Mr. Quay, the following, amending the revenue laws of the Commonwealth:

An Act to amend the Revenue laws of this SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act it shall be the duty of the cashier of any bank of this Commonwealth, whether incorporated under the laws of this State or of the United States, to collect annually from every stock-holder of said bank a tax of one per centum upon the par value of the stock held by said stockholder, and to pay the same into the State Treasury on or before the first day of July in every year hereafter, commencing on the first day of July, A. D. 1866, and the said stock shall be exempt from all other taxation under the laws of this Common

Sec. 2. That in addition to the taxes nov provided for by law, every railroad, canal and transportation company incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth, and not liable to the tax upon income under existing laws, shall pay to the Commonwealth a tax of three-fourths of one per centum upon the gross receipts of said company. The said tax shall be paid semi-annually upon the first days of July and January, commencing on the first day of July, 1866, and for the purpose of seartaining the and for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the said tax it shall be the duty of the Treasurer or other proper officer said company to transmit to the Auditor General at the dates aforesaid a statement, under oath or affirmation, of the amount of the gross receipts of the said Company the preceding six months; and if any such Company shall refuse or fail, for a period of thirty days after such tax becomes due, to make said return or to pay the same, the amount thereof, with an addition of ten nor cent. thereto, shall be use of the Commonwealth as other taxes are recoverable by law from said companies.

SEC. 3. From and after the passage of this act the real estate of this Commonwealth shall be exempt from taxation for State purposes, except the half-mill tax imposed by the act of May 15th, A. D. 1861, pledged for the redemption of the loan created by said act. Provided, that this section shall not be construed to relieve the said real estate from the payment of any taxes due the Commonwealth at the date of the passage of The Philadelphia Gas Works. The thirty-first annual report of the Trus-tees of the Philadelphia Gas Works for 1865 was completed yesterday. It states that the cost of manufacturing gas per 1,000 cubic feet in 1865 was as follows: 93,069 tons of coal, at $11 40 per

$1,060,986 60 ton, Carting, freight, shells, wages, 413,130 54 Salaries of officers, clerks, meter inspectors and incidentals, 263,865 78 Interest on loans and investment to sinking funds, . 280,353 56 $2,242,542 95 Less receipts for coke, tar, lime,

&c., 200,381 70 $2,042,161 25 Showing that 732,025,000 cubic feet of gas, that being the amount delivered to private and public consumers in 1865, cost $2,042,-

161 25, or $2 79 per 1,000 cubic feet. The cost of lighting the public lamps was $572,893 71. The amount received from the city for the same was $381,243 50, showing The net price per 1,000 feet, received in

1865, Average price per 1,000 feet, received Making an excess of price received in 1865 of 313 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, which, on amount delivered to private consumers in 1865, 565,939,500 cubic feet, amounts to $179,214 17. The maximum consumption of gas in 24 hours was 3,036,000 cubic feet, which occurred on the 19th of December, being 350,000 feet more than on any one night in 1864. Coal on hand 1st of January, 1866, 16,526 tons. Lime used during the year, 163,230 bushels. The number of meters and service pipes introduced in 1865 wa 1860, which makes the present number of meters in use 49,944, and service pipes 50,059. Applications for gas and registers were 8,868. During the year 29,273 new lights were added, making the total 617,770.

The public lamps number 6.981. The public lamps number 6,981.

The gross profits of the year amounted to $121,469 95, and the loss on the business of the year is set down at $158,783 60—owing, it is said in the Cashier's report, to the high price of coal and wages paid to the workmen, and the great loss sustained in lighting the public lamps.

From our Third Edition of Yesterday

From Washington. [Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25th, 1866.—The Canadian officials were in conference with Secretary McCulloch last evening, and to-day with the Ways and Means Committee of the House. They desire first to get an extension of the Reciprocity Treaty. If they cannot get that, then they wish such commercial relations as will be most advantageous to both the United States and Canada. This latter desire will probably be acceded to.

