PENNSYLVANIA'S HEROIC DEAD!

ebu kulendere errikt Where They are Buried in the South.

The Condition of the Cem-🔗 etéries.

Report of the Superintendent of Telegraphing and Transportation.

TRANSPORTATION AND TELEGRAPH DEP'T., HARRISBURG, January 16, 1866.—Sir. That the great anxiety to know the condition of the graves and graveyards of those who fell victims to cruel neglect and starvation during the late war, in the prison that the first the graves are the started with places of the South, might be satisfied with personal observation and inspection—and that advisory answers as to the feasibility of the removal of bodies from these places, might be returned to unfortunate friends and kinsmen for assistance of the State under the Volunteer Relief Associationsproceeded by your direction to Washington on the 18th ult., on the way to the principal points where these burying grounds are located, in the Military Department of the Atlantic, accessible by railroad.

To the end that time and expense might be saved in the accomplishment of this object, it was thought advisable that Col. Chamberlin should proceed on a similar mission from Nashville to Andersonville, Ga., and intermediate points—the railroad Ga., and intermediate points—the railroad communication being more perfect and the distance to be traveled less than beyond the most Southern points in the East should be required to visit—I therefore communicated to Col. Chamberlin by letter the instruction under which I acted, and desired him to proceed at his earliest convenience in College of the control of the college.

An informal order from the headquarter of the armies of the United States secured me the courteous attention and assistance of of all local military offices in furtherance

On the outskirts of Richmond. I found the grounds allotted to the burial of Union soldiers in Oakwood and Hollywood Cemeteries, and the enclosure containing the of those who languished and died under the rigors of prison treatment on Belle Isle, surrounded by plain substantial fences. The burials in Hollywood Cemetery are those deceased since the rebel evacua tion of the city. The graves here are of sufficient depth, and well marked with plainly lettered head-boards. At Oakwood and on Belle Isle moulder the bodies of those who died during the dark days when the Confederate flag flaunted treason, and when brave and patriotic men, imprisoned in unwholesome prison-houses and on this ak isle, sickened and died.

Here the furrowed ground alone marks the great mortality that depleted our armies, there being but iew marks by which to identify or distinguish particular inter-ments. A catalogue of the names, companies and regiments of the heroes buried in and around Richmond, compiled and published by the U.S. Christian Commission is invaluable for the information it gives the bereaved friends of these. An inspection of the prison graveyards at Danville, Va., discovered to me that some care, although unusual, had been taken in the burial and marking for future indentifi cation the graves of those who died here Plain headboards exhibit the names, companies and regiments, painted in legible characters, of those who gave up their lives prior to November, 1864. The graves of those buried subsequent to that date are at regular intervals, and in the order in which they are numbered in the undertaker's register. A complete record of all buried here is given in the publication of the U.S. bodies from this point are practicable. A ravine divides this enclosure, on the opposite sides of which rest in the awful stillness of death Union and Confederate dead. From Danville I proceeded to Salisbury, N. C. Here thousands of the Union armies found their graves, where gaunt death seems to have gorged itself with the lives of our ill-fated soldiery. Secrecy envelopes the numbers of this great mortality, and bier after bier of crowded corpses, under shallow coverings of earth, alone give idea of the rightful rayregg of disease and starvation frightful ravages of disease and starvation. The dead bodies are laid side by side in trenches about seven feet in width and extending the length of the enclosure; trench following trench fills up almost the entire area of less than two acres. The enclosing fence, the broken surface of the ground together with the simple inscriptions of death on thirteen board tablets alone warn the visitor that he is on ground replete with the recollections of brutality and suffering that sicken and appal. The drainage of the hill-side on which this burying ground is situated, must soon expose the bones of those buried, unless steps are soon taken for its permanent improvement.

My observations here convince me of the utter impossibility of finding and disinter-ring particular remains, unless the identifiwas through some unnatural formation of the body, or some unusual care in its burial.

