ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

THE CEREMONIES AT WASHINGTON

An Imposing Scene.

LATE FROM FORTRESS MONROE

Defalcation in New Hampshire.

President Lincoln's Birth Day. WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.-The flags over the public buildings, including the Capitol, are at half-mast to-day.

At 10 o'clock the doors leading to the rotunda of the Capitol were opened to those to whom invitations had been extented by the presiding officers of the two Houses, and to those holding tickets of admission to the galleries, issued by the Chairman of the Joint Committee of Arrangements.

The hall of the House of Representatives was opened for the admission of Representatives and those to whom invitations had been extended, who were conducted to the seats assigned them.

The President of the United States was seated in front of the Speaker's table. The Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, occupied seats next to the President, on the right of the Speaker's table. The Heads of Departments, with the Diplomatic Corps, occupied seats next to the President, on the left of the Speaker's table.

Officers of the army and navy who by name have received the thanks of Congress, occupied seats next to the Supreme Court, on the right of the Speaker's table. Representatives occupied seats on either side of the Hall, in the rear of those invited-four rows on either side of the main aisles for

In addition to those above men tioned were the assistant Heads of the Departments, Governors of States and Territories, the Mayor of Washington and Georgetown, the chief justices and judges of the Court of Claims, and the chief, justice and associate justices of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, the heads of bureaus in the departments, and others.

When Lieutenant General Grant entered the gallery with the ladies he was greeted with applause. The Army and Navy officers were in uniform. The Diplomatic Corps appeared in citizens dress. Gen. B. F. Butler on entering the hall was applauded by his friends.

The House was called to order at 12 o'clock by the Speaker, who, after a prayer by the Rev. Mr. Boynton, laid before them a letter from Secretary Seward, addressed to the Speaker, making his acknowledgments for the invitation to be present on this occasion, but sincerely regretting that the state of his health forbids his attendance on the interesting National ceremonies. The Cabinet, excepting Mr. Seward, were present.

Senator Doolittle conducted the orator of the day to a seat at the table of the Clerk of the House: When the Senator's the President and his Cabinet, and the Supreme Court entered the Hall, those on the floor rose to their feet, and stood until they were all seated.

Every seat in the hall was occupied. The scene was brilliant and imposing, and apart from the solemn occasion it was interesting from the fact that here were represented all branches of the General and State Governments, with the ministers from Foreign Governments; these and thousands of others uniting in in paying their tributes to the memory of the illustrious dead.

The Marine Band, in the rear of the Reporter's Gallery, performed a solemn air from the opera of "La Trovatore," when Dr. Boynton, the Chaplain of the House, delivered an impressive prayer.

Hon. Lafayette S.Fisher, President of the Senate pro tem., called the House to order in a few pertinent remarks. He introduced the Hon.George Bancroft, who delivered the memorial address.

Washington, Feb. 12-11 o'clock.-A drizzling and drenching rain set in at an early hour this morning and still continues. The galleries of the House are already filled to repletion with beauty and fashion soourning here.

On the floor the gay uniforms of veteran officers of the Army and Navy are every where to be seen. The Foreign Ministers have not ye made their appearance, and the ladies are looking anxiously for them The scene already presented is fine. Twelve o'clock-The Senators have taken up their line of march, and have reached the floor of the House.

The President occupies the seat assigned him. The Cabinet are distributed on either side. The Judges of the Supreme Court with their black gowns present a grave and dignified appearance, the Chief Justice, like Saul among the Prophets, is head and shoulders above them all. The Corps Diplomatique have arrived, arrayed in their costly court dresses, and are the observed of all observers. The venerable Speaker is ready to commence his able eulogy.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Feb. 10.-The ship Grey Eagle, from Rio Janeiro, with coffee for Baltimore, was spoken off Cape Henry yesterday by the revenue cutter Kankakee, who supplied her with provisions. A large sale of government property has been advertised to take place on the 23d inst., at 2 P. M. The sale will comprise wagons, ambulances, harness, carpenter's tools, and a miscellaneous collection of camp cots, bedsteads, scrap iron, grain sacks, cooking stoves, etc., etc. Terms cash in government funds. There will also be sold 30,000 feet of oak lumber and 10,000 of ash. On the 20th inst, 100 horses will be

