From Mexico.

NEW YORK, Jan 18 .- The Times corresnondent save the latest advices from Mexico are unfavorable to the Imperial cause. The inhabitants of Monterey feel no security in Maximilian's Mexican troops, and are leaving the city en masse. Over 30,000 are said to have left in three days. The merchants are sending their goods and valuables to San Luis. Sinaloa alone remains in the hands of the Imperialists. On the 31st a guerilla force of 300, among whom were several Americans, captured San Juan de Guadaloupe, in Durango. After having completely destroyed it, they left to attack Don Miguel. A French force left Durango to attack the band. The imperialists claim the

In the State of Puebla they also claim a victory over the Republican General Regules, who attacked Angaugeo, with over 8,000 troops. Another place, named Mararoteo, was attacked by Regules, but he was repulsed.

The Indians of Sahcaba had defeated the Imperialists under Lopez, in Yucatan. They also attacked Senotillo, but were repulsed.

A conspiracy to assassinate the Minister of War, was arrested at the very moment of carrying the scheme into execution.

The reinforcements reaching Mexico from Europe during the last week of December numbered 12,000.

An earthquake shock was felt at the capital at 6.20 o'clock on the afternoon of the 3d inst. Fortunately it was unattended with any accident. The shock lasted for ninety seconds. At Orizaba, where the earthquake was felt on the 2d, the result was more disastrous, the tower and part of the body of a church having fallen, as well as some dwellings; several persons were injured, and two children killed. At Maltrata, one-half of the town was destroyed. The shock was only felt slightly at Vera Cruz.

A court martial at Jalapa had sentenced several Mexican guerillas to be put to death. The late foray of the Republicans in the direction of Tohica, appears to have been of a more serious nature than was first reported. A place called Temascaltepec, was entirely sacked and several of the women carried off. On the 28th ult., they showed themselves at San Nicolas Bastida, after passing through Cieneguillas, having shot at the first named place a letter-carrier who was on his way to Toluca. On the evening of the same day they made an attack on the estate of Gavia, and on the following morning returned in the direction of Zitacuaro. from which they originally came. The places through which they passed will preserve, it is said, for a long time, the marks of their track. Grain for seed and animals, as well as people, were carried off, the latter either to extort ransom or to enlist in their ranks. The native Indians of a place called San Mateo de los Ranchos, received the guerrillas with friendship, but this did not prevent many of them from being carried off forcibly. At Maravatio the stage was stopped by guerrillas and the mail-bags taken away. Ugalde, after his escape, had joined the above-named guerrillas and had been admitted into their ranks.

From Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—The Union caucus held at Columbus last night re-nominated John Sherman for U.S. Senator. The ballot stood-Sherman 49, Schenck 28, Bingham 13. The Legislature meets in convention to-day for the election.

The Suffrage Question in the District of Columbia. WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Seven colored men, representing a large number of colored citizens, North and South and in the District of Columbia, being authorized to speak, publish a card, to-day, addressed to the members of Congress, respectfully submitting, that in the issue now pending before Congress for the extension of the franchise, the action should be based on the idea that there can of right be no privileged class before the law in a republican government, and they seriously and most earnestly object to any discrimination in such qualification on account of color, because to do so would be invidiously affecting them, and exposing them to class legislation throughout the land, and thus make them liable to the greatest injustice. They want the bill to affect alike all loyal citizens in the District of Columbia.

Governor's Curtin's Return. HARRISBURG, Jan. 18.—Governor Curtin has arrived at New York and will be in Harrisburg within a few days, as soon as Mrs. Curtin recovers from the effects of the sea vovage.

A SINGULAR CHARACTER, -A Sire occurred yesterday afternoon in a three-storied brick house in Bender's court, in the rear of No. 922 Poplar street. The building is owned by Jacob Bender, and since it was first put up, seventeen years ago, has been occupied by an elderly maiden woman, named Eliza Haley, who is about 70 years of age. The occupant has made a business of collecting and selling all sorts of things which had been thrown into the streets as useless, such as paper, rags, old hats, boots, hooped skirts, coal skuttles, tin pans and old Christmas trees. The house was crammed from cellar to garret with such articles, a space large enough for a sofa, upon which to sleep, being retained on the first floor. Near the sofa was a stove, which was also surrounded by combustible materials. The sions, and it is wonderful that it has not

Yesterday afternoon the occupant went out to market, and left a pretty strong fire. On the stove was some wood which had been left to dry. The stove became not and the surrounding articles took fire. The neighbors discovered the smoke, and gave the alarm. The flames ran up the stairs to the top of the house, but did not do much damage. The stock of rags, &c., on hand was much injured by fire and water, and some bank notes and currency, amounting to about thirty dollars, were burned. Miss Haley was much distressed at the loss of her money, and she received strong sym-pathy from her neighbors, all of whom speak of her as an industrious, hard working and frugal woman.