Learning that railroad communication was interrupted south of this point, and that I could only reach Columbia, S. C., by a very circuitous route, or long travel by a very circuitous route, or long travel by stage, I determined to return, believing that I should find other prison places in the same condition as those visited, and that this report would be satisfactory as to the feasibility of the removal of bodies from prison graveyards in the far South. I visited several other points, where soldiers of Union armies have found their last resting places, in the course of my tour through this country.
At Petersburg, City Point and vicinities.

hospital graveyards are neatly and substantially enclosed, and graves, as far as they could be identified appropriately marked. Officers of the Quartermaster General's Department have been engaged in establishment of Government Cemeteries on many of the historic battle-fields of the late Under General Orders Nos. 35 and 58 from this Department, records of those who died in defence of the American Union, in-terred in the National Cemeteries at Washington, and those slain on the battle-fields of the Wilderness and Spottsylvania Court House, have been published.

Efforts to the same end are in progress, under the direction of the Chief Quarter-master of the Military Division of Tennes-I presume similar records will be see. I presume similar records will be published of these operations. I have the honor to call your attention to the report of Col. Chamberlin, accompanying this. He pronounces as inexpedient efforts for the recovery of bodies from Andersonville, and dissuades all persons from such efforts, by reason of the great uncertainty of obtaining particular bodies, and the difficulties in the transmission of these to Pennsylvania. I have held this opinion based on the report made by Lieut. Colonel J. Moore, Assistant Quartermaster, September 20, 1865, and have uniformly advised those applying to this Department, of the extreme doubtfulness of efforts for the recovery of bodies from this place being successful.

That greater facilities might be afforded. I have arranged with the President of the Baltimore Steam Packet Company to transport, on the orders of the State of Pennsylvania, at two cents per circular vania, at two cents per circular mile, persons traveling for and in attendance on the corpse of deceased soldiers.

Negotiations are now pending with some of the railroad companies to still further traveling. To subserve economy in expent the appropriation to this Department. I have endeavored to save expense by requiring one person to bring home mor than one body, when applications were made from the same locality. I know of no other han so satisfactory as that of granting trans-portation to the relatives or their agent, when transportation is applied for, in the removal of bodies of deceased soldiers of Pennsylvania regiments. The innumerable places where bodies are buried, and the almost numberless routes and roads to be traveled in reaching these, preclude the possibility of accomplishing this object through established agencies.

While we honor and provide for those who have survived the casualties of war, it is well that we do not forget those who gave up their lives willing sacrifices for the pre-servation of the American Union, and the perpetuity of its liberal blessings—and whether by bringing home their bodies or in efforts looking to the permanent improvement of the burying places in which they rest, show our grateful appreciation of the Respectfully your obedient servant,
H. H. Greeg,
Chief of Transportation and Tel. Dep't.

His Excellency Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania.

CITY BULLETIN.

THE BOARD OF BROKERS.-Yesterday afternoon the Board of Brokers of this city, had their annual dinner, at the Assembly Buildings. About two hundred persons were present. Mayor McMichael, Major-General Meade, Commander Selfridge, of the Navy, and a number of the members of the New York and Baltimore Boards of Brokers were among the invited guests. The large saloon was occupied with the tables which were bountifully suppiled. Charles Camblos, Esq., the President of the Board, welcomed the guests in a neat speech. After the eatables had been duly disposed of, the toasting commenced. The first was "The Union," which was responded to by the whole company joining in the patriotic air, 'Rally Round the Flag.' This was followed by "The President of the United States." as the second regular toast, which The next toast was "General Meade." which was replied to in a very appr opriate speech by that distinguished officer. The next toast, "The Navy," was responded to by Commodore Selfridge, now of this naval station. The next, "The City of Philadel-phia," brought out Mayor McMichael in one of his characteristic speeches, in which wit, sentiment and genial good feeling were so happily blended as to keep the table in a rear. He concluded with a call on the old est member of the Board. Alexander Benson, who spoke at some length of the Board, tracing it from its earliest organization running through three generations, down to the present time. "The Baltimore Board of Brokers" was then toasted, to which Mr Zimmerman, the Vice-President of the Board in that city, eloquently replied. A number of other toasts were drank and were appropriately responded to and then the company separated. The whole affair passed off very pleasantly.