A Curious Defaication in New Hampshire. Boston, Feb. 12,-A Concord, N. H., despatch reports that there is much excitement amongst the directors and stockholders of the Concord Railroad Company, caused by developments said to implicate passengers, conductors and other parties with embezzlement and the issuing of spurious railroad tickets. Property to the amount of $300,000 belonging to the alleged defaulters has been attached and legal proceedings instituted.

From San Salvador. NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—San Salvador advices to January 20th state that a violent sterm occurred on the 4th ult., unroofing houses in the city and destroying many in the interior. CITY BULLETIN.

PHILADELPHIA HOME FOR LITTLE WAN-DERERS.—This institution, the initial movements for which have been for some time in preparation by many of our prominent citipreparation by many of our prominent citizens, is to be inangurated, at Concert Hall, in Chestnut street, this evening, by a public meeting, which promises to be of unusual interest. Governor Pollock will preside, addresses will be delivered by several gentlemen whose services have been specially secured for the occasion. The Rev. Mr. Van Meter, of the Howard Mission, New York, will be present, with twelve of his mission will be present, with twelve of his mission children, who possess remarkable musical powers, and who will entertain the audience with a variety of their best songs and glees. These children dined at the Continental Hotel, yesterday, on invitation of Mr. Kingsley, the proprietor, and afterwards sang for the guests of the hotel, in the parlor. The ladies and gentlemen present were powerfully affected by their performance, and after it was concluded they made up a purse of one hundred and fifty dollars for the benefit of the Howard Mission. Such an institution as the "Home for Little Wanderers," is much needed in Philadelphia, for the outcasts and homeless children of the city, of whom there are several thousands in our midst; and it is to be hoped that our citizens will give the enterprise such momentum at Concert Hall, to-night, as will carry it on to a complete

CITY MORTALITY .- The number of interments in this city, during the past week, was 312, against 358 during the same period last year. Of the whole number 160 were adults and 152 children—55 being under one year of age; 166 were males, 146 females; 78 boys and 74 girls. The greatest number of deaths occurred in the Nineteenth Ward, being 26, and the smallest number in the Twenty fifth Ward, where only three were reported. The principal causes of death were, apoplexy, 6; croup, 8; congestion of the brain, 10; consumption, 35; convulsions, 20; disease of the heart, 9; debility, 17; scarlet fever, 18; typhoid fever, 10; inflammation of the lungs, 18; old age, 16, and small pox 7.

HIGH WATER.-The warm weather of the past few days has caused the ice on the streams about the city to break up, and the volume of water has been much increased the rain of last night and this morning. In the Schuylkill the ice is coming down rapidly and the water was high and swift this morning. There are indications of a freshet, and the trestle work of the Chestnut street bridge is considered in some danger.

In the Delaware the tide is also high. In Frankford creek the water is some ten or twelve feet higher than usual. The wharves at Frankford are all overflowed.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.-Before Ald Beitler on Saturday William Spencer had a hearing on the charge of breaking into the room of Andrew J. Huston, at Third and Chestnut streets, and stealing therefrom from four to five hundred dollars' worth of cigars. Mr. Huston identified a number of cigars which Thomas Elliott, a tavern keeper, testified were sold to him by the accused. Spencer was held for his appearance at Court.

