Cricket match between Philadelphia and New York players. Philadelphians victorious. 23. Rear Admiral Samuel F. Dupont died the La Pierre House, George Rush Smith, Health officer, died. 24. General Grant had a reception at the Union League House, Henry Diston's saw factory and Wilmarth & Brooke's flour mill, Haydock street below Front, burned. Loss $72,000.

25. Spring Garden M. E. Church, Seventeenth and Spring Garden streets, dedicated.

Gen. Grant present.

27. Firework establishment of Jos. B.
Bussier & Co., 108 and 110 South Delaware avenue, destroyed by fire. Loss $100,000.
28. Store of C. J. Fell & Co., dealers in spices, No. 120 South Front street, burned.

Loss $70,000.
29. Manufacturer's furnishing warehouse of J. M. Mitchell & Co., No. 24 and 26
North Front street; burned, Loss $50,000.
Wm. B. N. Cozzens arrested by the military and a habeas corpus resisted by the Provost Marshal. 30. Heavy rain. Several houses struck by lightning.

John Kilpatrick, convicted of the murder. of John McCracken in 1858, pardoned.

July. 1. Joseph R. Fry, a prominent broker, den. Spire on the German Reformed Church, Green street, aboye Fifteenth, blown down nobody injured.

3. Joseph and Isaac Sides stabbed and killed by Mary Ridey, at No. 1107 N. Third 4. Anniversary of Independence Day celebrated [with considerable spirit, flag raisings, orations, &c.; general illumination in the evening and a magnificent display of fireworks at Penn Square.

James Dundas died.

5. Wm. B. N. Cozzens, who was tried by Court Martial and afterwards arrested by the military, discharged by Judge Thompson on habeas corpus. son on habeas corpus.

11. Dr. Joseph Hopkinson, surgeon in charge of Chestnut Hill Hospital, died.

Death warrants of William Hopkins and David Gregory read to the condemned.

14. Jónathan Patterson, President of the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company, The log cabin occupied by General Grant as his headquarters at City Point arrived in the city, having been purchased by George H. Stuart, Esq. 11. 15. Seventeen German Singing Societies left for New York to participate in the Saengerfest. The Saengerbund and Junior Maennerchor won the prize for best singing.

16. Heavy rain; freshet in the Schuylkill and Wissahickon, and great damage to mills, bridges, &c.

18. Esler's mills, Nos. 24 and 26 South Fifteenth street, occupied by Esler & Bro., and Milligan & Smith, destroyed by fire, and several of the surrounding properties damaged; loss between $35,000 and $40,000.

20. Intelligence of the death of Bishop Potter in California received.

22. Corner-stone of Lutheran Orphans' Home at Mount Airy laid.

H. S. Henry & Co.'s shoddy mill, Chesting street, west of Thirtieth, burned; loss $30,000. mills, bridges, &c.

22. Charles J. Wister, an old citizen of Germantown, died.

Death of Bishop Potter appropriately referred to in all the Episcopal Churches.

25. Commander James S. Thornton, formerly of the Kearsarge, presented with a magnificent sword by the Philadelphia Board of Unrdewriters.

26. Office of Assistant Treasurer of the United States removed from the Mint to the Custom House. Meeting of Clergy and Laity in reference to the death of Bishop Potter. 30. Fred. Standford, a Third street broker, absconded with $26,000. 31. Death warrant of Wm. Hopkins returned to the Governor at his request.

August. 1. Colonel Wm. B. Thomas, Collector of the Port, and C. A. Walborn, Postmaster, serenaded in honor of their reappointment. Colonel Peter C. Ellmaker entered on his duties as U. S. Marshal.

2. Union Base Ball Club of Morrisana, New York, arrived and played a series of matches with the Philadelphia clubs. 3. Corner stone of new Chapel of the Sisters of St. Joseph's, at Chestnul Hill, laid.

Meeting of the officers of the 1st Army Corps to raise a monument to the memo of Major General Reynolds who was killed at Gettysburg.