Social Union.—An adjourned meeting of the Social Union Association was held last evening at the North Presbyterian Church. Rev. Mr. Biddle presided.

Rev. Mr. Classon and Dr. Osler explained the object of the Association to be to have such social influences thrown around it as to win young men to it. If necessary, a et, music, lectures, or anything of social character may be resorted to for the purpose of saving the young mer now going to destruction in our midst While there was but one institution of the kind in this city, there were four in Balti-more, all of which are now in a flourishing condition. After young men were once given a social and affectionate welcome the association, there would be no C. C. before referred to. I am of the opinion that the identification and removal of select some church to attend in lieu of select some church to attend in lieu of passing their time in the bar room or engine

> After the transaction of some minor bu siness, an election for Officers was held. Col. D. W. C. Moore was chosen President, and W. M. Abby, Secretary. A Board of Directors was also elected.

> UNION TEMPERANCE MEETING .- The first anniversary meeting of the Union Reform Association was held last evening at the Church of the Epiphany. Rev. Bishop Simpson presided, and addressed were delivered by Rev. Dr. Newton, Rev. Dr. Marsh, Rev. D. W. C. Talmadge, Rev. Wm. White Williams and Rev. Dr. Spear. By the statements made, it appears that the originated about eighteen months ago for the reclamation of the in temperate. In the army the cause was strongly advocated, and in six months 100,000 temperance documents were distri-buted, and over 12,000 officers and men in he forces before Petersburg and Richmond took the pledge. The Treasurer's report shows that nearly $3,500 have been expended in the distribution of documents. officers of the association are Bishop Simpson, President. Rev. Wm. White Williams, Secretary, and Rev. Dr. Goddard, Treasurer.

NOT IN THE BILLS .- Last evening Mr. W. C. Jewett, commonly called "Colorado" Jewett, having engaged a private box at the Arch Street Theatre for three evenings, proceeded to that place of amusement, accompanied by a colored man servant. In a short time a messenger was sent to Mr. Jewett, conveying a verbal order to remove the servant, as colored persons were not allowed in that part of the theatre. Mr. Jewett refused to comply. In a few mo-ments a second message was sent, asking Mr. J. to remove his servant, as his presence there might be distasteful to the au-dience. This had the desired effect. The colored man retired, and Mr. Jewett re-mained. The latter, at a subsequent period, stated that he relinquished his right to the box for the remaining evenings for which he had engaged it.

ARSON CASE.-Before Alderman Beitler, yesterday afternoon, Edward Jenkins was charged with arson. It appears, that on Friday night last, an attempt was made to free the boat shop of George Sheppard, No.
1115 Beach street, by piling shavings, chips and pitch on the door sill and then firing them. The flames were extinguished before any damage had been done. Just previous to the alarm of fire, Jenkins had had a conversation with a government watchman, telling him that he believed some one was going to fire the boat shop and to keep a sharp look out in a certain direction. The accused admitted his guilt to Fire Marshal Blackburn. He was committed for trial.

WHOLESALE ARREST OF PICKPOCKETS.-Mr. J. T. Taylor, of Ohio, while riding in one of the cars on the Third street road, yesterday afternoon, had his pocket picked of nearly $500. He was riding on the back platform at the time and was surrounded by a gang of roughs, who pushed against him while one of the party relieved him of his money. He communicated his loss to Chief Detective Franklin, who caused the arrest of some ten professionals. They were all locked up for a hearing this after-

GRAND MASQUERADE BALL.-The Maennerchor Vocal Society, the oldest in this city, will give their annual Ball Masqué, on Tuesday, Jan. 23, at the Academy of Music, Great preparations have been made to make this the grandest and most perfect Masquerade ever held in Philadelphia. fail to visit the Academy of Music, on Tuesday night, Jan. 23.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.-John Dunway, agod 23 years, residing in the vicinity of Twenty-fourth and Brown streets, had his left arm badly cut by a circular saw, yesterday, at a kindling-wood establishment in the neigh borhood of Twenty-third and Coates street He was removed to the hospital and last evening the physicians deemed i necessary to resort to amputation.

