DESTRUCTIVE FIRE ATTHE POINT BREEZE GAS WORKS .- A fire broke out about halfpast two o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the extensive coal sheds at the Point Breeze Gas Works. The coal sheds, where the fire originated, were four in number, having a depth of 250 feet and width of 60 feet. They and the sides, being a kind of 60 feet. They ran east and west, were open at both ends and the sides, being a kind of frame work, with slate roof, and supported by girders. They were located directly to the west of the retort houses, on the Schuylkill. At the west end of the sheds is a tower, to which the state of the sheds is a tower, to which the coal is hoisted in cars, by means of hythe coal is hoisted in cars, by means of hydraulic pressure. The cars then run along a track on top of the sheds, through which the coal is dumped. The north shed, where the fire originated, contained about 2,500 tons of coal. The next shed was empty, while the adjoining contained about 10,000 tons. The fire was discovered in the north shed by the Superintendent, and before he had barely time to summon aid, the whole sned by the superintendent, and before he had barely time to summon aid, the whole pile of coal, from one end of the shed to the other, a distance of 300 feet, was in a blaze. The flames communicated to the woodwork of the adjoining shed and the restaurants. The flames communicated to the woodwork of the adjoining shed, and the roofs of both were soon burned off. Steam engines were sent for, but owing to the bad condition of the roads, only four succeeded in reaching the scene. Chief Engineer Lyle was present and superintended the movements of the remen. The north sheds were entirely destroyed the southern ones, with their contents, being saved. Had it not been for the fortunate fact, however, that the second shed was empty, the whole four would have perished. ed to the northwest of the sheds stands the lime kilns, which being on very low ground along the river front the tops only extended up to the foundation of the coal sheds. These lime kilns were covered with frame sheds, and the latter were partially hurned off. The kilns were about one an a half stories in height, and were filled with lime which is always in a burning state, being used in the purifying of the gas. These kilns, together with the lime sheds, stand isolated, and in no way connected with the main buildings.

On the Schuylkill bank on the north line of the Gas Works stood Lippincott's Labora-tory—a square shaped three storied brick structure, erected there for the purbrick structure, erected there for the purpose of receiving the liquor given off in the manufacture of gas and converting it into some chemical preparation. This belonged to J. Dundas Lippencott. The building took fire and was completely gutted out, and the roof destroyed. The total loss in round figures will reach, it is thought, at least $50,000. At least 2,500 tons of coal were all the property of the control of the coal was thought that some a blaze, but it was thought that some portion of it underneath might be used. It was valued at $12 per ton. The sheds were valued at about $15,000. The laboratory building was occupied by Henry Bower, who was engaged in the manufacture of chemicals. He made in the manufacture of chemicals. He made in the bulk, sulpho cyanide of mercury, which is used for making the eggs of Pharaoh's serpents. He also made prussiate of potash and other articles. His loss is about $1,000, and is uninsured. The loss on the building is estimated at $2,500. No insurance. The fire in this structure originated mysteriously and is under investigation by Fire Marsha Blackburn. The building did not take fir from the burning coal and the fire did not break out until seven o'clock in the evening About that time, a man who resides in a house close by states, there was an explosion and in an instant the whole structure was

The fire among the coal was the result of spontaneous combustion, and it was still burning this morning. Four steam engines were in service during last night, and this morning two more were sent for and pro-eeded to the scene of the conflagration.

AN IMPOSING STRUCTURE.—The spirit of improvement, so rife in nearly all sections of our city, is also developing itself along Front street. At No. 116 South Front street. Messrs. Reiff, Howell & Harvey are erecting a splendid and capacious building, three stories in height, with an elegantly-de-signed iron front, supported by heavy col-umns of Corinthian architecture. The building extends back two hundred and twenty-five feet, and is thirty-one feet wide, having three entrances from the street—one on Front street, one on Gatzmer street, and one on Gothic street. Its interior is divided into compartments conveniently designed for the transaction of every branch connected with the business of wholesale grocers, &c., for which these gentlemen purpose to use it. The plans and work are under the supervision of Messrs. Collins and Auteraeith architects, who were also the architects of the new establishment just completed by Messrs. Massey, Collins & Co., at Tenth and Filbert streets. When completed, the new structure of Messrs, Reiff, Howell & Harvey will be the most imposing wholesale grocery establishment on Front street. The carpenter work is being done by Mr. John Bolt, and is progressing with the utmost rapidity, so that the stores will be finished and occupied in a few weeks.

THE LATE FIRE-FARRELL, HERRING & Co's. SAFES.—The ruins of the late fire on Chestnutstreet still attract throngs of gazers, who watch the work of reconstruction with much interest. Among the objects of curiosity is a safe of Farrell, Herring & Co's. make, which is exhibited in front of their establishment, No. 629 Chestnut street. It was taken from the ruins and was found to have protected entirely $10,000 in money, and many valuable books and papers belonging to Wells, Fargo & Co. The outside of the safe was badly damaged, but the interior is as good as new. Other safes of their make havealso been rescued and have been found to have thoroughly protected their contents. Messrs, Farrell, Herring & Co. have won the highest reputation for the articles they manufacture, and the late fire has only been an additional triumph for ALLEGED SWINDLE.—Charles Devine had a hearing before Recorder Eneu, charged, on the oath of Bernard J. Doyle, with obtaing four hundred and fitty dollars from him by false representations. Defendant was the proprietor of a public house, in Locust street above Eighth, and sold out to Doyle for the sum named. When the latter went to take possession he found that the Sheriff had made a levy upon the fixtures and furniture before the sale took place. Devine was held in $500 bail for his appearance at court. ance at court.

