From Texas The Proposed Expedition to Mosterey. NEW ORLEARS, Jan. 5.—Additional accounts from Brownsville say that Genera Crawford has plenty of funds. His chief o staff, Col. A. F. Reed, is rapidly raising recruits in Brownsville, enlisting United States soldiers still in the United States service, and promising them discharges s soon as the necessary papers can be made out and forwarded. There has been no interference with this proceeding by our authorities as yet.

Recruiting offices are opening in other parts of Texas. One of the recruiting officers informed the correspondent of the New Orleans Times that a force is to come from New York in addition to that being raised Rio Grande. A camp is being es tablished below Brownsville with sufficient

NEW OBLEADS, Jan. 5.—The Brownsville movements. correspondent of the Times, under dates of the 30th of December, says: "Gen. R. Clay Crawford has arrived at Brownsyille with the appointment of General in the Mexican and Republican army, and authority to recruit an American division for the Republican service, under his command.

Gen. Crawford established recruiting offices at Brownsville and other places. Texas, and the enlistments were already progressing rapidly.

It is reported that Generals Lew. Wallace and Logan are connected with the move-ment, and they are soon expected to arrive Caravajal, the famous Mexican filibuster, was expected with a large sum of money, to assist in defraying expenses.

The Imperialists were in Matamoras. General Mejia had commenced barricading streets, fearing an attack from Crawford's American division at any time.

It is thought that Crawford will move on Monterey, establishing there his base.

A schooner, laden with arms and ammunition constant to a present the arms and ammunition constant to a present the arms. nition, consigned to a purveyor at the headquarters of the Twenty-fifth United States Army Corps, went ashore at Bagdad, and was seized by the Imperialists. General Mejia levied a loan of $10,000 on the merchants of Matamoras.

The military railroads from Brashear are completed to White Ranche, making the travel from Brownsville to Brazos in four hours.

Later news says that American families are leaving Matamoras and coming to the American side, fearing an attack. Liberal forces numbering about two thousand two hundred, are scattered along the river.

Remeantre in the Virginia Capitol. RICHMOND, Jan. 5.—An exchange of pistol shots took place to-day at noon, in the hall of the Capitol, between Henry Rives Pollard, of the Examiner, and Nat. Tyler and William D. Coleman, of the Enquirer. Six shots were fired without damage. except the knocking off of half of the tassel on the cape of the marble statue of Washington.

The House of Delegates was in session at the time, and the occurrence produced a great excitement. The parties were arrested by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and brought to the bar of the House. Pending a discussion on a motion to refer the case to a comthe House adjourned till to-morrow The difficulty originated in an article in the Examiner, on the public printing to which the Enquirer replied by calling on the former to name the person referred to or stand convicted of falsehood. The Es aminer made no editorial reply.

Sale of a Western Railroad. SANDUSKY, Ohio, Jan. 5.—The Sandusky, Dayton and Cincinnati Railroad was sold oday by O. Follett, Receiver, under order of the court, for $750,000, the minimum valuation, to J.P. Yelverton, of New York, and J. W. Pierce and Israel M. Spelman, of Boston, the purchasing trustees, under the plan of the bond and stockholders for the capitalization of the securities.

HOBRIELE TRAGEDY.—The Conneaut (Ohio) Reporter gives the particulars of a tragedy near Grand Rapids, Michigan. According to its account, N. H. Durfee, of Pierpont township, Ashtabula county, then a member of the 3d Ohio Battery, induced a property of Pierpont township. young woman, of Beaver. Pa., to marry a soldier, named Belden, about two years since, for the sake of getting as bounty. It is said that soon after the marriage Belden was poisoned. Last October Mrs. Belden and Durfee went to Michigan, taking with them the child of Mrs. Belden, eighteen months old, and accompanied by Durfee's brother. On arriving at Ada, Rent county, Michigan, Durfee procured a livery team and drove the woman and child into a secluded field, where he killed the woman, by nearly severing the head from the shoulders, and then fractured the skull of the child, which, however, managed to erawl off, and was found by a farmer, who adopted it. The body was not discovered until November 28th, and it was several days afterwards before it was identified, and suspicion directed to the murderer. The sheriff of the county, after considerable effort, traced Durfee to Ashtabula county, but arrived too late, as the man had left, it is said, for England. The brother of Durfee has been arrested as an accessory.

SHOCKING DEATH OF SIX CHILDREN .-Says the Madison (Wis.) Journal: Mr. Henry Drew, Assistant Superintendent of Public Property, has related to us the particulars of a case of hydrophobia at the village of Waterloo, which surpasses in tragic interest almost any story of the kind we ever read. Some six or seven years ago a mad dog went through the village of Waterloo, Jefferson county, and bit a number of animals. Among others, he snapped at the leg of a cow belonging to Mr. Babcock. The animal was examined, but no mork was found and it was supposed that mark was found, and it was supposed that it escaped being bitten. The animal was afterward sold to a man by the name of Garrison, who used her milk very freely, as did two of his children. Some of the neighbors, including Mr. Drew's family, were also supplied with the milk of this cow. At different times during the time since the cow was bitten, there has been inexplicable and fatal sickness among those using her milk, and two children of Mr. Garrison, two of Mr. Drew, and two others have son, two others have been attacked with spasms and died in agony. Mr. Garrison has also been at-tacked at times with spasms. The mystery of this sickness was solved by the death, with every symptom of hydrophobia, a short time ago, of the cow so slightly bitten seven years ago, and in whose system madness has been latent ever since.

CAPACITY OF THE ERIE CANAL.—The carrying capacity of the Erie Canal, with double locks, is equal to $,000,000 tons the navigation year of seven months; that is, 4,000,000 tons each way. This would call for daily shipments at the points of departure of 18,000 tons, say seventy boatloads of 250 tons capacity. We heard no complaint of the need of facilities for transportation; or the lack of capacity in 1860. portation or the lack of capacity in 1860, 1861 and 1894, when the total movements on all the canals of the State ranged from 4,800,000 to 4,500,000 tons, but in 1802 and 1863, when there was a large increase of eastern-bound freight, and the tonnage movement on all the canals was increased to 5,500,000 tons, and before the large class of boats carrying from 200 to 250 tons came into use on the enlarged canals, with a draft into use on the enlarged canals, with a drait of six feet of water, there were some lockage detentions on the Erie at the single locks. And even then if the locks had been kept in good working order, and well and diligently attended, as they could and should have been, there would not have been any delays or detentions, nor any complaints about the capacity of the Eriecanal.—Report of the Canal Auditor of New York.
