

SECOND EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Gold Mines at Panama.

THE SPANISH-CHILEAN WAR.

THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE

Stormy Scenes and Discussions.

Delinquents Compelled to Attend.

FROM WASHINGTON.

From South and Central America.

New York, Feb. 21.—The steamer Henry

Chauncey, from Aspinwall, on the 13th inst.

arrived at this port this morning. She brings advice from Panama to January 12th.

Mosquera is endeavoring to put the Panama Railroad on the British market as an endeavor to obtain more than was given by the present company.

The steamer Henry Chauncey brings a million and a quarter in treasure.

Several miners, from California, have arrived at Panama on their way to prospect the gold mines of Choco and Barbaoco, some forty miles from Panama.

A rich gold field is reported to have just discovered about eighteen miles from Panama, and two miles from the railroad.

The miners pronounce the developments exceedingly rich.

The trial of Bradley, for robbing Paymaster Rittenhouse of $15,000, has been postponed.

Valparaiso dates to the 17th day of January, and Calles to the 28th, confirm the declaration of war by Peru against Spain, but hostilities had not yet commenced.

The blockade of Caldera has been raised and the Spanish squadron is concentrating at Valparaiso. Five or six sailing vessels have been burned by the Spaniards.

The Chilean coast is now open to trade.

Several vessels from Europe have been warned away from Valparaiso and gone to other ports.

The Peruvian squadron has been sent to join the Chilean squadron. All the Spaniards in Peru are given a certain time to register their names, failing in which they will be treated as spies. Internal reforms are being initiated by the Peruvian Dictator.

The Tennessee Legislature.

NASHVILLE, February 20.—The Speaker of the House has ordered that the absenting members will have to be brought into the Legislature by force if they will not come voluntarily. The session to-day was one of stormy arguments and angry discussion, caused by the compelled attendance of several members of the conservative party, who, it was alleged, purposely stayed away to prevent the House having a quorum.

It was reported in the House to-day that

Colonel Shaffer, Commanding the post, would, if the absence of members continued, use military force to compel their attendance.

An unknown man was found dead this afternoon in Frontstreet. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from exposure.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—A large delegation of merchant tailors are here, from Pennsylvania and Maryland, joined by some of the trade of Washington to appear before the Committee of Ways and Means, with a view to obtain an amendment of the Internal

CITY BULLETIN.

DELEGATES TO THE UNION STATE CON-VENTION.—The Senatorial and Representative Conventions of the National Union party met this morning in their respective districts to elect delegates to the State Convention, which will meet on the 7th of March.

The following was the result of the election.

Senatorial.—First District—R. T. Gill.

Second District—A. C. Roberts.

Third—George Schulz.

Fourth—Wm. B. Mann.

Fifth—John H. Delaney.

Sixth—John L. Hill.

Seventh—H. Delaney.

Eighth—A. H. Francis.

Ninth—James Porter.

Tenth—R. M. Evans.

Eleventh—S. Armstrong.

Twelfth—John Lamon.

Thirteenth—E. Rener.

Fourteenth—James Allison.

Fifteenth—W. J. White.

Sixteenth—Thomas Dutton.

Seventeenth—Thomas Dickson.

Eighteenth—Chas. Thompson Jones.

The delegation is believed to stand thus for Governor.

For Ketchum, 16.

For Chauncy, 5.

For Moorhead, 1.

PENNSYLVANIA HORTICULTURAL SOCI-ETY.—The monthly meeting and exhibition of this Society was held last evening. The room was perfectly crowded with visitors, and the tables with the finest specimens of rare exotics. Azaleas dazzled with their brilliant and Camellias charmed with the purity of their spotless white. The display of floral designs, baskets, hand and button hole bouquets, &c., was so great that the Comptroller had great difficulty in making the awards of premiums. Mr. Hibberd, gardener to Fairman Rogers, Esq., and Jas.

McDonald, had choice collections of twenty-four plants each. Mr. Joyce, gardener to

M. W. Baldwin, Esq., exhibited some rare air plants in full bloom; Mackenzie & Son, a superb display of Camellias; R. Buist, some very interesting new plants; Mr. O'Keefe, hand and button hole bouquets; Mrs. S.

Harris, a bridal bouquet and funeral chaplet of dried flowers, most beautifully and naturally preserved. There was also exhibited four oil paintings, by George Lambin, of Magnolias, Calas, Azaleas and Wisterias, which were much admired for their beauty and natural effect. Among the business transactions of the evening, a resolution in reference to the building of the New Hall, and the subject is to be finally acted on at an adjourned meeting to be held on next Tuesday evening.

HOUSE ROBBERY.—ARREST OF THE

THIEVES.—This morning, about seven o'clock, the dwelling of Mr. Samuel Col-lough, No. 1204 Olive street, was entered by forcing open the back door. Mr. Colough was absent a short time, engaged in feeding his horse. As he was returning he observed two men emerging from the alley.