GIRARD ESTATE. During the past year GIRARD ESTATE.—During the past year the receipts of the Girard Estate, including a balance of $11,131 82 in the treasury on Jan. 1, 1865, amounted to $259,266 25, and the expenditures to $228,379 26, leaving a balance in the treasury on Dec. 31, 1865, of $30,831 90. The appropriation for the support of the Girard College during 1865 amounted to $133,950, and of this amount $133,642 89 was expended. For the Girard Estate, $80,050 was appropriated, and $79,814 expended.

AMUSEMENTS. BENEFIT OF BARTON HILL.—Mr. Barton Hill, who as played 'Sam's Little Game' since Christmas, will receive a benefit at the Walnut this evening, "Far receive a benefit at the Walnut this evening, "Faust' and "Sam" have drawn crowded houses at the theatre since the commencement of the holiday week. The wit and aster of the comedy are made palatable by the finished grace of Mr. Hill's acting. He has given the part a point and refinement that deserves appreciation and acknowledgment this evening. "Faust and Marguerite" will only be given this evening. To-morrow night Mr. J B. Roberts closes his very successful engagement. The afterpiece this evening is "The Cricket on the Hearth," with Mr. Hill in his great and touching part of Caleb Plummer. BENEFIT OF MES. DREW.—At the Arch Mrs. John Drew takes a benefit to-night, "Lost in London" has drawn crowded houses since its production. The new year holidays have been pleasant at this theatre, and the drama, with its suberh scenery and impressive tableaux, has proved an entire success. It is put upon the stage with more taste and elegance than any play since the first days of "Rosedale." Featherstone's house in Regent's Park is a model of artistic skill, and the lighted windows, with the candelabras at the door, give the scene a brillancy and truthfuness seloom acquired. The cast continues the same, and the play 1110 are monthly and harmonionisty. The atterplace takevening is "The Fat Boy" with those versatile artists, Marlowe, Robson and Mrs. Henri in the main parts.

Marlowe, Robson and Mrs. Henri in the main parts.

THE CHESTRUT.—"The Sleeping Beauty" will be given to n gh. te-morrow atternoon and to-morrow night. The afterpiece will be "My Wife's Bonnet," with Ward, Lennox, Foster, Mrs. Keach and Miss Cooper in the cast. There has not been a night since the production of "The Sleeping Beauty" which has not withessed a crowded house.

PRESS CLUB LECTURES.—This evening Mr. Stephen Missett, alias Jeemes Pipes of Pipesville, lectures at Assembly Building on "Drifting About," It is a remarkably versatile monologue, abounding in sketches of travel, of character, imitatious, such as those of Madame Anna Bishop and Edwip Forrest, and many other graphic and funny things. He will have a rousing house. JOSH BILLINGS —To morrow evening at Assembly Building Josh Billings lectures. His subject will, it may be safely guaranteed, be a very lively and dashing one.

HELLER AT CONCERT HALL.—At his entertainment this evening Mr. Heller will introduce his "Wood Minstrels." in addition to a number of new and startling tricks. ling tricks.

MINING COMPANIES.

CARSON GOLD MINING COMPANY.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Land of this Company consists of 120 ACRES in Mecklenberg county, North Carolina, 3½ miles from the town of Charlotte, on a branch of Sugar Creek, which stream furnishes gook water power for grinding the ores. This Mine was first opened in 1838 by a man named Carson, who worked it successfully for a num-ber of years. He died in the town of Charlotte, in 1846, worth over half a million dollars.

Two shafts have been sunk on this property, one of them so feet, the other so feet, on different veins, averaging from two to three feet in thickness, which veins still continue on down increasing in width and richness. These shafts are in good order, and ore can be readily taken out at any time. Other veins have been discovered on this property, and tested and proved to be very rich in gold. The cres of this mine are known as the brown cre, and very rich, yielding readily $16 per bushel. This is believed to be one of the best and ost certain mines in the State, on account of the abundance and quality of the ore, and ease in which it is obtained and reduced. This property has been worked by Major Z. A. Grier from 1840 to the breaking out of the war. This Company have purchased this out of the war. This Company have purchased this property, and intend to erect machinery and put the mines in immediate operation. The many advantages of this mine over the mines of Colorado and Nevada can hardly be estimated. It is more readily reached, and has abundance of fuel, with cheap labor. It can be worked all the year, and not as in the case of Colorado and Nevada, be compelled to lie idle for three or four months in consequence of the severity of the

This mine having been worked for a long time proved to be a rich paying one. We do not, therefore have to incur the risk there is in an undeveloped property, but can count on large and immediate returns on the investments. Having an ore that readily yields $10 per bushel, some estimate can be made of the value of this property. With the present imperfect system of mining in this locality, and absence of proper machinery, ten tons of this ore can be taken out daily from every shaft opened. Estimating, say 15 bushels to the ton, the daily yield will be $1,500 from one shaft, allowing $300 perday for expenses. The net product will be $1,200 per day; counting 300 working days to the year, the yearly proceeds will be $350,000, which yield can be largely increased by extending the works. This is considered a very low estimate of the capacity of this mine by experienced miners of that locality. The Assayer of the United States Mint at Charlotte, in speaking of this property, says it has few equals in productiveness in that country, and with proper management and machinery the above product can be doubled.
