The Union State Convention. Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]

HARRISBURG, March 7th.—Hon. John Cessna called the Union State Convention to order in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at twelve o'clock.

Every available space was filled, while bundreds thronged the rotunda, the Senate Chamber, and the outside of the Capitol. Mr. Lawrence, of Washington, nominated William B. Mann, Esq., for temporary Chairman. and Mr. Dickey, of Lancaster. nominated Louis W. Hall, of Blair.

The vote was taken and Mr. Hall received eighty votes, and Mr. Mann received fifty-seven. All the opposition to General Geary com-bined on Colonel Mann, General Geary's friends voting for Hall. The vote was taken by yeas and nays for the purpose of testing the strength of Geary. General Geary will probably be chosen on the first ballot.

Major General Steadman and General Selfridge were invited into the Convention, as also a deputation from the Loyal League

Mr. Hall, on taking the chair, made some brief remarks, which were applauded. Temporary Secretaries were appointed. and Committees on Organization and Resolutions were formed. The greatest enthusiasm was evinced everywhere, and Gen. Geary's friends are ubilant over the prospect of coming vic-

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.] HARRISBURG, March 7.—The delegates to the Republican State Convention assembled in the Hall of the House of Representatives at 12 o'clock to-day, and were called to order by the Hon. John Cessna, Chairman of the State Central Committee. Mr. Lawrence of Washington county, moved that William B. Mann, of Philadelphia, act as temporary

Mr. O. S. Dickey, of Lancaster, moved to amend by substituting Lewis W. Hall, of Huntingdon. The substitution was agreed to, yeas 80, nays 57.
_Mr. Hall was then declared elected temporary Chairman,and upon being conducted to,the chair thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him. E. R. Rogers, H. B. Swope, J. P. M'Clellan and W. J. P. White, were appointed temporary Secretaries.

Gen. Todd of Cumberland, moved that a committee of five on credentials be appointed-which was agreed to. The Hon. Edward McPherson and other representatives from the Loyal Union League of Washington, D. C., were on mo-tion, accorded the courtesy of seats in the Convention. A committee equal in numbers to the Senatorial representation was appointed on permanent organization. A committee equal in number to the Senatorial representation was also appointed on resolutions. A motion having prevailed that all resolutions be referred to the above committee, Mr. Cessna moved that the functions of said committee be continued during the entire session of the convention, after considerable debate, was agreed to, and the Convention adjourned till 5 P.M.

XXXIXTH CONGRESS-FIRST SECSION. Washington, March 7. SENATE—Mr. Wilson (Mass.) offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire what legislation is necessary to protect officers of the army from arrest and prosecution by the civil courts, for acts done in obedience to orders from superior officers while in the United States service.

Mr. Sprague (R. I.) offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to report a bill for the appointment of a Commission of two medical officers, one from the army and one from civil life, to examine the subject of cholera preventives, and to attend the cholera Congress in Europe.

Mr. Davis (Ky.) called up a resolution offered by him a few days since, calling for a committee to investigate the cotton frauds. He offered a substitute for his original proposition, providing for a standing committee of the Senate, on the subject of abuses of power, a majority of which shall be composed of Opposition Senators. Mr. Trumbull (Ill.) caused to be read a letter from Gen. Brayman, in reply to the accusation of official corruption made against him in a letter from William Burnet (Cin.) alleging Burnet to have been guilty of frauds at Natchez, and asking for a full investigation of the matter. At ten o'clock the constitutional amendment was taken up.

Mr. Sumner (Mass.) took the floor. House.—On motion of Mr. Wilson (Iowa), the Senate bill in relation to the Court of Claims was taken from the Speaker's table read twice and referred to the Judiciary committee.

Mr. Eliot (Mass.), by unanimous consent, introduced a bill to continue in force and to amend the Freedmen's Bureau bill. Read twice and referred to the Judiciary committee.

Mr. Stevens (Pa.), from the Committee on Appropriations, reported a bill to reimburse ate of Pennsylvania for moneys ad vanced the Government for war purposes, and it was made the special order for Wednesdav next. On motion of Mr. Loan (Mo.), the Senate bill to reimburse the State of Missouri for moneys expended for the United States, in enrolling, equipping and provisioning the militia force to aid in suppressing the re-bellion was taken from the Speaker's table and referred to the Committee on Apropria-Mr. Francis Thomas (Md.), by unanimous consent, offered a resolution which was adopted, instructing the committee for the District of Columbia, to inquire into the expediency of providing for the construction of an aqueduct across the basin at the mouth of Rock Creek, to pass the water from the Chesapeake and Ohio canal into the Washington canal, and through it to the Eastern branch, near the Navy Yard, so that cargoes from loaded boats by the Chesapeake and Ohio canal may with facility be unloaded on the banks of the Washington canal and at the eastern branch, thus diminishing the cost of coal and other articles to the Government and to the citizens of Washington. Earne business of the committee for the District of Columbia, which was interrupted yesterday by the expiration of the morning hour, was taken up, and the bill to amend the act to incorporate the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of the District of Columbia was considered and passed.

Mr. Ingersoll (Ill.), from the District Committee, reported a joint resolution appropriating $2,500 to be placed in the hands of Col. Benton, commandant of the Washington Arsenal, and to be distributed by him among the sufferers by the late explo sion at that Arsenal, according to the equity and necessities of the several cases, and di-recting the said commandant to report to Congress the distribution with the youchers

The joint resolution received its several readings and was passed. Mr. Ingersoll, from the same Committee, reported back the House bill to incorporate the Great Falls Ice Company of the District of Columbia.
