LA COTERIE BLANCHE.-The Academy LA COTERIE BLANCHE.—The Academy of Music presented another magnificent spectacle last night. The third annual fancy dress hop of La Coterie Blanche, for which such extensive arrangements had been made, came off, and the success with which it passed off, exceeded expectations. The interior of the building was splendidly decorated for the occasion. The dancing floor was covered with wall paper, which prevented the dust from rising and gave a novel and pretty effect to the scene. Over the centre of the stage were gas jets, ar-ranged in stars and circles, which contained the words "La Coterie Blanche, 1866." Be-youd the proscenium a magnificent and appropriate scene was arranged, and along appropriate scene was arranged, and along the sides of the stage ranges of elaborate chandeliers depended and shed their light upon the beautiful picture. Folds of handsome bright drapery ornamented the entire auditorium, festooned with evergreens. Pyramids of bouquets, fountains of perfumed waters and prettily caged canaries were placed throughout the Academy, and gave fragrance and melody to the air. The attendance at the hop was large but not enough to interfere with the comfort or pleasure of any of the participants. The fadies and gentlemen mostly appeared in full ball costume, and many of the dresses were exceedingly rich. There were also a great many fancy costumes. Queens, courtiers, vivandiers, peasant girls, prima don-nas, Roman citizens, and all other characters, were well represented, and the dazzling throng was interspersed with many amusing personations. Among the latter may be mentioned a large beer-mug, a huge barrel, and a couple of immense coffee pots. Signor Blitz appeared on the stage in a grotesque costume and performed some amusing tricks.

There were two fine orchestra's present under the direction of Mr. Charles R. Dodsworth.

The ball was opened about half-past nine o'clock. The curtain rolled up, a grand march was performed and the members of La Coterie entered by a staircase at the back of the stage. They were dressed in a fine suit of pure white cloth, trimmed with gold cord, wearing the old style rufiled collar, plait and cuffs. A blue silk sash served as their mark of distinction. After a promenade around the floor they were joined by their ladies, then followed the guests, and the stage soon became comfor-tably filled. Each lady was handed a bouquet and a magnificent programme, attached to a beautiful fan, as she entered. By this time, those who did not desire to dance had taken possession of the parquette circle and balcony, and every seat was occupied. The scene from any part of the house was exceedingly grand. The dancing commenced immediately after the opening march, and was con-tinued until an early hour this morning. Under the management of Mr. Will S. Turner, the floor director, and his assistants. everything passed off successfully and satisfactorily. The third hop of La Coterie Blanche will not soon be forgotten by those who had the pleasure of attending.

THE PRESS CLUB.-The regular stated meeting of the Press Club, Mr. C. Souder, Jr., President, in the chair, was enlivened yesterday by the reading of a most instruc-tive and entertaining essay by Mr. John Hasson, of the Associated Press. His topic Hasson, of the Associated Press. His topic was "The Telegraph; its connection with the newspaper press of the United States," Mr. Hasson gave a graphic discription of the modes of obtaining European news from steamers off Cape Race, &c., and spoke of the origin of what is now known as "The Associated Press." He then described, mainly from personal knowledge, the doings of the telegraphers and Associated Press agents who were connected with the army during the war. He paid a glowing army during the war. He paid a glowing but thoroughly deserved compliment to that veteran and fearless correspondent Mr. Sidney Deming, and also alluded in com-plimentary terms to Mr. Thayer and ether well-known telegraphers. Mr. Hasson's personal experiences at Bull Bun also BROAD STREET,-The City Councils will BROAD STREFT,—The City Councils will have before them this afternoon, a proposed act of Assembly, for the improvement of this magnificent street. The act is said to be fair in all its provisions, and has met the approval of the Committee on Law, who will report a resolution to be passed by the Councils urging upon the Legislature its enactment into a law. Under the operation of this act we shall soon see Broad street one of the grandest avenues in this country, free from the nuisance of railroad tracks; and where our citizens may drive and enjoy and where our citizens may drive and enjoy themselves without delay or hindrance from mule teams and coal cars.

SLIPPERY.-Pedestrianism was attended with much inconvenience and danger this morning. Last evening there was a slight spit of snow, which was succeeded by a heavy mist. The result was a thin coat of ice on the sidewalks to day. Many persons took to the sidewalks to-day. Many persons took to the carriage ways and got along very well, while those who used the pave-ments had hard work to preserve their equilibrium. Skating would have been the most expeditious plan of locomotion, and we observed several youths who had adopted it. adopted it.

A COMBINATION SALE OF OIL PAINTINGS takes place this evening at Scott's Art Gal-lery, 1020 Chestnut street, commencing at $7\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock. The collection embraces about 75 works, most of which are of rare merit. Connoisseurs and lovers of art should attend the sale, as all are to be sold without eserve. UNION PRAYEB MEETING .- This afternoon a Union Prayer Meeting will be held at the Baptist church, Bread and Brown streets. To-morrow afternoon a similar meeting will be held at the Church of the Epiphany, Fifteenth and Chestnut streets.

LIFE INSURANCE .- The attention of our LIFE INSURANCE.—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement in our columns of the New York Life's twenty-first annual dividend, which is fifty per cent, for 1865, together with the re-demption in cash of all outstanding scrip for the years 1863, 1864. The receipts for the year were over two millions of dollars; just at this time when both life and fire losses are so great, it certainly shows superior management in the officers and agents of this com-pany to make such a satisfactory report to their policy bolders, they only being interested in the profits. We know of no company in this country that have cashed their outstanding scrip and credits in so short at time. The scrip of 1865 only remains to be paid. We can safely recommend this company in preference to many others to persons about insuring; the accumulated capital is now over 4,400,000, and policies for $20,000 are issued on any one first class risk. Messrs, Lancaster and Gaskil), the well-known insurance agents, N. W. corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, are the agents for this State. Call on them and insure; we nave done so. WITHDRAWING THE FRENCH FROM MEX-roo -Many reasons are assigned for the withdrawal of the French troops from Mexico.