THE ALMSHOUSE.—The annual report of the steward, submitted to the Gurdians of the Poor yesterday afternoon, shows that the number of admissions during 1865 was 5,740. The average population during the year was 2,728. In 1864 it was 2,456. The number of deaths in 1865 were 895, an increase of 154 over 1864.

BRUTAL ASSAULT.-Mary Haas, aged 40 years, living on Seventh street, above Chest nut, was knocked down and kicked by some men. She was rendered insensible. She recovered somewhat, and was then taken to the hospital, where it was ascertained that the ribs on her right side were broken.

BOARD OF TBADE.—The annual meeting of this body was held fast evening. Nomina tions were made for officers for the ensuing year. The election will take place at the next meeting. SERIOUS BURNING.-A daughter of Mrs. Sarah Young, residing at No. 1329 South Fourth street, was seriously burned, yes-terday, by her clothes taking fire acciden-

New Jersey Matters.

Handsome Court House.—The Board of Chosen Freeholders of Cape May county, bave just completed a fine and capacious building at Cape May Court House, for the transaction of the business of that county. The old structure was so small and incor venient that it was impossible to accommo date the increasing business of the county and the clerks and surrogate's offices wer completely filled with books, documents and papers. The new building has ample room, and is a credit to the county.

ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY.-One evening last week a bold attempt was made to rob the National Bank at Medford, Burlington county, but without success. The burglars obtained an entrance into the bank burgiars obtained an entrance into the bank through a window, got into the old safe, but found nothing there; then they tried to blow open the new fire and burglar-proof vault, but were foiled in their operations. They decamped without any booty.

DISPOSED OF.—At two o'clock yesterday afternnoon, Sheriff Sharp conveyed to Trenton eight prisoners who had been sen-tenced to the penitentiary on Saturday, the ongest term being for five years.

BADLY BURNED .- A little girl named Brown, residing at Estellville, was so severely burned by the accidental ignition of coal oil, while in the act of filling a lamp, that her life is despaired of.

THE Richmond Times says: A few mornings since we noticed at the first market two beautiful, well dressed females, young in years, from Powhatan county, who had driven a wagon from home loaded with produce, which they were offering for sale. AMUSEMENTS.

THE CHESTNUT.—At the Chestnut last night "Arrah-Na-Pogue" was produced with all the beautiful scenery displayed at the time of its first presentation. Mr. T. H. Glenny appeared for the first time in Phila delphia as Shaun the Post, and "the gods" being propitious, his acting was pronounced a success. The gentleman's simplicity of manner, entire forgetfulness of self, and distinct reading and singing were all appre-ciated and applauded. Miss Orton's con-ception of Arrah Meelish is not equal to our expectations, for while she plays the mos effective scenes with power, as a whole sh does not make the part harmonious. Mr. Mordaunt, whose Beamish McCoul won for him the admiration of his audiences last year, for some reason was cast for the part of the O'Grady. The characters changed with the cast, for the moment Mr. Mor daunt, at first restive, became possessed of his patience, he warmed up with the interest of the part and repeatedly brought down the house. He was the complete, witty, generous Irish gentleman. Mr. Clarke, who can play the wily polished villain like Captain Satan, or the quietly humorous here of the "Comical Counters". humorous hero of the "Comical Countess," was misplaced as Beamish McCoul; but when he has had time to master the part, no doubt he will have the taste and spirit to make the most of his position; he has many friends always ready to acknowledge his merits. Mr. Lennox repeated the wonderful personation of Feeny, that created such a sensation last season. Messrs. Young, Ward, Lewis and Foster played the parts assigned them with commendable attention. Fanny Power was acted and dressed by Miss Cooper very pleasingly, the young lady never appeared to better advantage Mrs. Frank Mordaunt called forth shouts of laughter by her extremely funny per-formance of Katy, and the "Barn-door Jig" was encored as it has been every time it was danced at the Chestnut. With its charming scenery, lively and pathetic songs, its genuine Irish wit and humor, "Arrah-Nague" cannot fail to draw full houses. It will be given at the matinee to-morrow.

