M., Columbian Guard, to the hall. An immense crowd accompanied them. General Robert Cowdin presided at the meeting, which was addressed by Pre-sident Roberts, General Sweeny, and the Fenian Senator Morrison of Kansas. The Speeches were animated and the Brether speeches were animated, and the Brother speeches were animated, and the Brother-hood were called upon to rise in their might and with General Sweeny strike on Cana-da. At the close of the meeting upwards of $10,000 in cash contributions were collected.

lected. Consolidation of the Canadian Forces. TORONTO, C. W., March 12.—The number of volunteers answering the call of the Go-vernment is largely in excess of the domand. The following official military order is published: The Commander-in-Chief regrets that he is compelled, as a measure of precaution, to LECTURE BY JUDGE KELLEY.—On Thurs-day evening, at Concert Hall, Hon. Wm. D. Kelley will lecture on "The Dangers and the Duty of the Hour," before the "Social, Civil and Statistical Association of the Colored People of Pennsylvania." The "Black Swan" will sing during the evening. This will be the sixth lecture of this popular course and it will probably draw the largest call for the service of so large a number of volunteers

This step does not result from the exist-This step does not result from the exist-ence of a condition of war between our sovereign and a foreign State, but it is a necessary performance of duty which has devolved upon the government, who are bound to make provision for protecting the lives and property of the inhabitants of the province against threatened piratical at-tacks of lawless men, who are using the ter-ritory of a neighboring power, for the pur-pose of organizing an enterprise against the sovereign rights of the Queen and the secu-rity of her subjects. rity of her subjects.

The Commander-in-Chief relies with confidence on the loyal spirit of the Canadians to meet the extraordinary state of facts, and feels assured that if necessary the entire population of the Provinces will come forward and face any invasion of the country. The Commander-in-Chief knows that it is not necessary to address any observation to the officers and men called out on the the officers and men called out on the importance of strict attendance to their mili-tary duty, and is convinced that should the threats of attack be carried into effect, the Canadian volunteers of the present day will, with the blessing of God, meet with as much success in repelling such a criminal and wanton outrage against humanity and civilization as was given their ancestors, whether they were called upon to roll back from their territories the tide of legitimate war, or repulse attacks of le of legitimate war, or repulse attacks of lawless invaders.

lawless invaders. TORONTO, March 12, 9 A. M.—The follow-ing is the disposition of troops, so far as I can learn: Ten companies at Windsor and six at Sarnia; one regiment and one com-pany of artillery at Stanstead, C. E.; ten companies at Prescott; abont six hundred men and artillery at Rockville, making about four companies. The balance are held in reserve at Toronto, Hamilton, Lon-don, Kingston, Montreal and Quebec. A large force has been collected for the country and volunteering here. The troops were paraded and marched to church yesterday. In the Catholic churches Bishop Lynch's letter was read, and some priests called upon Catholics, for the sake of the peace of the city, not to walk on St. Patrick's day.

A large force has been collected for the defense of Ottawa. Vollunteers are pouring into all the interior towns. Much enthu-siasm is manifested, and recruiting is going on rapidly. Men are coming in from the country and volunteering here.

Parliament will meet during the second week in April. TORONTO, C. W., 12 P. M.—The Fenian excilement has somewhat subsided in this city, but still rages on the frontier in all its fury. Government has not relaxed its pre-parations to receive the invaders, at what-ever point they may show themselves. The city is still full of volunteers, who are com-

of a coat, valued at twenty-five dollars, and twenty dollars in money. Johanna Mc-twenty dollars in money. Johanna Mc-Kinley also loaned Nepp fifteen dollars on a check calling for $406. The worthless checks were all signed Capt. Ch. Smith, and the amount called for in each case was the same. The magistrate asked Nepp if he had anything to say, to which he replied, "It is all true." He was held, in default of $3,000 bail, to answer at court $3,000 bail, to answer at court.

CHARITABLE BEQUESTS. — The will of Rev. Cajetan Mariani, late pastor of the Italian church of St. Mary Magdalene of Pazzi, contains the following bequests: To Rt. Rev. James F. Wood, Roman Catholic Bishop of Philadelphia, in trust, all the real estate connected with the late church of the deceased; to the convent of Franciscans among politicians. It is rare that a muni-cipal election has caused so much interest among; the people, who at an early hour thronged the polls and street corners "button-holing" every one that might chance to pass, in order to get a vote. Within a year or two past each Ward has been divided into two precincts, thus giving six election polls instead of three, as for-merly, and the consequence is a better opportunity is afforded for political workers to operate. At the municipal election in to operate. At the municipal election in March, 1865, there were 2,000 votes polled in the city, and at the election in the following November there were 2,696. From the ear-nestness with which the friends of the various candidates commanced their multineetness with which the friends of the various candidates commenced their work this morning it is quite evident that an in-creased vote will be polled, but that the National Union Party will triumph on their city ticket there is scarce a doubt. In Middle Ward the Democrats may succeed with one or two of their nominees, but the election as a whole will be strongly against them. The number of candidates running is so great that it will be late to-morrow morning before the entire result can be morning before the entire result can be known.

SNEAK THIEVING.—The practice of sneak-thieving is on the increase in Camden, and during a few weeks past several families have suffered by the operations of those who practise it. Different articles of cloth-ing have been taken from the aptries of who practise it. Different articles of cloth-ing have been taken from the entries of various dwellings, buckets and other things from the yards, and the mendicants have thus far escaped. Housekeepersshould be careful to keep their gates and doors se-curely fastened against such intruders. AN INQUEST.—Coroner Roberts yesterday afternoon held an inquest on the body of Michael Crimness, who was accidently killed on Saturday, by a heavy cask crush-ing him at the railroad depot. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts elicited in the examination.
