LA COTERIE CARNIVAL, ACADEMY OF Music.—Messrs. Abel and Risley are certainly deserving of being classed among the most energetic of the young men of our city. Their efforts in endeavoring to present to the public an entertainment which will tend to elevate a class of amusement which, although very popular in private circles has in public, been in its decadence, are worthy of the support which has attended them or the support which has attended them during the three past seasons. From the arrangements which have been perfected, we may safely anticipate that the "Carnival," this evening, will astonish every one who has had the good fortune to secure a ticket. Invitations have been extended to His Excellency Governor Curtin, and to HIS Excellency Governor Curtin, and to His Excellency Governor Curtin, and to His Honor Mayor McMichael; the latter has signified his intention to participate in the festivities of the evening. Our worthy Governor has responded to Messrs. Abel and Risley's invitation, in the following courteous manner:

Courteous manner:
PENNSYLVANIA EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, PA., January 23d, 1866.— Messrs. Abel and Risley, Continental Hotel, Philadelphia—GENTLEMEN: I am directed by His Excellency Governor Curtin to acby His Excellency Governor Curtain to acknowledge the receipt of your note and invitation to the assemblage at "La Coterie Carnival," upon the evening of Thursday, 25th of January, 1866, and to thank you for your kindness in extending it to him, and the country of the tast he is engaged in preto say to you that as he is engaged in preparing his message, he cannot attend.

Very respectfully, Your obedient servant, ROBT. A. McCoy, Private Secretary.

THE PRESS CLUB.—We are glad to chronicle the fact that the members of the Press Club have revived the most interesting feature of their regular meetings. We allude to the reading of essays on topics connected with journalism. At the regular meeting yesterday, Mr. Casper Souder, Jr., President, in the chair, Mr. John M. Grier, of the Exercise Telegraph read a most entertain Evening Telegraph, read a most entertaining and instructive essay on "Western Journalism." It was mainly made up of a narrative of his experience as a lawyer and editor on the Kansas border, at the time of the great struggle in that region, before the war. Mr. Grier also gave some lively personal sketches of prominent editors in Missouri. At the close of the essay a pleasant discussion arose, suggested by the paper, which was participated in by Messrs. Thompson Westcott. E. W. C. Greene, C. Souder, Jr., Wm. H. (Fisher, Jr., Lewis Waln Smith, Ernest C. Wallace, Mr. Shepperd, and others. We hope that the reading of these interesting essays will continue the great struggle in that region, before the ing of these interesting essays will continue to be a permanent feature of the regular meetings of the Club. SLUSH.—It would not have been a very difficult task to have paddled a canal boat through the middle of our streets this morning. Snow commenced to fall about noon yesterday, and continued to come down until about midnight, when it was succeeded by rain, and between that time and daylight there were several heavy showers. There were about six or eight inches of snow upon the ground, and, under the com-bined influence of the rain and the salt which was freely distributed by the passenger railway companies during the night, it has been converted into slush of the most disagreable kind. The walking is shockingly bad, and those who are not compelled to be out to-day are exceedingly fortunate.

DICKINSON COLLEGE.-Last evening, a the Union M. E. Church, a public meeting was held with a view of completing the en downent of Dickinson Cotlege. The Baltimore Methodists recently pledged themselves for $40,000, if the remaining $60,000 could be obtained within the bounds of other could be obtained within the formation was conferences. The meeting last evening was not largely attended, owing to the storm. Addresses were made by Bishops Ames and Addresses were made by Bishops Ames and the storm the storm with importance of popular education, and thought that Dickinson College might be made a more effectual agent than it has yet been in the growth of the church to which it is attached. Simpson, who dwelt at some length on PENNSYLVANIA ECLECTIC MEDICAL So-CIETY.—The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Eelectic Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania was held this morning at the College Hall, Sixth and Callowhill streets. Delegates were present from several counties in the State.

counties in the State.

The proceedings consisted principally of the reading of essays bringing forward important facts in pathology, new remedies, and some of the later improvements in surgery. The treatment of malignant cholera also contributed one of the topics of discus-

A number of physicians and students were elected members of the society.

CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS.—Pat Bradley was before Alderman Godbou, this morning, upon the charge of carrying con-cealed deadly weapons. It seems that last night a Sixth Ward policeman arrested a man on Sixth street, above Market. The prisoner broke away and jumped into a carriage of which Bradley was the driver. Bradley attempted to drive off, when he was also arrested. He had a billy in his pocket. He was committed.

