W, Carrigan (Pfiladelphia), George W. B. Smith (Cam-bria), P. G. Meek (Centre), and S. B. Ausch-courter (Denrahin) temporary Secretaries of mutz (Dauphin), temporary Secretaries of the Convention.

the Convention. Mr. Latta, on taking the chair, thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him. The list of delegates having been called, and corrections made, a committee, equal in numbers to the Senatorial representation, was appointed on permanent organization. During the absence of the above committee, Hon. W. A. Wallace, Chairman of the State Central Committee, being called upon, delivered an eloquent address, congratulating the Democracy on the bright prospects before them. He strongly orged union and harmony, and predicted a brilliant success in the approaching cam-of Philadelphia; J. K. Kerr, of Allegheny: H. P. Ross, of Bucks; Geo. W. Brewer, of Franklin, and Gen. Wm. H. Miller, of Dauphin, in speeches, which were enthusiasti-cally applauded.

The Committee on Permanent Officers reported the following: President—Hon. W. Hopkins, of Washington.

Vice Presidents-George W. Nebinger, S. D. Anderson, C. N. Wolff, Tatlow Jackson, D. Anderson, C. N. Wolff, Tatlow Jackson, J. H., Brinton, P. Applebaugh, Herman Rupp, D. L. Batdorf, T. N., Walker, John S. Fisher, Stephen Wilber, A. B. Dunning, F. W.-Knox, H. H. Martin, George D. Jack-son, W. H. Miller, S. H. Reynolds, Thomas D. Kerr, George W. Brewer, John Palmer, D. P. Milliken, John A. Miller, S. B. Sansom, E. B. Eldred, John George, Jas. Salis bury, Wm. Stewart, E. B. Stewart, Samuel Marshall, M. C. Trout, W. L. Scott.

Helmbold, Jacob Zeigler, G. B. Culp, G. W. Ryan, R. M. Speer and A. H. Dill. Mr. Hopkins, on being conducted to the chair, said: Gentlemen of the Convention-Perhaps the best assurance I could give you of my high appreciation of the distinguished honor your partiality has so unexpectedly con-ferred upon me, would be to announce my readiness to proceed at once to the discharge of the duty for which we have met; but in view of the peculiar circumstances by which we are surrounded, I trust that it will not be deemed obtrusive if I venture a remark or two in regard to the present potion of public affairs.

tion that has assembled in this Commonwealth since the termination of the terrible fratricidal war which has raged with such fury for the past four years; and first of all, may I not ask that this Convention shall reverently, with an humble and earnest gratitude, return thanks to God for his manifest interposition in staying the further effusion of blood, and inclining the hearts of erring brothers to lay down their arms and return to their allegiance to the Federal Union.

It is not my purpose, gentlemen, either to suggest a platform of principles or to indi-cate who should be our standard bearer. These are matters which belong to the Convention as a whole, rather than to any individual member, and the work will, I doubt not, be performed. In regard to the latter, you will allow me to say that an improper selection could hardly be made out of the excellent material presented for your consideration. Whoever the successful gen-tleman may be, let us each and all claim a zealous support of the nominee on the part of those whose representatives we are, the result cannot be doubtful. The signs of the times indicate with unerring certainty that the day of our deliverance is at hand. The Democracy have never been more firmly united than now, and I verily believe that there are thousands of conservative Republicans who have had such a surfeit of negro equality and negro suffrage-a policy to which that party is so fully com-mitted that they will be glad of the oppor-tunity to co-operate with us. Let us extend to all such the right hand of fellowship; let us assure them that the paramount consideration with us in the present struggle is to maintain the su-premacy of the Constitution of the United States inviolate, and the ascendancy of the white race against the bold attempts of the Republican party to degrade them to a level with the blacks; let us to assure them that to accomplish these dissimilar ends, we are willing for the time being, at least, to ignore all other issues. The noble stand taken by President John son in favor of a speedy restoration of the States whose people were lately in rebellion to their former relations to the Federal Union, and the enlightened and magnanimous policy he has adopted for the accomplishment of this truly patriotic purpose, deserves the highest commendation. His action in this respect has demonstrated that statesman of enlarged views, one whose deeds are worthy to be handed down to future generations with those of the immortal Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Clay and their compatriots. His veto of that iniquitous measure, the Freedmen's Bureau bill, should challenge the admiration of all who wish to see law and order restored, and military jurisdiction siven way to civil government. That message exhibits in a remarkable degree the rare quality of self-denial in rejecting the of power and patronage so allurements of power and partinage so lavishly proffered to the Executive by the bill in question, which is worth of all praise; Should his hands not be held up by every man, without distinction of party, and who desires to see the Union restored with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired? But I will not trespass. I again thank you, gentleman, for this re-newed expression of generous confidence. On motion of Mr. Ross, a committee, equal in number to the Senatorial representation, was appointed on resolutions. The following committee was selected:

