

XXXIXTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

SENATE—MR. TRUMBULL (ILL.) CALLED FOR THE REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Mr. Trumbull (Ill.) called for the regular order of business. He said that he had no objection to the consideration of the bill for the protection of civil rights.

Mr. Morrill (Utah) spoke of the amendment as making a new epoch in the history of legislation which would not have been possible before the adoption of the constitutional amendment. He said that this species of legislation was revolutionary in its nature.

Mr. Henderson (Mo.) moved to strike out the words "indians not taxed," and insert in lieu thereof "Indians not subject to tribal authority." He said that the amendment was a violation of the constitution.

Mr. Davis (Ky.) took the floor against the bill. He said that the bill was a violation of the constitution and that it would be a disgrace to the country.

Mr. Stevens (Pa.) referred to the fact that the Treasury Commission recommended a reduction in the duty on whisky to one dollar a gallon, and asked for a vote.

Mr. Morrill (Ill.) would advise members of the House to read for themselves the report of the Treasury Commission, which they had ordered an extra number to be printed.

Mr. Donnelly (Minn.) introduced a bill to provide for the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi river to the cities of Minneapolis and St. Anthony, in the State of Minnesota.

Mr. Garfield (Ohio) declared he was opposed to all measures by which the rights and privileges of American citizens were to be taken away from them.

As to the lately rebellious States, Mr. Martin offered a resolution inviting the Select Council to meet on the 10th of March next, and elect a Commission of Highways.