SERIOUS CHARGE.-A young man named Joel Swain, was before Alderman Toland, this morning, on the charge of carrying con-cealed deadly weapons. He was arrested last night at Fourth and Brown streets, and is alleged to have shot at a man named Harrison, without any provocation. Fortunately his aim was not good, and Mr. Harrison escaped unharmed. Swain was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

LARCENY.-A woman named Ellen Gannard was before Alderman Tittermary this morning upon the charge of larceny, is alleged to have robbed a man of is alleged to have robbed a man of $30 in money in the neighborhood of Fifth and Shippen streets. While conversing with her, she took a wallet from the pocket of the man, abstracted the money and then replaced the pocket book. She was com-

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT,-A man named Cornelius McNaugh was run over on Saturday evening by the eight o'clock down-train on the Norristown railroad, and had both legs seriously injured. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital where he died at four o'clock yesterday morning. It is reported that he was lying upon the track when the cars passed over him.

THE AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY.—A statement of the affairs of this thriving institution will be found in the advertising columns of the BULLETIN of to-day. The advantages of life insurance are so manifest that it is super-fluous to urge; while it seems equally needless to say anything in commendation of the "American."

Union PRIMARY ELECTIONS.—The Union party will meet in the several precincts of the city to-morrow evening, for the purpose of appointing officers to conduct an election for delegates, to be held on Tuesday evening, 20th inst.; the said delegates to meet in convention for the purpose of choosing delegates to the convention for the nomination of State officers.

DROWNED.-Wm. McDevitt, aged thirtyseven years, while engaged, on Saturday, in cutting ice on the Schuylkill, above the Girard avenue bridge, slipped into the water and was drowned before assistance reached him. The body was recovered and conveyed to his late residence, at Twenty-fourth and Walnut streets.

FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE,-John Harris, a colored man, charged with burglary in West Chester, was arrested on Saturday night at Sixth and Lombard streets by officer Sam Smith. Harris recently escaped from the officer having him in charge, while being taken from the court house at West Chester. He was taken back to that place this morning.

LECTURE IN AID OF A NOBLE OBJECT .-Next Monday evening, the 19th inst., Prof. R. E. Rodgers will deliver a second lecture for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home. His lecture will be a continuation of his former one, entitled "A Glance at the World We Live In," and will be of unusual interest:

ACCIDENT.-Charles Christian, a lad aged about fourteen years, living in Marriott's lane, near Eighth street, had his leg broken and sustained other injuries in consequence of a horse falling upon him on Saturday afternoon, at Ridge avenue and Islington lane. He was conveyed to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Robbery. Some time during Saturday night the store of George W. Sharp, 833 N. Thirteenth street, was entered by breaking off the lock on the front door, and goods to the value of $300 taken.

AMERICAN UNION COMMISSION.-An interesting meeting of this Commission was held in Grace Church, corner of Twelfth and Cherry streets, last evening. Rev. Wm. Suddards, D. D., Pastor, conducted the religious exercises. Samuel V. Merrick, Esq., President of the society, was called to the chair. Mr. Joseph Parker, Secretary, gave an interesting statement of the operations of the Commission, read several letters from teachers of the schools established at At-lanta and Athens, Ga., informed the meet-ing that through the recommendation of Gen. Howard the Secretary of War had re-Gen. Howard the Secretary of war had restored the school building at Macon, Ga., to the trustees, and that they in turn had placed them at the disposal of the Commission, who had resolved to open immediately a first-class school for the white children of the State. Several male and female teachers would be commissioned at core from the North to enter mon the work once from the North to enter upon the work of organizing and carrying out this noble enterprise.

Mr. Parker showed very clearly how important it was thus to care for the poor whites, and not absorb the whole charities of the North upon the blacks, if we would convince the South of our good will towards the suffering and ignorant masses of their

Rev. J. H. Torrence and Rev. Richard Newton, D. D., followed in the same direction, declaring that patriotism and religion alike joined in their appeals to the lovers of country and of God to sustain this worthy undertaking. It was our duty to let the present and coming generation know that while we would contend to the death for the maintenance of our Government, we would also heartly labor to build up the things we were forced to destroy. A collection was then taken. The meeting was a success.