5. Volunteer Relief Commission closed.
Corner stone of a new German Lutheran Church, on Herman street, Germantown,

7. Jeremiah E. Eldridge, a prominent citizen died. 9. Active Base Ball Club, of New York, arrived and played a series of matches with the Philadelphia Clubs. Citizens' Volunteer Hospital at Broad and Prime streets, closed.

10. Large sale of Government vessels at the Navy Yard.

11. Funeral of Bishop Potter, at Christ Church. Francis L. Brehm, the oldest brewer in the city died. David Gregory's execution postponed by the Governor after the preparations had been made,

12. Store of F. S. Hovey, No. 231 Chestnut street, robbed of silks valued at $2,000. Cohocksink Iron Works, belonging to the Cornell estate, burned. Loss $20,000. St. George's M. E. Church, Fourth street. below New, partially destroyed by fire.

ment of galdiers to form 15. James T. Moore stabbed during a row and died a few days afterwards.

Frank Dillon, a pickpocket, shot at a tavern in Gold street. He subsequently died. at the Eighth Ward Democratic Convention

16. Henry Stewart, a colored man, stabbed while passing Eighth and South streets, and died afterwards.

17. New house of Hope Hose and Steam Fire Engine company, Pine street above Second, dedicated. Johd T. Stars, an Alabamian, committed suicide in Independence Square, by swaldown. Lentz's factory, North Third street, de-stroyed by fire and several adjoining properties damaged. Loss, $60,000.

James Buchanan Cross, a skillful forger, released from the Eastern Penitentiary after serving out his term of imprisonment serving out his term of imprisonment:
19. Samuel P. Fearon, formerly Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, died.
John A. Murphy, a merchant on Chestnut street, died suddenly.
21. Jesper Harding, Collector of Internal Revenue in the Frst District, and for many years publisher of the Pennsylvania Inquirer, died

23. John Derbyshire, a well-known flour commission merchant, died suddenly, Empire Base Ball Club, of New York, arrived and played a series of matches with the Philadelphia clubs.

25. Moses Thomas, a prominent auctioneer. died. eer, died.

28. Arion and Colonia Musical Societies, of New York, visited the city, and were entertained by the Young Maennerchor. Closing ceremonies of the Union and Cooper Shop Volunteer Refreshment Sa-loons held at the Academy of Music. The Union Saloon was reopened, however, for the entertainment of such troops as might pass through the city.
29. National Convention of tailors met.

31. Meeting of citizens opposed to a rail-road on North Broad street. September. 4. Heavy rain; great damage by overflow of cellars in different parts of the city.

Henry Cope, a leading shipping merchant of the city, died.

6. National Convention of Wool Manufacturers held in the city.

8. Heavy storm; streets flooded and many ellars filled. 9. Good Intent Mills, Twenty-fourth Ward, occupied by Yates & Hindle, partially burned. Loss $35,000.

11. D. M. Lyle re-elected Chief Engineer of the Fire Department.

12. New Hall of the Young Men's Christian Association on Chestart above.

tian Association, on Chestnut street, above Twelfth, dedicated. 13. Louis Lucius stabbed and severely in-13. Louis Lucius stabbed and severely injured by his brother, in Callowhill street, near Fourth. Cause, jedousy.

14. Fifteen coal cars smashed at the Falls of Schuylkill, by running off the bridge into the tumplke.

Algernon S. Roberts, a prominent citizen,

15. Theo. Ahrend, a celebrated violincel-

15. Theo. Ahrend, a celebrated violinceslist, died.
17. Store of Jehn Louty & Co. No. 23
South Eighth street, robbed of $10,000 worth of silks. Some of the goods were afterwards recovered in New York, and the remainder in a vault in Monument Cemetery.
John Neagle, a well-known artist, died.
18. Corner stone of German Evangelical Lutheran Church, Fifteenth and Ogden streets, laid. streets, laid.

20. Delegation of City Councils, of St.
Louis, arrived to inspect the city institutions.

Furniture, &c., of Cooper Shop Refresha ment Salom sold at auction.

21. Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy officially visited the Navy Yard. 23. Woolen mill of Bishop & Kelley on