

BUSINESS NOTICES.

COLD WEATHER. "Well, Jones, it's a dreadful cold day, but you don't seem to mind it." "Why, no, I never find it so cold as other people say." "You take, then, something warm within?" "Oh, no-not I, my lady! A man may freeze, in spite of fire; I save my comfort, health and life, and am at Bennett's club!"

EVENING BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 17, 1866.

JOHN BELL. Whether Hon. John Bell yet possesses any influence at the South, or not, we have no means of knowing. He once stood very high in the estimation of the Southern people. But before the war he had lost it in a great measure, and his course during the war was not such as to win him a great amount of respect.

THE OPERA. An operatic season of unusual success closed on Saturday evening at the Philadelphia Academy of Music. In the short space of twelve days, there were fourteen performances, one each night and two in the day time. This was taxing the energies of opera goers considerably; for Philadelphia is a city where places of amusement are filled chiefly by residents, receiving but limited numbers from strangers.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PUBLIC SALE. Messrs. Thomas & Sons' sale on Tuesday next will include four valuable stores, N. E. corner of Eleventh and Market streets, and a lot of private dwellings, situated on the corner of Eleventh and Market streets, and the house at the modern convenience.

JOHN CHAMP, BUILDER. Mechanics of every kind for housebuilding and fitting promptly furnished. SPRING CALL-BELLS of various styles, and placed by the Electric Bell Co. in the city of Philadelphia, and in the counties of Chester, Delaware and Lancaster.

ADVERTISEMENTS. M. A. TORREY, 150 Filbert street. JORDAN'S CELEBRATED TONIC ALE. The JORDAN TONIC ALE is sold by thousands in Philadelphia and is established a character for purity and purity of manufacture, which stands unrivaled. It is a superior tonic and restorative, and is the most medicinal of any beverage.

practice is to keep up a constant supervision of the three or four thousand plugs of the Department by men detailed for that duty, and to thaw out any that may be found frozen by means of salt. This supervision, we are assured, is vigilantly exercised, and is extended to an examination of all plugs used at any fire, in order to see that they are left in good order by the Fire Department.

There is, of course, a possibility that, after all precautions have been taken, a fire-plug may be frozen in extreme weather. But the old fashion of dashing the case to pieces with axes and building a fire around it, nearly as big as the one it is expected to extinguish, is worse than absurd. There are few localities where hot water or salt cannot be promptly obtained; and as they can be applied directly to the frozen part of the pipe, they are altogether more efficacious than the slow process of conducting heat through four or five feet of cold iron.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, of this city, as will be seen by an advertisement, is to be removed this evening, temporarily, to No. 305 Chestnut street. This is rendered necessary by the contemplated demolition of their present quarters, on the site of which a splendid banking house will be erected with as much rapidity as possible.

PROFESSOR R. E. ROGERS will deliver his lecture, called "A Glance at the World we Live in," at the Academy of Music this evening. A synopsis of it will be found in our advertising columns. It cannot fail to be instructive as well as interesting.

and training; if the Directors of the Academy of Music would undertake it; and they would find advantage in it, in always having a chorus and orchestra at their service, so that there could be little expense, except for the principal artists. In addition to this, a well-supplied wardrobe for the chorists, and a musical library, containing the orchestral scores of all the successful operas, might be obtained at no very heavy expense.

When these things are done, then the Academy of Music will begin to perform its proper mission; then we may hope to have the opera cheaper than we can have it now, and to have the performances suit the convenience of the community. Now we are at the mercy of managers, who bring their companies here only when it suits them to leave New York, and who crowd the performances in such a way that it is difficult to attend them all. Will not some of the Directors or stockholders of the Academy undertake a progressive movement in the direction we have indicated?

MR. WOLFSOHN'S BERTHOVEN MATINEES. Mr. Wolfsohn gave his third matinee yesterday afternoon, presenting the following programme: Sonata in C major, op. 2, No. 3. Allegro con brio. Adagio. Allegro scherzo. Allegro molto e con brio. Adagio molto. Prestissimo. Sonata in E flat major, op. 3. Allegro-Scherzo. Allegretto vivace. Menuetto Moderato e grazioso. First movement.