PROFESSOR ROGERS'S LECTURE.-The lectures of Professor R. E. Rogers, at the Academy of Music, last night, for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, was a great success. The house was crowded in every part by a highly respectable and in-telligent audience, and the Professor kept their attention enchained for nearly thre hours. The subject of the lecture was "A Glance at the World We Live In," and through a series of familiar descriptions and scientific illustrations, the lecturer developed the wonders of the phenomena of light, heat, sound, electricity, magnetism, &c., &c. He showed conclusively that while all these important agencies were the result of force. force was in turn produced by them. The lecture was most able and instructive, and it afforded unalloyed pleasure to the large audience.

CAPTURE OF A SUPPOSED BURGLAR.-A man named Chas, Steward was arrested about two o'clock this morning in the neighabout two o'clock this morning in the neighborhood of Front and South streets under suspicion of burglary. The prisoner and another man, it is alleged, were observed by a policeman carrying a flight of stairs of sufficient height to reach the second story of a house. Upon being chased the stairs were dropped. Steward was captured but his companion escaped. Steward was taken before Alderman Tittermary and was sent to prison.

A COUNTRYMAN ROBBED. -An individua from the country, who was considerably intoxicated, went into a tavern, at Columbia avenue and Philip street, last evening, and while there, was robbed of one hundred dollars, by two men. The proprietor of the place witnessed the robbery and had the alleged thieves arrested. The prisoners gave the names of William Ash and George Sailor. This morning they were committed by Alderman Cloud. by Alderman Cloud.

SHOT HIMSELF.-A man named Smith, residing at Forty-ninth and Aspen streets, in the Twenty-fourth Ward, shot himself with a gun this morning about half-past eight o'clock. He was instantly killed. The deceased was about 70 years of age. He has been in poor circumstances recently, and, it is said, had been notified to leave the house in which he lived. This fact is supposed to have weighed heavily upon his mind and led him to commit suicide.

WELL ARMED.-Last night a man named James Lary, hailing from New York, was arrested at Fourth and Shippen streets. He ad in his hand at the time a large bowie knife, and on his person were found a lot of skeleton keys. Lary was taken before Al-derman Tittermary and committed to auswer the charge of carrying concealed and deadly weapons. SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT.-Last evening, about six o'clock, Samuel Bracken, the storekeeper at the Pennsylvania Rail-road depot, West Philadelphia, was run over by a locomotive, near the round house, One of his legs was cut off and the other was shockingly mangled. He was conveyed

The Attempt to Assassinate Judge Field— A Miracelous Escape.

The following is a correct version of the attempt to assassinate Hon. Stephen G. Field, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Last Sunday morning, while the Judge was at his table writing, his mail was brought in, and contained a small package about four inches square, and one and a half inches thick. The and one and a half inches thick. The package was enveloped in common white paper, and on one side had a stamp of the Pioneer Gallery, San Francisco, attached. The superscription was printed, and evidently cut from the title page of the "California Reports," with the exception of "Washington, D. C.," which had been cut out of a newspaper both of the sline being out of a newspaper, both of the slips being pasted on the face of the package.

The Judge, upon first taking the parcel, remarked to Judge Lake, who was present, that it must be a photograph, and expressed surprise at its reception. He stepped to the window, and providentially discovered, when he had opened it about one-eighth of an inch, that it was not a photograph, and called Judge Lake's attention to the singular appearance of the box. The latter upon lar appearance of the box. The latter, upon looking at it, pronounced it to be a torpedo and after putting it in water, took it out to the Capitol, opposite the rooms of Judge Field, where he, with Mr. Broom, one of the Clerks of the Supreme Court, examined the package.

These gentlemen finally went into the carriageway under the Senate steps, and shielding themselves behind one of the coltering off the lid and exposing the contents.

About a dozen copper cartridges had been placed in the box, with the bullets radiating from the centre, which formed a space, of about one inch in diameter. The sides of the cartridges had been filed through, so as to afford communication with the powder. In the little cavity surrounded by cartridges was fixed a peculiar friction match, resembling a small roll of paper, one end of which was attached to the bottom of the box and the other to the lid, and arranged so and the other to the he, and arranger so as to be ignited upon the least tension that might be caused by opening the package. Over the match and cartridges there had been poured a paste, composed of fulminating powder and alcohol, thus rendering the infernal ma-chine certainte explade. On the inside of chine certainito explode. On the inside of the lid was pasted the following words, also cut from a newspaper: "October 31st, 1864, Judge Field this morning decided Puebla case in favor of the city." The The box and its contents were sent to the Secretary of War, who directed an examination of the by the Ordnance Department. The officers of this Department state that it is the most remarkable torpedo ever brought to their attention, and that had the Judge pulled open the box, it would have exploded

Judge Field has no idea as to the source of the infernal machine, but from the fact that it was evidently made by a scientific man, familiar with such work, and that the package was too large to be put in the letter-box in San Francisco, but must have been passed through the post office window, it is reasonable to believe that the sender of the torpedo will be brought to justice. The ritles to property, given by the city of San Francisco, and which was decided in favor of the city by Judge Field, in 1864, thereby dispossessing a large number of speculators and adventurers, who had occupied land as "squatters." The Judge is at a loss to determine whether the infernal machine was that he gome of these dispuried adventures. sent by some of these disappointed adven-turers, or by some culprit who has had justice meted out to him by Judge Field, and who now uses the reference to the Puebla case to throw suspiciou on the wrong track.

