	Dublin.	CHARGED WITH LARCENY, — William Dougherty, the proprietor of a tavern at Sixth and Shippen streets, was before Al- derman Tittermary this morning, upon the charge of larceny. It seems that a colored man who had lately arrived in the city, purchased at a store on Shippen street, some clothing, and received in change a three dollar bill. He had some doubt about the genuineness of the note and got/the storekeeper to mark it. He then went over to Dougherty's place and asked him if the note was good. He replied in the afirm- ative, but instead of returning the bill, it is alleged, substituted a confederate five dol- lar note. The colored man did not-take particular notice of the bill and when he at- tempted to pass it was handed over to a policeman. He explained matters and pointed out Dougherty as the man who had given him the note. The accused was held for a further hearing. Brig Nancy N Lovke, Capt McCaimon, sailed from Portland Jan s for Matanzas, and as there has been no report of her arrival out up to Feb 14, fears are enter-tained that abe has met with some disaster. Ship Copernicus (Ham), Terry, sailed from N York Nov28 for London, and has not since been heard of. The C was an iron vessel of 6% tons, built at Glasgow in 1864. Her cargo consisted of the following articles: $777 bils ihour, 534,000 lbs oil cake, 694,625 lbs cheese and 22 hhds tobacco. The mounny table of marine losses for the past month, shows an aggregate of fify-two vessels, viz: $abips, 15 barks, 10 brigs, 20 schooners, and 2 steamers. Of the above 2 were burned, 1 foundered, 5 were aban-doned, and 11 are missing, supposed lost. The total value of the property lost and missing is estimated at $3,170,600. fel7-15t WE OFFER FOR SALE

He is charged with forging "a final statement" in order to draw the back pay of one Edward Jordon. On SUPREME COURT-Chief Justice Woodward and Justices Thompson, Strong, Read and Agnew.—The Court re-assembled for the purpose of hearing certain cases ordered for re-argument. As a specimen of the weather in South Africa, the Graham's Town Journal, Dec. 14th, 1865, states that at noon the day previous, the thermometer was 136 in the sun, 103 in the shade, 92 in a room, and 77 in the PRICES OF STOCKS IN NEW YORK.

In consequence of the alarm about the pork disease, the pig dealers of Vienna have telegraphed to their agents in Servia and Hungary not to send them any more ani-mals for the present, as most of the hotels have suppressed all preparations of pork in their bills of fare.

An enterprising colored man, who had been ejected from a street railroad car in St. Louis, has brought an action against the Company for $20,000 damages, and has en-gaged eminent lawyers to carry on the suit. The conductor was held to bail in bonds for $500.
