

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

"Protestant Episcopal Church." Under this title the photographic report of the proceedings of the last General Convention of the P. E. Church, has just been published by Messrs. Sutton and Murphy. The proceedings of this body have attracted more attention and excited a wider interest than those of any religious body ever assembled in this country.

The "Belton Estate," by Anthony Trollope, has been read with much interest during its weekly appearance in Littell, and will be gladly welcomed in its complete form. Like all Trollope's books, it is well written and entertaining, but we could wish for something more new and original than the scenes and correspondence between the lovers. Many of these in the Belton Estate remind us instantly of similar situations and letters in "Can You Forget Her" and "Miss Mackenzie," but on the whole, we can heartily recommend the book to our readers.

A. S. Barnes & Co., New York, have just published a new Geography, in which the science of Geography is sought to be imparted to the pupil by familiar language and intelligible engravings, rather than through the medium of scientific and difficult terms. It is in Atlas form, beautifully printed and copiously illustrated with numerous original engravings. The author is Professor James Monteith, a teacher of high standing. For sale by Sower, Barnes & Potts.

CITY BULLETIN.

CITY MORTALITY.—The number of interments in the city during the past week was 303 against 307 during the same period last year. Of the whole number 157 were adults and 151 children—82 being under one year of age; 158 were males and 145 females; 81 boys and 70 girls.

The number of deaths in each ward was: First, 14; Second, 17; Third, 13; Fourth, 14; Fifth, 15; Sixth, 8; Seventh, 20; Eighth, 8; Ninth, 8; Tenth, 6; Eleventh, 6; Twelfth, 4; Thirteenth, 5; Fourteenth, 8; Fifteenth, 17; Sixteenth, 7; Seventeenth, 11; Eighteenth, 11; Nineteenth, 26; Twentieth, 14; Twenty-first, 7; Twenty-second, 10; Twenty-third, 9; Twenty-fourth, 20; Twenty-fifth, 6; Twenty-sixth, 18; unknown, 11.

COWARDLY ASSAULT.—Abin Dougherty was before Alderman Johnson, yesterday, upon the charge of having assaulted a one-armed man, the keeper of a tavern in the Twenty-fourth ward. It seems that a few nights ago four men, one of whom is alleged to have been Dougherty, went to the tavern, and after beating the proprietor, robbed the field, illustrating the various forms of human suffering, and the consolations which a pure and simple Christianity so abundantly affords to the bereaved and afflicted.

FIRE IN THE FOURTH WARD.—At 6 o'clock last evening a fire occurred at the building No. 604 South Second street, occupied as a residence and dry goods store by Thos. Moore. The contents of the store were destroyed, the loss being estimated at $3,000, upon which there is an insurance of $5,000 in the Royal Insurance Company. About five minutes before the fire was discovered, Mrs. Moore had occasion to go into the store and took with her a lighted candle. At the moment the front door was opened the flames spread rapidly and the contents were totally consumed, scarcely a vestige being left. The building was very slightly injured.

MAENNECHOR MASQUERADE.—To-morrow evening will come off this grand ball. The society has done everything to make it a splendid and most novel affair. Their former balls have been attended by our best and most respectable citizens and their ladies. To make the company select tickets are only sold by subscription.

A PLEASANT FESTIVAL.—On the evening of the 15th inst., the personal friends of Mr. W. Shinn met at the residence of John V. Sloan, Esq., 2125 Vine street, to tender their congratulations, he having attained his majority. The occasion was one of gay festivities. The parlors were splendidly decorated with flowers, flags, birds, &c. After a sumptuous repast a number of toasts were drunk, suitable to the occasion, a neat, modest speech to the congratulations of his friends, "The Liberty Corner" Ball, which made its appearance, and with music, dancing, &c., "mirth made gladness," until long after the "wee small hours."

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—Cornelius Conell met with a frightful accident on Saturday afternoon, while engaged in hoisting boards up the hatchway in Rockhill & Wilson's building, on Chestnut street above Sixth. The boards slipped from the rope around them, and struck him with force just above the eyes, and continuing on, tore his nose almost off, disfiguring his face in a shocking manner. He was conveyed to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where he died yesterday. The deceased was 40 years of age, and resided at No. 618 Penn street.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—There will be a Union Temperance meeting in connection with the first anniversary of the Union Reform Association, in the Church of the Epiphany, Chestnut street, above Fifteenth street, this evening. Bishop Simpson, President of the Society, will make the opening address. Rev. Alfred Barnes, and Rev. Drs. Edwards, Kennard, Marsh, Newton, Talmage, and others, will take part in the exercises.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—Jacob McNeil, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was run over and killed, about eight o'clock yesterday morning, by a train of cars, near White Hall station. The deceased was forty years of age, and resided at Columbia, Pa., where he leaves a wife and several children. Coroner Taylor held an inquest on the body.
