CHESS COLUMN OF THE PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN. FRIDAY, January 12, 1865.

All communications for this column must be directed "Chess Editor of EVENING BULLETIN," and should reach the office. at latest, on Thursday morning. All Problems must be accompanied by the solution and name of the composer.

Answers to Correspondents. "A. M."-Mr. Maurian won eighteen games to fifteen, when playing with Mr. Morphy, and receiving the odds of a Knight; hence it is our belief that Mr. Perrin is too strong for this odds. Mr. Morphy's games at Knight or Rook are unsurpassed, but the most finished games where the pawn and the property of the payed by Mr. two moves is given, are those played by Mr. Staunton. For a fine collection of these games, see the Chess Player's Companion.

"M. J. H."-As our Column is getting bound, we have no opportunity of sending you the required games; besides which, we are at a loss what to send you, because we know not what games you have already on

"CHAS. F. KROEH."-Your contribution has been received, and shall receive examination. "N. M., NEW YORK."—We hope you New Yorkers will eatch it from Mr. O—.

- During the past week our Chess community has been visited by Mr. James A Congdon, of Harrisburg, and Prof. Hillmann, of Carlisle. These gentlemen contested a number of games with various adversaries, and some interesting games have been the result.

- A match of Chess commenced a short time ago at the Mercantile Library, between Mr. W. H. Sayen and Dr. J. W. Knox, has terminated in Mr. Sayen's favor. The final score stands: Sayen, 7; Knox, 5; Drawn, 2

- It is proposed to get up a Tournament shortly at the Mercantile Library, which, if a sufficient number of strong players enter, which we doubt not, will be unusually in-

THE advent of 1866 has been celebrated by the New York Chess Club in the very suitable manner of organizing a Tournament, consisting of a series of matches between players of different degrees of strength. To this end the names of eighteen players en-tering the lists having been divided into three several classes, and lots duly cast for opponents in the first round, we find them classified and confronted as follows: First Class—G. H. Mackenzie vs. C. H.

Stanley; Dr. Barnett vs. Worrall; Thompson vs. Zerega; Johnson vs. Belcher.

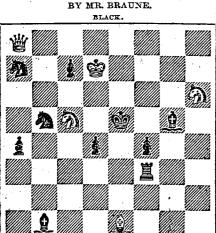

Second Class—Gen. de Trobriand vs. Dill;
Graves vs. Martinez; Graham vs. Dr. Ward.

Third Class—Arietta vs. Dr. Gilbert; Schultz vs. Young.
Two games were played on Tuesday last, by Messrs. Graves and Martinez, of the second class, each gentleman winning a game. Mr. Martinez came near winning both games, but lost the second by too hurried play.

They will play the closing game of the series next Tuesday. Mr. Dill played one game with Gen. De Trobriand, both bolonging to the second class, and after a severe struggle Mr. Dill came off victorious. Messrs. Mackenzie and Stanley have played two games, Mackenzie winning the first, and drawing the second.