A BRUTAL HUSBAND.—Peter Haffery was arraigned before Alderman Beitler yesterday afternoon, charged with beating and abusing his wife. Mrs. H. testified that she abusing his wife. Mrs. H. testined that she had been subject to severe beatings for the past seven years at the hands of her husband. Only yesterday morning Peter beat her in a shocking manner for allowing a her in a shocking manner for allowing a dog to leave the house. He was bound over to answer in the sum of $1,000 bail.

BOLD ROBBERY.—This morning, before Alderman Moore, Pat O'Neil was charged with larceny. It is alleged that on Tues-day night he went to Lombard street whari and cut the hawser from a vessel which was moored to the landing. The rope was carried off and the vessel was allowed to drift into the river. O'Neil was help in $800

CLEAR THE SIDEWALKS.—It should no be forgotten that an ordinance of the city requires residents to remove the snow from the sidewalks in front of their premises within six working hours after it ceases to fall. The law is an excellent one, and it is to be hoped that it will be strictly enforced by the proper authorities.

OPEN THE GUTTERS .- Much inconvenience to pedestrians might be avoided if peo-ple would open the gutters in front of their houses. The slush and water which overflows the pavements and is liable to become frozen, could then run off into the The danger of broken limbs would also be greatly reduced.

SCHOOL TEACHERS' SALARIES,-The Fi nance Committee of City Councils are equally divided in regard to the increase of the salaries of the school teachers. The appropriation bill to the Board of Controllers will therefore be reported without the item providing for the advance of pay.

ALLEGED IMPOSTOR.—Before Alderman Williams, yesterday, Sophia Eryleben was charged with collecting money for the benefit of the Orphans' Home, at Bridesburg, without authority. She was committed to answer.

FATAL RESULT.-Frederick Baker, the young man who was badly scalded by falling headlong into a dye vat, at the Baltic woolen mill, in Leithgow street, yesterday morning, died, last evening, at his residence, on Bodine street, above Oxford.

PROF. ASHER'S BALL.—The first annual ball of Prof. Asher will be given to-morrow evening at the Musical Fund Hall. Several new dances will be introduced, and those who participate will undoubtedly have a BOYS' CLOTHING AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.—Many of our readers are awars, and for the benefit of those who are not we will state, that for some years past one of the most popular Boys' Clothing establishments in our city has been conducted in the record atoms of their state. ments in our city has been conducted in the second story of their store, Ninth and Market streets, by Messrs. Coper & Conard, in connection with their trade in Dry Goods. They have now a balance of fashionable ready-made stock on hand—about 650 Boys' Suits. Coats. Overcoats et extern. which Suits, Coats, Overcoats, et cetera, which they have determined to close out at a great reduction from the regular prices. In fact, they have resolved to sell every fall and winter garment in their stock before the 15th day of February, to accomplish which they will necessarily be obliged to favor purchasers in point of prices. They expect to do it. Ladies fitting out their sons wil save money, and obtain the very best arti-cles, by calling at Cooper & Conard's soon. Their stock of Cassimeres, Cloths, &c., is also one of the best in the city, and the prices of these have been correspondingly reduced to effect speedy sales, in order to make room for Spring Goods.

SLUSH! SLUSH!—The condition of things on the street to-day is frightful. Brine, snow, slush and water struggle for the mastery, and our boots suffered terribly in the conflict. It is, however, a great blessing that we have comfortable homes to ensconce in after the labors of the day, where we can read the BULLETIN by the side of a pleasant fire, made of the coal sold by W. JUST WHAT IS WANTED.—A number of our prominent citizens, feeling the want of a public hall for general purposes, are making efforts to accomplish this desirable object. It is proposed to issue shares of making efforts to accomplish this desirable object. It is proposed to issue shares of stock, in small amounts, so as to place it within the reach of all. The estimated cost of such a building, adapted to the wants of Camden, is about $12,000. This is an enterprise which should enlist the entire population in its fayor, for no city of the same size can be more deficient in such accommoda-tions. The Odd Fellows' Hall and Wash-ington Hall are both too small for large meetings, balls, exhibitions, &c., and they are so frequently occupied as to afford no certainty of an engagement. A capacious, strong-built, three-story building is just what is wanted in the central part of Cam-den to relieve the vexation and trouble den, to relieve the vexation and trouble which all experience in securing the Court House, the use of which is only permitted for such purposes and on such occasions as may meet the approbation of the Chosen Freeholders.

