The commencement of the Medical session) came the University on at the Academy of Marie. The stream of the Medical session of the Stream of the Stream of the Stream of the Stream of Medical Stream of the Stream o the result, as this day exhibited, justified the foresignt of Professor Morgan, who in his first address at the collegiate commencement of 1766, used these prophetic words:

"Perhaps this institution, the first of its kind in America, though small in its beginning, may receive a constant accession of strength and annually exert new vigor. It may collect a number of young persons of more than ordinary abilities, and so improve their knowledge as to spread its reputation to distant parts; give birth to other useful institutions of a similar nature, or create by its example societies of different kinds calculated to spread the light of knowledge through the whole American continent."

Need 1, in this city, and in the presence of those who grace our ceremonies on this occasion, recall, as evidence of the continuous influence of the first tution, the names of its former Professors; and those who though dead yet live in their works? Who, wen in this generation, does not recognize the social indicate developed by such men as shippen, Kuhm, Rush, Wistar, Dorsey, Physick, James, Chapman, Horner, and Hare; to say naught of those who, though passed the zenith of their renown, yet shed the mellowed rays of the setting sun upon the exence of their former labors? "May we not on this occasion also justly recall the fact that our Alma Mater has been the parent of most of the medical schools of our country; and may I not in behalf of my colleagues, the representatives of the spreen old age of the University, point with satisfaction to the class of this our 106th Session—a class that in numbers is within eight of the largest ever assembled in its halls—and this notwithstanding the embarrassed social condition of a large portion of our country? When we note the fact that among them are representatives of nearly every one of our own States and Territories, of the British Provinces as well as of England, France, and the West Indies; when we mark the annually increasing intelligence of our own graduates, when we besit to add to the coming connected with so ancient and honorable a fraternity. That you are likely to add to the laurels already gained by its Alnumi, is attested by your position.

The present occasion will ever be to you a memorable one. From this hour you start on that lifelong journey which will terminate favorably or otherwise, in accordance with the principles which you may hereafter assume as the guiding stars of your course. Surrounded as you now are by bright eyes and warm hearts, by those whose interest in your welfare has drawn together this brilliant assembly, it is natural that your minds should be filled with generous impulses and your ambition be gratified by the gems that seem within your grasp.

After vividity portraying the general relations of the physician to society and his influence upon the domestic happiness of every individual, the Professor impressed upon the new graduates their duties towards their professional brethren as shown in the extension to them of every idea or discovery that their future experience might prove to be a valuable addition to the great storeheuse of facts accumulated for the relief of their fellow creatures. "In the medical profession no private right to a beneficial discovery is recognized and no honorable physician claims for his own special advantage any improvement. In mercantile life thrade marks of each firm is secured to them by law; the secret of every manufacufacturer is for his own special advantage any improvement of every manchine is first for the benefit of the inventor, and so it should be. The chief regulating principle of Commerce is the honest accumulation of riches; the greatest good which it accomplishes, the distribution among the masses of that capital which secures them food and clothing. In the dissemination of charity Commerce is also highly useful, even though its standard of usefulness is calculated by dollars and cents. But in Commerce any one if possessed of a medium in tellect, may have wit enough to make a dollar and hence a supply of money cannot be

HOMEOPATHIC COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIE-HOMEOPATHIC COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIR-TY.—A Convention of all the Homeopathic physicians of this city, and the old county, was called together last week, in the lecture room of the Dental College, for the purpose of organizing into a medical body. The Hall was filled with medical gentlemen, and the various topics concerning a permanent Society of this character were fully discussed. The meeting was harmonious and one of great interest to the Homeopathic profession. The Convention resolved itself into a County Medical Society, and adopted a constitution and by laws for its government. Many of the States have already formed Homeopathic State Medical Societies, and a convention for that purpose has been called for Pennsylvania, to meet in Pittsburgh some time in June.

LEHIGH AND SCHYLKILL COAL .- We call very particular attention to the advertisement of W. L. Foulk, No. 1817 Callowhill street. The advertiser, formerly a gallant lieutenant in the army, has established a coal yard, and is prepared to deliver at the lowest prices, the very best quality of Lehigh and. Schuyikill coal, carefully screened and picked. Mr Foulk's lots are chosen from the finest veins, such as the "Shawnee," the "Kagle," &c.; and he has always a full stock on hand. All orders through the postoffice or given at the yard will be promptly, attended to. ALLEGED ARSON.—Before Alderman leitler yesterday afternoon. William H. Brown was charged with arson. It appears that the acoused and person mamed Ellis are engaged in the retail dry roods business, on North Bighth street. On Saturday evening last, shortly before asyen o'clock, a fire was discovered in the cellar of the store, which was extinguished before much damage had been done. Fire Marshal Blackburn testified that he had made a thorough examination of the premises, and from all appearances, he was satisfied that the place had been set on fire; that the firm had an insurance of $4,500 on stock, and $500 on fixbures, in the Spring Garden Fire Insurance Company; that their lease expired on the day of the fire; the stock of goods on hand, had been much reduced, and apparantly $2,000 would fully cover the value of the same; they had disposed of the fixtures, which were valued at $500 for $35. Mr. Ellis, Brown's partner, was in Haddonfield N. J., at the time of the fire, and the latter had entire charge of the store; the fire in the cellar was directly under the stativay, and had evidently been amouldering for some time before it was discovered; the store had been closed about twenty minutes or half an hour before the smoke was seen issuing from the windows and roof.