From Washington. [Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] Washington, Jan. 18. The Ways and Means Committee came to no conclusion to-day in regard to the loan bill. They are pretty well agreed to everything except its foreign clause. The Reconstruction Committee are taking evidence. They have had several persons before them, Treasury agents and others, who have been traveling South for six or eight months. The evidence elicited does not benefit the chances of admission of Southern delegations. The Secretary of the Treasury gives no encouragement to the Canadian officials, who are urging an extension of the time for the termination of the Reciprocity Treaty. The Committee on Banking will probably report against any extension of the present capital of the National Banks.

Mr. Crosland said that members who were forced to remain in Harrisburg over Sunday, must either stay at hotels or come to the House, and the latter was preferable. Mr.Ruddiman—Another opportunity was open, that of visiting church. Mr. Crosland thought there was a disposition to force the members to some church, and while he had the ability to follow the dictates of his own conscience, he did not intend to be forced in a land of reli-

Messrs. Danks and Ruddiman repudiated the idea of force, but insisted that the officers of the House needed relaxation. Mr. Sturdivant stated that for five years past the Hall had not been closed on Sunday.

Mr. Qnigley moved to postpone the whole subject indefinitely. On this the ayes were 57 and the noes 35, so the motion was agreed to. Nist Prius—Justice Read.—The Pennsylvania Bailroad Company et al. vs. The Atlantic and Great Western Railway Company et al. The argument on this case was resumed this morning by Mr. Gibbons. He contended that the contract between the Catawissa.
Railroad Companyland the Sunbury and Eric could not be assigned. In having mode the transfer to the Atlantic and Great Western Railway Company, the Catawissa Bailroad has put it beyond its power to comply with the covenants with the Sunbury and Eric Railroad Company. He next adverted to the Atlantic and Great Western Railway Company, quoting from the Acts of Assembly in order to defend its powers and privileges. The first act incorporating the Meadville Railroad fixed definitely the termini of the road. They must by this act go to Meadville. Have they gone to Eric? Have they ever carried a passenger or a pound of freight from Meadville to Eric? Never. When the Legislature directed this Company to give "the same or equal connections" to the Sunbury and Eric Railroad Company, it was never intended that the Company, should be the destroyer of the Sunbury and Eric Railroad Company, it was never intended that the Company should be the destroyer of the Sunbury and Eric Railroad Company, then in the course of construction. In commenting upon the charter of the Company, claiming to exercise these powers. By virtue of these decisions the Meadville Railroad Company is held to the strict performance of the duties and powers delegated to it. It cannot escape the construction of the railroad from Meadville to Eric. They might have accompilahed to by connections, but they have failed to to connect with other railroad sit he missives of this privilege of extending their road "from some point thereof to connect with other railroad, thus derive Railroad, to th

and fift be not such a connection it is not a lawful connection.

Mr. Gibbons next discussed the validity of the lease between the parties, and he referred to the various acts of assembly anthorizing such contracts. These acts should be read together. The first act authorizes companies which connect to make contracts by which the cars of the one company may run upon the road of the other. The second act construes this act of 1847 to mean a grant of authority from one company to lease its road to another company, and a grant to the lessee of the right to fix the rate of toils upon the property leased. The act of 1851 which extends the provisions of these two sets to railroads connected directly or by by means of intervening railroads. Under these acts the Western Ceutral Bailroad Company has become a party to this contract jointly with the Atlantic and Great Western Railway company. It has been shown that the Western (entral Railroad Company has no existence outside of the act by which it was created; that it owns no railroad; that it has never attempted the construction of a railroad, and there has been, up to the present day, no organization of the company except so far as that may be inferred from the fact that there is road, and there has been, up to the present day, no organization of the company except so far as that may be interred from the fact that there is attached to the contract a seal of a Company and the name of a gentleman represented to be the President of the Company. Then by what authority can the Western Railroad Company enterinto any contract or lease with the ctaxwissa Railroad Company, from which, even if this road was constructed, it is separated by a distance of more than one hundred miles.

The argument of Mr. Gibbons, was not closed when one hundred miles.

The argument of Mr. Gibbons was not closed when our report closed. SINGULAR DEATHS.—Two peculiar deaths occurred eight days ago, at Harpeth river, near Nashville, where a railroad train was thrown from the track. T. S. Woodbury, road master, in the baggage car, was dashed down, and a metallic coffin fell upon and crushed his skull. A poor negro woman sitting by a stove, had it thrown on her, breaking her ribs, and was literally baked and burned to death by it before it could be