The consideration of the McCulloch financial bill has been postponed by the Ways and Means Committee indefinitely. The foreign clause in the bill has been rejected. Despatches from Gen. Sheridan represent matters quiet again on the Rio Grande. He is rigidly investigating the Bagdad affair.

The Tronglad Housdnoc. Boston, Jan. 25 .- The Brig Reseway from Pernambuco, reports that she saw the U.S. Iron-clad Monadnoc going into Pernambuco, on Dec. 22d, in company with two convovs.

The steamer Russia from Boston, had arrived out in bad condition. A survey had been held and she will probably be condemned: Billiard Match.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 25.—Frawley won billiard match for the championship of the State of Ohio last night, by two points.

XXXIXth CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION Washington, Jan. 25.
Senate.—Mr. Foote (Vt.) asked to be excused from serving on the Committee on ensions. So ordered. Mr. Grimes (Iowa) was excused from service on the Committee on Public Lands. Mr. Sumner (Mass.) presented petitions from citizens of Pennsylvania, asking the guarantee of a republican form of government, which were referred to the Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Harris (N. Y.) presented the petition of Paul S. Forbes, asking for relief from a contract for the building of a vessel. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. Cowan (Pa.) presented the petition of its contract of Paragraphy of Paragraphy for many forms. citizens of Pennsylvania, asking for such action as shall prevent any States from making distinction in civil rights on ac-count of color, which was referred to the committee on reconstruction.

Mr. Cowan also presented a petition in favor of a protective tariff, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. Mr. Hendricks (Ind.), from the Commit-tee on Public Lands, reported a bill to es-tablish an additional land office in the State of Oregon, which, at the request of Mr Williams, was taken up and passed. sideration of the Constitutional Suffrage Amendment.

Mr. Eldridge (Wis.) opposed it, stating, among other reasons, that certain States, entitled to be heard, were not on this floor by their representatives to be heard. Ice Bridge across the St. Lawrence. QUEBEC, Jan. 25.—An ice bridge has been formed across the St. Lawrence river.

Death of a Prominent Merchant. James Boorman, of this city, for man years an active merchant of great influence in the commercial world, died yesterday morning in the eighty-third year of his ag-For several years past he had been retired old age preventing the continuance of his active labor. The old firm of Boorman & Johnson started in this city, before the war of 1812. The partners were two young Scotchmen, and they began mercantile life as agents for one of the old Scotch houses of Dundee. At one time the firm, changed to Boorman, Johnson & Co., by the admis-sion of Adam Norrie, sold all the Virginia tobacco brought to this market.

This firm also did something in the iron business, and received large consignments from Sweden. On one occasion, in 1835, we believe, they received a consignment of "iron pillars" from Stockholm. They were put on the market, but only to be laughed at. Nobody wanted them, and so they re-mained unsold. Unable to find any better use for them, the iron dealers had them placed in the front wall of their building in Greenwich, directly opposite Albany street, where they still remain, and are pointed out as the first iron pillars ever used in this city for such purposes. Boorman, Johnson & Co. were at one time not only the largest tobacconists but also the largest Madeira merchants in the city.

Mr. Boorman has a history, but has ever been written; and cannot now be, save by some old merchant, who, like him self, was intimately associated with the mercantile enterprises of this city. Probably no merchant of the city was ever more active in all schemes of benevolence than Mr. Boorman. It is a singular and interesting fact that he has been President of every corporation, club, &c., with which he was ever connected, not excepting the Hudson River Railroad, of which he was one of the original projectors. There appears in a curious list of subscribers to the $16,000,000 loan authorized by Congress in February, 1813, the name of Mr. Boorman for the sum of $10,000. Jacob Barker heads the list with $100,000. John Howland subscribed $50,000. Isaac Clason loaned $500,000, and G. V. Broom the same amount.—N. Y. Herald.