DISORDERLY HOUSE CASE,-Yesterday morning about two o'clock, a disturbance occurred at a tayern No. 510 South Seventh street—a place of resort for disorderly colored men. A squad of Fifth Ward policemen under Sergeant Broomell, made descent upon the establishment and captured James Dawsey, the alleged proprietor and sixteen negroes. The prisoners were taken before Ald. Butler. Dawsey was held for keeping a disorderly house, and the others to keep the peace.

ATTEMPED ROBBERY.-Yesterday mornlar, at Shomaker's lane and Hancock stree Germantown. The kitchen was entered and the burglars were about forcing their way into the other part the house, when they were frightened off by a couple of policemen, and succeeded in escaping.

DISHONEST DOMESTIC,-A young mulatto woman who had been employed as a servant in the house of Dr. Ash, No. 1721 Vine street, was arrested vesterday upon the charge of having stolen a variety of articles of clothing and a lot of table linen. She will have a hearing at the Central Station his afternoon.

BOLD ROBBERY.-Early yesterday morning, some two or three men hurled a piece of ice through the bulk window of the dry goods store of S. Gourley, on Tenth street below Poplar. A number of piecies of goods valued at $120 were then abstracted. A young man named Wattson was arrested on suspicion of having been concerned in the robbery. He was held for a further hearing by Alderman Massey.

ROBBERY IN THE RURAL SECTIONS,-The house of Augustus L. Kaul, on Thorps' Lane, Twenty-second Ward, was entered yesterday during the temporary absence of the occupants, and was robbed of jewelry valued at $50 and $150 in money.

SUDDEN ILLNESS .- Mr. John L. Goddard, a prominent member of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania A. Y. M., had a Episcopal church at Thirty-eighth and Oak streets. He was conveyed to his home at Thirty-ninth and Walnut streets, and this morning was much better.

Foggy.-A dense fog hung over the city early this morning, and the rain came down in torrents. The weather, therefore, was anything but pleasant for those compelled to be out-doors. SLIGHT FIRE,-This morning about nine o'clock, a dwelling house at Sixth street and Susquehannan avenue was slightly damaged by fire.

PHILADELPHIA AND ERIE RAILROAD. The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad was held this morning, at the office of the Com-pany, on Walnut street. Henry Duhring, Esq., presided. and G. P. Little acted as

The annual report was read. It states that the business of the road during the past year has equaled the estimate made by the General Manager as furnished in the last report of the Board, but has not fully met expectations. From an unusual prevalence of snow and an extraordinary flood through business was suspended some forty or fifty days, and the loss of receipts in consequence thereof has been estimated at $150,000.

Of the anthracite coal trade expected, only 120,000 tons were carried on the road only 120,000 tons were carried on the road during the year.

The transportation of oil, a prolific source of business anticipated, has proved a partial failure. The number of barrels of oil carried was 328,022.

The receipts of the road for the past year amounted to $2,074,140, which is an increase of $955,111 over those of 1864. It is estimated that the receipts this year will not fall short of $3,000,000, of which 30 per cent.—$990,000—will be due this Company from the of larceny.

James and Annie Morton were charged with the larceny of a quantity of clothing. Annie was convicted, and James acquitted W. J. Birney was charged with larceny as a bailee. The prosecutor, a discharged soldier, alleged that after his discharge from the army, he came to Philadelphia way to Pittsburgh, and stopped at a hotel in Market street, above Nineteenth, where Birney was the bar-keeper. The soldier purchased a valise, and placing his clothing and $325 within it, he passed it over to the bar-keeper for safe keeping. That night he visited a friend, and the next day returned for his valise, and was told by the defendant that he knew nothing about it. The defence was that there were a large number of soldiers stopping at the hou and the defendant told their that in leaving their knapsacks and valises in the room they did it at their own risk. The defendant was out of town during the afternoon and knew nothing of the disappearance of the property. On trial.