Wm. V. McGrath, S. D. Anderson, Lewis C. Cassidy, H. M. Dechert, R. P. Longnecker, Nimrod Strickland, H. P. Rose, Wm. H. Hutter, J. Hageman, J. M. Weth win, H. Hutter, J. Hageman, J. H. Wen-erill, A. G. Brodhead, A. G. Garretson, A. B. Dunning, F. W. Knox, J. C. Bucher, Wm. Elliott, Wm. K. Wilson, S. H. Rey-nolds, H. Carpenter, J. H. Criswell, G. W. Brewer, George A. Smith, R. M. Spear Dr. R. P. Milliken, J. P. Thompson, S. R Beal, A. A. Furman, J. F. Honnson, S. R. Beal, A. A. Furman, J. B. Sweitzer, F. K. Kern, E. B. Dougherty, Wm. Newell, G. R. Snowden and B. F. Sloan. The Convention then took a recess till 7 o'clock P. M. Evening Session .- The Convention reassembled at 7 o'clock. The Committee on Resolutions not being ready to report, the interim was occupied with speeches by Major Zeigler, of Butler. and Mr. Stouse, of Schuylkill county, Mr. Kerr, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the following: The Democracy of Pennsylvania, in Convention met, recognizing a crisis in the affairs of the republic, and esteeming the immediate restoration of the Union para-mount to all other issues, do resolve: First—That the States whereof the people were lately in rebellion are integral parts of the Union, and are entitled to representation in Congress, by men duly elected, who bear true faith to the Constitution and laws; and in order to vindicate the maxim that "taxation without representation" is tyranny, such representation should be forthwith admitted.

action than equal and exact justice to all, special privileges to none; that I have no other political creed than that given to us by Washington and Jefferson; that I believe n the social superiority and will ever maintain the political supremacy of the white race; that I worship at no political altar whose toundations are not based upon the sacred Union of these immortal States. Tell them in advance for me of its peril, and conjure them, by the love of past memories, by the blood and carnage of our civil strife, by the dangers of the present, by all the hopes of the future, to rally to the support of nim who, in this crisis of our country' fate, by a mysterious providence of God, has been entrusted with the helm of State. Tell them he has appealed in terms of patriotic devotion to his whole country. Above the wild storm of prejudice, fanaticism and treason now raging in the national capital, clear and loud, are heard the words of the first Andrew, re-echoed by the second

"The Federal Union: it must be preserved." They are the two watchwords of national safety. They embody the holiest aspiration of every true patriot and afford a platform broad and strong enough for good men of all parties, no matter how wide their differ-ences of opinion may heretofore have been. Let us dedicate ourselves to this great purpose with unselfish and unshaken faith that its accomplishment will be its greatest reward. Let us go forth bearing aloft the banner of our country emblazoned with the words: "The Constitution, the Federal Union." Let us appeal to the whole people from the northern border to the Maryland line, from our inland sea to the Dela-ware, and, if public virtue be not dead, if patriots be not extinct, i devotion to principle still/lives, if treason is still abhorred, then, indeed, in October next will victory, thric blessed victory, crown our efforts, bringing with it a Constitution preserved, a Union restored, a land redeemed from the madness and folly which now threaten to destroy it.

That in some measure I may be of assist-ance in producing such results, I humbly pray. Upon you, gentlemen, and those whom you represent, I shall lean for sup-port and guidance; and, appealing to the God of our fathers to prosper us in all our efforts for the redemption and salvation of our country, I may not doubt that triumphant success will surely crown our labors.

Mr. Clymer was followed by Mr. Cass, Richard Vaux and Daniel M. Fox, of Philadelphia, and Styles, of Lehigh, all promising a hearty support to the nominee o the conventio The convention then adjourned sine die.