The accused was held to $3,000 ball to answer. ALLEGED ARSON. - Before Alderman

SCHOOL HOUSE ON FIRE-PANIC AMONG SCHOOL HOUSE ON FIRE—FAND ANDAY
THE CHILDREN.—The school house at Susquehanna avenue and Apple street was slightly damaged by fire through the accidental upsetting of a stove. A panic ensued among the children, and for a short while they were ungovernable. One of the teachers fainted, and had to be carried to her home. The excitement spread like wildfire throughout the neighborhood, and parents ran dis ractedly hither and thither, searching for their little ones. Quiet was at length restored, and, as far as known, no one was injured in the fright.

THE RINDERPEST.—The Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association held its annual meeting ing last evening. Dr. Jennings in the chair. The meeting was largely attended. After the election of Dr.T. J. Corbyn and J. C. Higgins as members, an interesting debate ensued on the disease known as inderpest. It seemed to be agreed upon by the association, and the members were free to say that from all the information they could obtain. the disease had not yet made its appearance in the fistate of Pennsylvania.

A QUEER PENALTY,—A Pittsburgh adderman has given a novel and somewhat singular judgment in the matter of a man brought before him. He consented to discharge the case on the defendant depositing with him five dollars—by way of subscription toward placing a clock on the German Catholic Church in the Fifth Ward—begging pardon of the presecutor and paying the costs. These conditions the defendant compiled with, and was released from custody. It would not be a bad idea for Philadelphia aldermen to impose on certain hardened offenders the penalty of not being able to buy their coal of W. W. Alter, No. 87 North Ninth street. Mr. Alter also has an office at Sixth and Spring Garden streets.

Pure and Healthy Blood Resists Disease.

And whild there may be no occasion for alarm, those of impure blood are most liable to suffer.

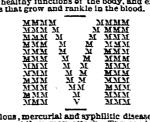

IN THE SPRING MONTHS the system naturally undergoes a change, and HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILL LA I an assistant of the greatest value. GIVING BLOOM TO THE PALLID CHEEK BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

IT ERADICATES ERUPTIVE and ULCERA-TIVE DISEASES of the THEOAT, NOSE, EYES, EYALIDS, SCALP and SKIN, which so disfigure the appearance, PURGING the evil effects of mercury and removing all taints, the remnants of DISEASES hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by ADULTS and CHILDREN with perfect SAFETY.

NOT A FEW of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from that accumulates in the blood. Of all of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, n ne can equal in effect. Helmboid's Compound Extract of Earsaparilla. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instils the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood.

Scrofulous, mercurial and syphilitic diseases destroy whatever part they may attack. Thousands die annually from protracted diseases of this class, and from the abuse of mercury. Visit any hospital, asylum and prisons, and satisfy yourself of the truthfulness of the assertion. The system best resists the inroads of these diseases by a judicious combination of Tonics.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FAUGURE EXTRACT

is a Tonic of the greatest value—arresting the most inversate disease after the glands are destroyed, and the bones already affected. This is the testimony of thousands who have used and prescribed it for the last 16 years.

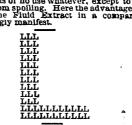

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in th AN INTERSTING LETTER is published in the M-dico-Chirurical Review, on the subject of the extract of sarsaparilla in venereal affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of Syphilis, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states. "That no remedy is equal to the extract of Sursaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is in the strictest sense a tonic with this throulable, attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as renears other substances of the tonic class unavailable or night in the stricts.

TWO TABLESPOONFULS of the Extract of Sar saperilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallou of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually of the Sytup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The decoction is exceeding troublesome, as it is necessary to prepare it fresh every day, and the syrup is still more objectionable as it is weaker than the decoction; for a fluid saturated with sugar is susceptible of holding in solution much less extractive matter than water alone, and the syrup is otherwise objectionable, for the patient is frequently nauseated, and his stomach surfeited by the large proportion of sugar he is obliged to take with each dose of Sarsaparilla, and which is of no use whatever, except to keep the decoction from spoiling. Here the advantages and superiority of the Fluid Extract in a comparative view are strikingly manifest.
