BLITZ AMONG THE SOLDIERS.-Signor Blitz gave one of his gratuitous exhibitions on Wednesday last to the inmates of the Christian Street Hospital. The soldiers were greatly delighted with the Signor's entertainment, and the wonderful perform-ances of his famous birds and his tricks of legerdemain and ventriloquism were greeted with rounds of applause by those maimed and crippled heroes of the war. Signor Blitz is one of our most patriotic citizens, and since the commencement of the war has cheerfully responded to the numerous calls made upon him from the various army hospitals for his professional services. His audiences in this way have numbered, during the last four or five years, over 63,000 sick and wounded soldiers, and Signor Blitz, who has become such a complete "institution" of Philadelphia, deserves much credit for devoting so large a portion of his time and abilities to the entertain-ment of those who have been suffering from the weariness of the sick-bed in their hospital life.

CARNIVAL YOUNG MÆNNERCHOR, JAN. 29, COMPOSED BY A FRIEND.

'Tis the Carnival time! and old Winter, arrayed In garments of white, speaks of age and decay; Yet a hoary old prophet be stands undismayed And tells us of Spring time, of life and of day. We must soon say farewell to the feast and the song-Exalting our thoughts to the true and sublime, But the joys of the past, that to mem'ry belong,

Allure us again at this festival tim Then haste to the Carnival, revel awhile With fanciful joy in life's holiday dream Till the rapture of youth, its allurements, its smile Pass before us and e'en a reality seem. Oh came! lovous maiden . thy beautiful smile

The gay robe of fancy—unfettered by care; Thy glad song of joy shall the hours beguile. And love be the guerdon awaiting thee there Oh! hasten, brave youth, clad in the armor of light, With shield and with buckler prepared for the strife, Hope and joy fill thy breast—and thine eye sparkling

Proclaim thee success in "the battle of light." Fair matrons, adorned with the graces of home! Come show us the pleasures that never can cloy. Bring bright, smiling children—oh, hasten and come That child voices gladly may echo our joy! Fond lovers betrothed—to the banquet repair.

Hand in hand, heart in heart-its delights ye may share,
And prove to the world—that true love is no dream. And thus, while the gay witching scene we enjoy, May we cull the fair flowers of love. Hope and Truth, And learn all the seasons of life, to emply That they yield us pure bliss, both in age and in

Farewell then to pleasures that fade and decay, And welcome the time of devotional love! Thus each heaven-sent joy, as it passes away. A foretaste shall be-of "Elysium"-above. GERMANIA ORCHESTRA.—Public Rehearsals every Saturday afternoon at the Musical Fund Hall, at haif-past three o'clock. Engagements made by addressing GEORGE RASTERT, agent, 1231 Monercy street, between Race and Vine.