THE WALNUT .-- It was not pleasant to sit in the Walnut last evening, the crowd was so dense. If the house had been as vast as the Colisseum at Rome we believe it would scarcely have held all of Mr. J. S. Clarke's admirers who were eager to welcome him back to the scene of his former triumphs. We thought last night of the contrast be tween the comparatively unknown Clark of the old Chestnut Street Theatre and the Clarke who gathered around him so bril liant, fashionable and enthusiastic an audi ence at the Walnut. Verily times change but Clarke has not changed with them save for the better. The "potentially" of Henry Dove and Jacques Strop was in Clarke twelve years ago, and the smiles of fortune have made it crop out, as the geologists say. We need add nothing more, save to remark that in every respect Clarke's reception was a thorough, genuine, irrepressible triumph, and that to-night be will appear in "Babes in the Woods" and "The Fat Boy," The performance will open with "The Captain of the Watch," with Walcot in his capital part of Viscount de Ligny.

THE ARCH.-If there is an absurd, ridiculous, distasteful play in the world it is "Camille." We can never see it with any pleasure, even when presented by such su-perbly graceful and tasteful artists as Mrs. D. P. Bowers and Miss Charlotte Thompson, yet every "juvenile" female "star" hinks it necessary to enact it. The latest inpersonation of the heroine is that of Miss ean Hosmer, given at the Arch last night, efore a full and very fashionable audience. So far as the acting was concerned the per-formance was really admirable. In all the strong scenes Miss Hosmer showed power. race and discrimination, and if there was any defect it was in a slight lack of tenderness. Miss Hosmer was fortunate in having such support as that given by Mr. Rankin and Mr. James, who took the parts of Ar-mand and De Varville. The rest of the cast as fair, but not remarkable for ability. Miss Hosmer has decidedly advanced in her profession since her former engagement here, and is certainly one of the ablest artists now on the American stage. We have no doubt that she will have a remarkably brilwill gain many admirers with each evenwing gain landy admirers with each even-ing's performance. "Camille" will be re-peated this evening, together with "A Kiss in the Dark," in which Mr. Marlowe, Mr. Robson and Mrs. Henri appear.

CONCERT HALL .- Heller appears throughout this week, giving new illusions each evening, though retaining the "Sphynx," he greatest marvel in his repertoire.

THE PEAK FAMILY open at Assembly Building this evening, with their bell ringng and other musical attractions. SIGNOR BLITZ, at Assembly Building, has added many new charms to the fascinations of his saloon, and he gives entertainments every evening and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

CAMILLE: OR, THE CAMELIA-LADY.

DAME AUX CAMELIAS.") The only true, complete, and original translation. from which has DAME AUX CAMBLIAS.") The only true complete, and original translation, from which has been adapted for the stage the Drama of "CAMILLE." in which character Miss Jean Homer is now appering at the Arch Street Theatre. Translated literally from the French of Alexandre Dumas, the younger. Complete in one large duodeclino volume, bound in cloth, for Two Dollars, or in paper cover. for $1.50.

DUMAS THE YOUNGER'S "CAMILLE, OR THE CAMELIA-LADY."—The most remarkable original and successinistory of this generation is that of "La Dame Aux Camelias." by Alexander Dumas, the younger. First written as a novel, and then altered to a play, it had an enormous success at Parls. Translated into every European language, it has made the tour of Europe and America with equal success. In our theatres as "Camille." it has made thousands laugh and weep by turns, and in all the opera houses of the world it has charmed other thousands as "La Travida," it is founded on the actual history of Marguerite Gauter, a fallen woman of Parls, of great celebrity. Many translations of the original novel have appeared, but none are so faithful and good as that just mublished by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of this city. No one can deny that the story is a great one, and the present handsome and correct edition will make a large demand for the work. It is a work for the "Million," and sbould be read by all.
