The Freedmen of South Carolina

Confirmations by the Senate.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Municipal Elections.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, is now on his way to Washington.

An order has been issued by the Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen's Affairs, at Charleston, in which it is said that grants of land to the freed people, in compliance with General Sherman's special orders, will be regarded as good and valid, while arrangements are to be made to accommodate the former owners on other land not otherwise appropriated.

The Senate has confirmed the following named Brigadier Generals to be Major Generals by brevet, for meritorious and gallant services during the late war, viz: Seth Williams, Samuel S. Carroll, John F. Hartranft, J. B. Kiddo, Joseph R. Hawley, Robert McCallister, John Ramsey, Stewart Van Vleet, Clinton B. Fiske and Wagner Stewart. Ninety-eight other brevets have been confirmed.

The bill to extend the time for withdrawing goods for consumption from the bonded warehouses having passed both Houses, only awaits the President's signature to become a law.

CITY BULLETIN.

A SERIES OF ASSAULTS.—Wm. Curtin, a rough customer who has recently been discharged from prison, was before Alderman White this morning upon the charges of drunkenness, assault and battery, &c. It seems that on the 20th of September last, Curtin went to the house of Mrs. Robson, No. 25 Strawberry street, while the lady was sitting up in the parlor and laid down. Mrs. Robson remonstrated with him whereupon he got up and knocked her down. On Saturday night last he went to the house of a man named Lougin upon the charge of drunkenness, assault and battery, &c. The barkeeper, a man named Lougin refused to give them to him. Curtin, it is alleged, then seized a pitcher which was upon the bar, and struck Lougin upon the head with it, causing serious wounds. On Sunday night he turned up in the neighborhood of the Fifth Ward station streets. He had two meals and started out without paying. Miss Wood remonstrated and then he struck her a violent blow with his fist falling her to the floor. The woman was arrested last evening at Sixth and Chestnut streets, and was taken to the Central Station. He was placed in the same cell with a German, and during the night he kicked the boots of his fellow prisoner and beat him over the head with them. Curtin was committed in default of $4,000 bail to answer the several charges.

STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED.—Last night a man was discovered at Juniper and South streets carrying twenty pairs of boots. A policeman gave chase, whereupon the fellow dropped the boots and escaped. The boots are at the Eighth Ward station house.

The Fifteenth Ward Police have a lot of rope which is supposed to have been stolen; also a quantity of wearing apparel, which was dropped by a thief on Wallace street last night.

WHOLESALE ARREST OF STREET WALKERS.—Last evening, between eight and twelve o'clock, the Fifth Ward police were engaged in arresting the low women who nightly walk about Washington square, to the great annoyance of respectable citizens. About forty in all were captured. Their ages ranged from 17 to 30 years. The prisoners were all arranged before Alderman Butler, this morning, and were sent to prison.

AN ADDITION TO CHURCH MEMBERSHIP.—On Sabbath last thirty-six persons united with the First Reformed Dutch Church, corner of Seventh and Spring Garden streets, Rev. J. H. Suydam, Pastor. With the exception of one, all were by certificate from other churches; and in part, an exodus comprising twenty-five individuals, came from the Second Dutch Church, Rev. W. Talmage, Pastor.

NEW RAILROAD TICKET OFFICE.—Westward bound travelers can procure tickets over the Pennsylvania Railroad, including the "Pan Handle route" at its other connections, at 631 Chestnut street. Baggage can be checked at this office, and every facility will be afforded to those desirous of reaching the West, the Southwest or the Northwest.

LARCENY.—A man named James Carr, was arrested yesterday, upon the charge of the larceny of some carpet from Fryer's store, on the Lancaster turnpike, near Thirty-ninth street. The carpet was dropped during the pursuit of the thief, and was recovered. Carr was committed by Alderman Allen.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.—Wm. Johnson was arrested yesterday upon the charge of malicious mischief. It is alleged that he threw a large paving stone through the window of a house. He was taken before Ald. Hutchinson and was held in $300 bail to answer.
