Artemus Ward gave one lecture for Artemus Ward gave one lecture for the exclusive benefit of that great man's wife." Mas Charles F. Browne, better known Ms "Artemus Ward," has a perfect right as to Iecture for whomsoover he pleases.
He is a native of New England, and a good many of his friends and neighbors good many of his friends and neighbors fought and suffered for the cause of the Union. Union. Mr. Browne wrote and spoke a good many &mart things about the war during its progress, and talked about his willingness that all his relations and his wife's relations should go to the war. Mr. Browne himself did not wor. Mr. Browne himself did not go, nor do we recollect ever: to have heard that heard that during the gloomy four years of the struggle he ever delivered a lecture in aid of the Union cause, or of the ture in aid of the Union casse, or of the great humanitarian enterprises that greem grew out of it and that were designed for the relief of our gallant boldiers. Mr.
Browne is taking a professional trip through the South. We have heard of him lecturing at Memphis, at New Or-Southern newspaper acknowledgment of the reeiptof three hundred and fifty dollare as the proceeds of his lecture for the benefit of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.
We repeat that Artemus Ward has right to lecture for whomsoever he pleases, and while we regret that he did not get into the charitable line a little earlier, and for the benefit of his own earlier, and for the benefit of his own friends and neighbors, we will make a record of the fact that he has departed record of the fact that ' r e has departed from his ascustomed rule of lecturing for Mr. Browne alone by giving a benefit to Mr. Browne alome by giving a benefit to the wife of the arch-traitor. SNLEs of propikity roe raxes.
We bee with atigation, that Senator Connell has introduced a bill to fix the Cone see with intirodiacted an, binat to fonator the means which shall be taken to aequaint owners with the prospect that their property will be sold for taxes before it is actually done. As the law now stands, it happensquite frequently that property is owner is ignorant. It is then bought up for a nominal sum, and the fact carefully concealed by the purchaser, until the two years allowed for redemption have run out, when the owner finds himself stripped of his property, for a claim amounting perhaps to as many cents as the prioperty was worth hundreds of dol log lars. A case lately ocearred in which a mach respected citizizen suddenly found himeelfdivested himseirdivested of a property of thirteen or fourteen acres in the southern part of tho the eity. It is time that this way of doing things should cometo an end, and we trust that Mr. Connell's bill will do this. The present state of affairs is indeThe Late Charras A. Poulion, , Esq.