He then discovered that his house had been entered, and the upper part ransacked. He followed the men to a large beer saloon in the neighborhood, where he seized one of them, who gave his name as Wm. Wilson.

The other was captured by another citizen.

His name is John Ferguson. Upon Wilson

$64, which had been stolen from the house, was found. A $20 gold piece, in a portion of an envelope, was also recovered. This envelope had been sent by Mr. Colough to the army to his mother, and the other portion of it was found on the street, being thrown away by the thieves. A small box, containing some coin was found on the street, and likewise a screw driver and a stone-cutting chisel. While in the house the rascals attempted to destroy some deeds and receipt book, Ferguson and Wilson had a hearing before Alderman Massey, and were committed in default of $1,500 bail to answer at Court.

A MAN STARVED AND ROBBED.—A man named Fleet, belonging to West Philadelphia, came into the city, last evening, to attend a ball. He got into a boat on Dock street, near Spruce, and while there got into a fight with a man named Trainer. The latter is alleged to have drawn a knife, and cut Fleet across the breast, causing a severe wound. Fleet was taken to the Hospital.

Trainer escaped. During the fight Fleet dropped his coat and vest, John Woodward the barkeeper in the establishment, held him, and when the coat was afterwards obtained by Fleet's wife, it is alleged, $23 were missing from one of the pockets.

Woodward was arrested on the charge of having stolen the money. This morning he was arraigned before Alderman Beiter and was committed for a further hearing.

ROBBING A POLICEMAN'S HOUSE.—Yesterday afternoon the dwelling house of K.

Jones, a police officer, No. 1029 Ogden street, was entered during the absence of the family. The thieves pried open the back gate, and then crawled through the cellar into the house, where they ransacked and about $12 in money were stolen. The movements of the robbers were observed by some boys, who gave the alarm. The thieves then ran out the back way, and were pursued and captured by John G.

Graef and Richards. They gave the names as John Kugler and Chas. Haines. The stolen money was thrown away during the fight. The prisoners had with them a small "jimmy." They had a hearing this morning before Alderman Massey, and were committed in default of $1,200 bail for trial.

A NEW SUIT.—A young man named Richard Moore went into a clothing store, No. 104 North Second street, yesterday afternoon, and fitted himself up in an entire new suit of clothing—shirt, trousers, coat, vest, and overcoat. While

Mr. Moore was engaged in packing up his clothing, Moore made a sudden exit from the establishment and ran. An alarm was raised, and the fugitive was pursued by Officer McNamara to Water and Race streets, where he was captured. Alderman

Godbout held Moore in $800 bail to answer the charge of larceny.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE, STOCKS, &c.—

Messrs. Thomas & Sons's sale at the Exchange yesterday noon was largely attended and the bidding quite spirited. They sold the following stocks and real estate, viz:

160 shares Southwestern Coal Co. $110,000

100 shares Philadelphia Gas Co. 18,000

500 shares Allegheny River 80,000

100 shares Schuylkill Canal 10,000

100 shares Pennsylvania Canal 10,000

100 shares Beaver Meadow R. Co. 12,500

100 shares Erie Canal 10,000

100 shares Erie Canal 10,000

100 shares Erie Canal 10,000

100 shares Erie Canal 10,000

100 shares Erie Canal 10,000

100 shares Erie Canal 10,000

100 shares Erie Canal 10,000

Finance and Business.—Feb. 21, 1866.

The Stock Market was quite heavy this morning, and with a marked downward tendency in all the speculative shares, but as the day advanced there was a better feeling, with some reaction in prices. Government Loans were without quotable change. State Fives were steady at 83 1/2, and City Loans at 87 1/2 for the 100, and 92 for the 100 new issues. Reading Railroad was the most active on the list, and about two thousand shares changed hands, opening at 50, and then settling down to 49 1/2—a decline of 1/2, but at the close at 50 1/2. Calumet Railroad Preferred sold at 32 1/2 and 32 1/2 for the 100 new issues. The latter a decline of 1/2. The County stock closed at 23 1/2. North Pennsylvania Railroad rose 1/4, and Philadelphia and Erie Railroad was a shade lower. Canal stocks were heavy. Lehigh Navigation sold at 32 1/2 and 32 1/2 for the 100 new issues. The latter a decline of 1/2. In Bank shares the only sale was of Girard, at 50. All stocks were entirely neglected. In Passenger Railway shares the only sales were of Third and Fifth Streets at 22 1/2, and Hestonville at 24.

The announcement of the death of Mr. Jos. J. Ned-er caused universal expressions of regret. He was an active and energetic business man, a warm friend and a genial companion.

Jay Cooke & Co. quote Government Securities, &c.

as follows:

U. S. 6's, 1881..... 104 1/2