INTERESTING CHESS MATCH.—We have the pleasure of announcing that a match has been arranged between Mr. Reichhelm and Captain Mackenzie, the champion of the New York Tournament. The match will commence, in New York, in a few days, and will be a very exciting contest.

___ The Reichhelm-Jellett match was resumed last Monday evening, and the score at present stands: Reichhelm, 4; Jellett, 4; Drawn, 2.

came the victor of the Tournament. — We extract the following from the St.

Catharines (C. W.) Constitutional: "With this issue we close our Chess Column; the object we had in view when com-mencing it being realized—which was, that Canada might have a paper that devoted a small space to the interests of the numerous admirers of the noble game residing in the Province. The Montreal Saturday Reader now publishes a column weekly, which we sincerely trust, may prove a permanent one. We sincerely thank those friends and contributors who assisted us so freely during our short existence."

"As a zealous, untiring, and enthusiastic advicate of the noble game, our friend Geo. Groves, its Chess editor, fully deserved support and success. We strongly surmise that his retirement from the columns of the Connis reurement from the columns of the Constitutional is disgust at the want of space allowed him in the aforesaid paper. Short-sighted journal proprietors think their columns are more embellished through rehashed yarns than through a well-conducted Chess Column. What an absurdity-even in a pecuniary point of view! No accounting for taste, however, as buffoonery will