A PRAISEWORTHY PROJECT.—The Philotechnic Institute of Camden is about to inaugurate a comprehensive system of mental, asthetic, and physical education, which is designed to embrace gymnastic exercises, and artistic, literary and scientific recreations, as well as instruction in every department of learning, which is calculated to reclaim youth from the haunts of vice, and to lead them, by useful and attrac tive amusements, to a higher conception of the duties of life. Entertainments, com prising music, dramatic poetry, eloquence, the exhibition of remarkable and wondrous the exhibition of remarkable and wondrous objects and phenomena in nature, together with gymnastic feats, will be the varied at-tractions of the Institute, which will occupy the new hall when built. This praiseworthy project merits the hearty co-operation of parents, guardians and masters, who can thus draw our youth from corners, taverns, and fire companies, into associations more useful and congenial.

THIEF ARRESTED.—Last night a colored man named Moore, was arrested on the Night boat Camden, by Captain Murray, in the act of stealing one of the axes belonging to the boat. The thief had a large bundle with him at the time of the arrest, and on examining it at the Mayor's office, it was found to contain four large and fine chickens. On being questioned where he got them, he was perfectly oblivious and did not know. He told several different stories, and sent the officers on a wild goose chase over Camden to hunt up their owners. He was committed.

THE STREETS.—The streets, this morning, in Camden are in the most miserable and wretched condition that they have been in this winter. The crossings are completely flooded, the water flowing back over the whole pavements. And all this because the people will not keep the gutters open in front of their dwellings and stores. Half an hour's work would keep the streets, in excellent walking condition.

Home for Friendless Children .- At he recent Fair held in aid of the Camden Home for Friendless Children, the managers realized the handsome sum of eight hundred and one dollars, as the net proceeds. This Home appears to be liberally encouraged by the philanthropic citizens, and is doing a vast amount of good.

LOCKED UP.—The watchman on the ferry boats at Cooper's Point was detected in purloining various articles from the boats recently, and a warrant was issued for his arrest, when he fied. The officers, however, took his wife into custody as a party to the transaction, and locked her up.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ARCH.-Miss Jean Hosmer repeats her magnificent impersonation of Bianca, in Milman's graceful play of "Fazio," this evening. She will be handsomely supported by Messrs. Tilton and Wallis and Miss E. Price, who is probably the most su-perb-looking Aldabella we have ever seen. Bianca is one of the best parts in Miss Hos-mer's repertoire; she has certainly studied it with very great care, and in the last act she is almost unsurpassed in power and feeling. There are some characters she plays which are crude, but there is no touch of crudeness in Bianca. It is as delicately shaded as a photograph; and yet does not lack strength. To-morrow, for her benefit, Miss Hosmer will appear in two characters.

THE CHESTNUT. - "Arrah-Na-Pogue" THE WALNUT .- If Clarke could complain of his reception in this city, the scene of his old triumphs, he would be more of his old grumpns, he would be more cynical than the old Greek Diogenes. He has drawn splendid houses, and laughter has echoed and re-echoed through the Wal-nut until one would think Tragedy with nut until one would think Tragedy what sceptred pall would sweep out of the house in disdain. To-night Clarke appears in two of his very best characters, and for his benefit to-morrow he will play in "The Rivals" and "Nicholas Nickleby." The weather will be "Nicholas Nickleby." The weather will be powerless to affect his house on that occa-

OUR CAPTURED CANNON.—The Secretary of War communicated to the House, in compliance with a resolution, correspondence between the Superintendent of the United States Military Academy and the Chief Engineer of the Army, relative to marking with the names of the battles our captured guns. It appears that upwards of thirty pieces of cannon at West Point, among them ome of historic value, and not a few of foreign manufacture, were in charge of Captain Balch, who asked instructions relative to marking them with suitable inscrip-tions. General Delafield suggests that "it not desirable to inscribe on any of these guns evidence of capture as trophies of war, to remain at one institution, where young men from all parts of our united and once happy country are to meet and contract friendship. It should be our study with these young gentlemen to permit nothing of an irritable or boastful spirit to be placed constantly before the sight of those whose section of country suffered by rebellion. Let history tell the evils this rebellion has produced, and let us, throgh the instru-mentality of the Military Academy, renew its powerful influence in establishing na-tional feelings through the friendships that are sure to flow from a scholastic fellowship. under military training, for years. These guns should be preserved only as historical gans should be preserved only as historical of the artillery arm of the service, indicating the period and place of manufacture of each, calibre and inscription of gun, omitting everything connected with capture or use?"
