From our Third Edition of Yesterday.

From Rayana. NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The steamer Creole, from New Orleans via Havana on the 23d inst., arrived at this port this morning. The U. S. steamer De Soto, with Secretary Seward and his party, arrived at Havana on the 20th. The Captain General's offer of his country seat for their use was declined, the Secretary going to a hotel, where, on the 21st, he received a host of admirers, the first or whom was the Captain General.

On the 22d the party visited a Cigarette manufactory, and Mr. Seward returned the call of the Cantain General. In the evening be attended a banquet given by General Dulce at the palace, which, with the sur-Dulce at the palace, which, with the sur-rounding public buildings, was illumi-

The ladies accompanying the party occupied the Captain General's box at the Tacon Theatre, where after the banquet they were joined by Mr. Seward.

The professors and students of the University subsequently paid their respects to Mr. Seward and a number of Cubans, in small boats, escorted the De Soto to the mouth of the harbor on her departure on the 23d.

From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Secretary Seward is at his office at the State Department today, as is also Mr. Frederick Seward, Assistant Secretary. While at St. Thomas, Secretary Seward had a long interview with Gen. Santa Anna, of Mexico. He is now residing at St. Thomas.

The arrangement of the testimony against Semmes, the pirate, is nearly completed. The trial will commence towards the close of the present week. It required time to get together evidence concerning all the cases of piracy committed by Semmes.

XXXIXth Congress-First Session. WASHINGTON, Jan. 29. SENATE.—Mr. Grimes (Iowa) offered a joint resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Rear Admiral Farragut and the officers and men under him, for their galacters.

lant conduct in the engagement in Mobile Bay, August 5th, 1864. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs. Mr. Sherman (Ohio) offered a bill, which was referred to the Military Committee, authorizing the President to appoint, at the request of any college capable of educating 150 young men, a military officer to act as President or Superintendent, to give in structions in the military sciences.

Mr. Wilson (Mass.) from the Committee on Public lands reported a bill to grant a million acres of public lands for the use of the public schools of the District of Columbia.

Mr, Wilson called up the bill to restrict the amount of tee for the collection of soldiers to $10.

Mr. Clark (N. H.) offered an amendment which was adopted, excepting cases in which the accounting officer shall certify the services rendered to be worth more. The bill was passed
House—The House took up Mr. Niblack's

(Ind.) resolution, offered last Monday, de-claring that the President's refusal to accept the present of a carriage and horses from his friends in New York, was, under the circumstances, eminently prudent, com-mendable and patriotic, and expressing the sense of the House that the practice so common of giving presents for appointments or promotion is demoralizing and ought to be prohibited. The resolution was passed. Mr. Julian (Ind.) offered a resolution which went over that the people demand the trial of Jeff. Davis for treason, and his execution if found guilty.

Major-General Sherman being in the Hall. a recess of five minutes was declared, and the speaker introduced him in appropriate

General Sherman responded, when Mr. Washburn (Ill.) proposed three cheers for the General, which were enthusiastically
