Heavy Snow on the Santa Fe Trail. The weather has been unusually cold this winter in the Western States and Territories. The Santa Fe Journal, of Nov. 21, says:

The Santa Fe Journal, of Nov. 21, says: The Santa Fe coach came in yesterday, having been detained by the heavy snows on the route. The coach brought in our fellow-townsman, Major Jewett, and also Colonel Collins and Messrs. Ollendorf, Den-Colonel Collins and Messics, Onendori, Den-man and Spear, of New Mexico. Several passengers stopped off at Council Grove to rest from the fatigues of the long trip, until the next coach. The passengers report snow all the way from Santa Fe to Council Grove, from eight to twelve inches in depth, and the Arkansas was crossed upon the ice. Scattered along the route from Fort Zarah, west, are upward of twenty trains, bound in by the snow, with their cattle dying daily by cold and starvation. Of one train, with one hundred and forty oxen, but forty are left, and the teamsters are in many instances leaving, and making their way to the set-tlements as they best can. Heavy losses and great suffering is resulting from attempt ing to freight across the plains so late in the

THE CLAQUE IN PARIS .- Every theatre in Paris has its own claque, and every claque has its own leader, who is practically as much a leader as the leader of the orchestra, and is professionally designated le chef de la claque. The management deals with the chef only, who employs his own assistants, and is responsible for them. These assistants are continually changed and badly paid, and vigorous measures are adopted to secure their dillegence and punctuality. The chef, who is permanent, makes a large income, and his cabriolet at the stage door indicates the position he has acquired in the theatre. His sources of income are numerous and elastic. He is paid a regu-lar salary by the manager, and in addition he levies black mail on the artistes. Every artiste must pay him. No pay, no applause; and as the actor cannot live without applause, pay is inevitable. The usual mode is to enter into a contract for a month. The minimum fee for a month, from the poorest and most obscure person in the theatre, may be set down at fifty francs. The maximum has no limit. It mounts according to the ambition or the means of the actor. As much as five hundred frances have been known to be paid for a single night's applause. The ordinary month's contract does not cover all occasions. When new play is brought out, or a stock play is reproduced, each of the actors is per-sonally waited upon for instructions as to the particular passages at which they desire applause, and fees are charged accordingly. TWO OR THREE COLDS in succession will with many constitutions, secarely establish the seeds of Consumptions in the system, thus converting what was originally a simple, curable affection, into one generally fatal. While ordinary prudence, therefore makes it the business of every one to take care of a Cold until it is got rid of, intelligent experience fortu-nately presents a remedy in Dr. Jayne's Expectorant thoroughly adapted to remove speedily all Coughs and Colds, and one equally effective in the primary stages of Consumption, Asthma and Bronchitis. New Jersey Matters.

A Novel Law Suit.—An interesting case is about to be determined at the February term of the Court of Chancery, in New Jersey. The facts in the case are these: Under the last call of the President (Dec. 19, 1864), for three hundred thousand men, the quota of the North Ward of the city of Camden was one hundred and twenty-four men. To raise these men, a drafted men's association was formed, and the City Counlows: Half Barrels of Superfine. Barrels of Superfine. cil voted four hundred dollars for each drafted man. Thomas McKean and Samuel B. Garrison, citizens of Camden, volunteered their services to free the Ward from draft and assisted in raising a very considerable sum of money. After the quota was filled, there remained a surplus fund of $3,950. This sum properly belonged to the drafted men who had filled the quota.

But by a resolution surreptitiously passed Messrs, McKeen and Garrison pretended to claim the amount of money ($3,950) for the purpose of establishing a Dispensary. The drafted men do not object to the Dispensary but they object to the use of their money; the surplus which properly belongs to each drafted man pro-rata, being used to establish any institution in the organization of which they have no voice. The case will be argued before Chancellor Green, a very able lawyer. Some of the drafted men are in necessitous circumstances and some few of them have died, leaving their families dependent upon the city. The case creates much interest among our citizens. James M. Scovel and George S. Woodhall, Esqrs., represent the drafted men, and A. Browning and Wm. D. Cooper, Esqrs., represent McKean and Garrison.

ANOTHER CONVENIENCE -Since the completion of the large Ferry Depot, at the foot of Federal street, the platform for the West Jersey trains has been extended down to the south side of the ferry. Passengers have now but a few feet to walk to reach the boat. Capt. Frazee, the Superintendent. of the ferry, has evinced no ordinary talent in the perfect arrangements made. Convenience of access and economy of space, are blended with beauty of finish, all looking to the comfort of travelers.

Bartlett, which was driven ashore in a heavy gale at Atlantic City, a few days before, was got off in a safe condition by Japhet Townsend, wreckmaster. It was loaded with coal from Georgetown, D. FIRE IN THE TWENTIETH WARD-THREE MEN BURNED.—Last evening, about half past eight o'clock a fire broke out in a fourstoried brick structure at the southwest cor-ner of Franklin street and Girard avenue, owned by Thomas L. Price and occupied in the basement, first and second stories by FBIDAY, Jan. 5.-The downward movement in Gold and Exchange has flattened the market for produce Jacob Rech, wheelwright, and the third story by H. Price, chairmaker. The flames originated on the first floor, which was used for painting wagons. There were a large number of wagons in the apartment and sales reported are 600 barrels Northwest extra family at $9 @ barrel, and 100 barrels good Penna, extra at the ame figure. The trade are purchasing only in a small way at $7 25@7 75 for superfine, $8@9 for extras, $9@11 or Northwestern and choice Ohio extra family, and they were more or less damaged. The fire ran up the staircase to the third story, but was extinguished before any great headway had been gained. The whole loss is estimated at $3,000. 00 barrels Rye Flour sold at $8. Prices of Corn Meal and there is but little coming in by railroad. The de-mand is fair and 3,000 bushels yellow sold at 83 cents in the cars, and 85½ cents afloat.

Charles Schwartz, a painter employed in the establishment, was badly burned about the face and hands by his clothes taking fire. He was conveyed to his residence, No. 1313 Randolph street. Two other workmen were slightly burned.
