Heavy Snow in New York.

The Explosion of the Steamer W.R.Carter. CINCINNATI, Feb. 5.—The steamer Carter exploded her boilers when thirty-five miles above Vicksburg, at 4 o'clock on Friday morning. The boilers passed through the forward part of the cabin. After the explosion the boat took fire and continued to burn until 7 o'clock, compelling all who had escaped death by explosion, to jump into the river. The boat soon after went down. Captain Hurd had just gone off watch when the explosion occurred and was not afterwards seen. The steamer Evening Star picked up all the survivors floating in the water and carried them to Vicksburg. It is not yet known how many lives were lost.

The Naval Boat Bace.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The sea race between the Algonquin and Winooski will begin to-morrow, if the weather permits. There is much ice in the bay, and this seems now to be the only formidable obstacle, but it is thought the receding tide will leave the bay clear.

The course of the race lies between Throg's Neck and Faulkner's Island, a distance of 100 miles. The boats will run five times around the Island and return, making a total sum of 1,000 miles, which will complete the contest.

Texas.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 5th.—A special despatch to the Commercial, dated at Austin, Texas, on the 1st, says the President of the Texas secession Convention has been elected to preside over the Convention just assembled here to reconstruct the State Government. A large majority of the delegates to the Convention are secessionists.

State Politics.

LOCK HAVEN, Feb. 5.-The Clinton county delegates to the Republican State Convention have been instructed to vote for Hon. J. K. Morehead for Governor.

Heavy Snow Storm. Oswego, N. Y., February 5th.-Snow fell here yesterday to the depth of two feet, and the trains on all the roads leading to this city have been detained.

Unsafe Steamboat Boilers.

Louisville, Feb. 4.—The owners of the mail boat United States have withdrawn her temporarily from service, in order to substitute, seven single flue boilers for her present tube boilers, they deeming the latter

XXXIXTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. WASHINGTON, Feb. 5, 1866.
SENATE.—Mr. Doolittle (Wis.) stated that he would have voted for the bill to guarantee civil rights, had he been in the Senate on Friday, when the vote was being taken.

Mr. Wilson (Mass.) presented the petition of General Sheridan, and other officers, askof General Speridan, and other officers, asking for an increase of pay. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Howard (Mich.) presented the petition of the citizens of Detroit, asking for a protective tariff. Referred to the Finance Committee Mr. Chandler (Mich), from the Committee on Commerce, reported the House bill to-prevent the issue of American registers to vessels whose owners procured foreign re-gisters during the war, and asked that it be passed immediately.

Mr. Sherman (Ohio) asked that it lie over until to-morrow as it was a very important measure. So ordered.

Mr. Foote (Vt.) offered a sesolution, which was adopted, calling on the Secretary of War for the report of General Roberts, setting forth his views in the best mode of tracking or warms lands on the best. reclaiming swamp lands on the basin of the COURTS.

The Commissions of Judges Allison and Peirce.—Proceedings in the Court.
Common Pleas.—This morning at the Ó.

Common Pleas.—This morning at the opening of the Common Pleas, the Commission of Judge Allison as President of the Court, and the commission of William S. Peirce, as Associate Judge was read. Judge Ludlow then administered the oath to Judge Allison, who in turn administered it to Judge Peirce.

Judge Allison then addressed the members of the bar as follows:

Gentlemen of the Bar:—The commission which has just been read in your hearing, and the oath of office which I have taken and of which you are witnesses, informs you in an official and public manner, of my assumption of the duties of President Judge.

For fourteen years

Judge.
For fourteen years, gentlemen, I have gone in and out before you, as one of the Judges of this Court, and now that the place of my lamented predecessor has been made vacant by his death, I enter the position so long, and so ably filled by him, by the favor of the Governor, and by the very great partiality of the members of this bar, to whom I am under a weight of obligations, I can never repay, for their generous and outspoken kindness,—a kindness which began with the first day of my public life, and has never for a moment failed me. And if in the imperfect discharge of the duties of my position. I have in some degree hear able position I have in some degree been able to meet your just expectations, and to win to myself your favorable opinion, I feel that I am more than repaid. I am assured, gentlemen, that our relations will continue to be in the future, what they have been in the past, and I bespeak a gene rous indulgence at your hands, for my shortcomings and imperfections, in con-sideration of the number and variety and importance of the duties which devolve on a judge of this court. To the best of my ability, I will, aided by a higher power and with your assistance, perform them.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Ludlow.—
This morning the February term of the Court commenced. Before proceeding to business the commissions of Judges Allison and Peirce were read in open court. Benj.
H. Brewster, Esq., on behalf of the members of the bar, congratulated Judge Allison upon his elevation to the Presidency of the Court, and Judge Peirce upon his selection to fill the vacancy on the bench.

The grand jury was called and John Baird ppointed foreman.
SUPREME COURT—Chief Justice Woodward, and Justices Thompson, Read and Agnew.—The Court reassembled this morning to resume the Philadelphia list. The following judgments were entered:

THE LAST OF IT.—The old St. Louis THE LAST OF IT.—The old St. Louis Hotel building on Chestnut street, above Third, is no more. The work of demolition commenced last week and was finished this morning, when the last portion of the walls was taken down. The structure has disappeared very rapidly. The new banking house to be put up by the First National Bank will soon be commenced, and when finished, it will be one of the finest and most substantial structures of the kind in the city.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT .- This morning, CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—This morning, about one o'clock, a colored man named Daniel Brown, was arrested by Officer Bringhurst and private watchman Carter, while in the act of stealing from the window of the store of B. W. Berks, Jr., No. 533 Arch street, He had broken the large glass, which was worth about $20, in order to get at the goods. The accused was taken before Alderman Godbou, and was held in $1,000 bail to answer. bail to answer.

THE MAYOR'S RECEPTION DAY .- This is the day for the reception by the Mayor, of applications for police appointments. The number of applicants appears to diminish every week. From Washington. [Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Ways and Means Committee are engaged in preparing articles for reciprocal legislation with the Canadians, which will be acceptable to our Government. They will not contain half that the Canadian officials desire to have enumerated in the list. Colonel Mosby's wife has secured the parole of her husband through General Grant, who includes him in the arrangement with Lee.

The Judges of the Supreme Court are about equally divided on the question of the constitutionality of the test oath. It will be some time before the decision is rendered. The French minister has cards out for a grand ball next Friday evening. Twelve hundred invitations have been issued. No action will be had by the Committee on Banking on the question of increasing the capital of National Banks for some days yet.

Burning of Bailroad Property. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 5th.—The depot of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, at Lawrenceville, near Pittsburgh, including the round-house, carpenter-shop, engine-shop, blacksmith-shop, with eleven loco-motives, was totally destroyed by fire this morning at 4 o'clock. There is no insurance on the loss, the amount of which is un known, but is very heavy.
