PEACE. BY L. D. BARBOUR. Peace's wings supreme! all ended in the strife. For gallant hands have saved the nation's life. Where cannon shot once plowed the bloody field. The rippling grain the bounteous harvest yield. Our flag again floats o'er a land prolific. And thoughts of war give way to bliss pacific. Again rich laden ships in safety glide. Adorn the Mississippi's mighty tide. Lovers redeem in joy the vows once plighted. And in their union bless the States united. Returned to safety from the carnage dire. The soldier will to peaceful arts aspire. Will doff his suit of blue and warlike gear. And in the garb of peace again appear. While thanking fortune and his lucky stars. ADVERTISING. THE NEW ORLEANS MAYORALTY. The Southern people, who profess to be so anxious for reconstruction, are constantly showing their love for the Union and their fitness for reconstruction, by electing to important offices the bitter enemies of the national government. In New Orleans, lately, John T. Monroe was elected Mayor of the city. He has been and still is an outspoken secessionist, and he was probably chosen on this account. But President Johnson, we are glad to see, has directed Gov. Wells to withhold his credentials from him, and the people of New Orleans will have to elect a Mayor who is not disloyal.

THE POLITICAL PROSPECT. The recent elections that have taken place in various parts of the country show that the National Union party has lost none of its strength. In New Hampshire, where the Democracy made extraordinary exertion, they have produced but slight effect upon the large Union majority of last year. The local elections in New Jersey show increasing Union strength in that State, and in various other Northern States like results are observed.

JUDGE KELLEY ON "THE DANGERS AND DUTIES OF THE HOUR." One of the ablest orators which has been delivered since the close of the war and the initiation of the great question of reconstruction, is that of Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, given at Concert Hall last evening. The audience was very large and particularly intelligent, and the forcible and eloquent sentiments of the speaker seemed to meet the cordial approval of every hearer. Judge Kelley, of course, took what is called "radical" ground, and did not hesitate to express his sentiments in reference to President Johnson very freely, after having given a very animated and interesting account of the political career of the President previous to his recent veto message. It would be going too far to say that we entirely endorse Judge Kelley's opinions throughout, but we can sincerely say, that as he expressed them last night, they will attract attention in all portions of the country.

GETTING ON FAST. When the South Carolina Secession Convention was in session the Hon. Fernando Wood, then Mayor of Gotham, sent a message to the Board of Aldermen, recommending that New York city should secede and set up for herself, and instancing the free cities of Hamburg, Bremen, Frankfurt and the like, as evidences of the successful working of the free city system. In respect to the Fenian movement New York is displaying its usual promptness, and unless President Johnson is particularly quick upon the trigger in recognizing the Irish Republic when the latter is set up, Gotham will get ahead of him and accord belligerent rights to the embryo Eibernian empire before its existence is known at Washington. To-morrow there is to be a grand demonstration in honor of St. Patrick and Fenianism. The Board of Aldermen of the Commercial Metropolis, are not insensible of the fact, nor are they unappreciative of its importance; for at their meeting on Wednesday last they passed a resolution requesting a general suspension of business and the closing of the courts upon the occasion, and ordering a display of flags upon the public buildings in honor of the day. The preamble to the resolution is as follows: "Whereas, Saturday next, the 17th of March, being the anniversary of the birthday of the Patron Saint of Ireland, is to be celebrated by a grand civic and military procession of our fellow citizens of Irish birth, including those who are engaged in an effort the most laudable and patriotic, looking to the restoration of down-trodden and unhappy Ireland to that freedom which is her natural right, and for which her sons through centuries of tyranny and oppression have striven and signed for in vain, and

Considering the fact that a regiment of New York State militia, wearing State uniforms and bearing State muskets, is to take part in this same Fenian demonstration, it will be conceded that New York is getting on fast towards recognition. If Sir Frederick Bruce does not deem the matter of sufficient importance to warrant a special communication to Mr. Seward, he might at least suggest that the present name of the metropolis is a misnomer. Its cognomen has been changed frequently, and one more reform in Gothamite nomenclature would do it no harm. The original Hollandish settlers dubbed their town New Amsterdam, and when the doughty English banded out the old Dutch burghers and brought to grief the Stuyvesants, the Knickerbockers, the Von Twillers and the Van Dams, they changed the name of the town to New York, in honor of the brother Charles II. In 1673, when the Van Dams and the rest of them got the upper hand of the English, and in turn drove them off the Battery into the sea, or somewhere else, they changed the name to New Orange. The Dutch had squeezed out of sight, and York was put in its stead. Under the circumstances it is at about time for another change, and Sir Frederick Bruce aforesaid might suggest New Cork. It would only be a difference of a single letter, but it would be sufficient to indicate the altered population and rule of the town.

ENGLAND'S TROUBLES. What with the Fenian scare, the Jamaica horrors, the New Zealand war, and the demands of the United States Government and other matters, Great Britain has her hands full at present. A new cause of uneasiness was betrayed in the House of Commons, on the 2d inst., when Mr. Gregory moved an address to the Queen in favor of establishing the principle that private property at sea should be free from capture. He said it was almost suicidal for England to allow things to remain as they are, for in the event of war she might lose her entire carrying trade. After some debate, the motion was withdrawn, the measure being considered impracticable. This Mr. Gregory was one of the bitter enemies of our Government during the late war. He did all he could to encourage the rebel privateers in their capture and destruction of private property at sea, and he and his friends approved of protecting in British ports the captors of this private property. Now, when there is danger of England's being involved in a war, he sees that the English toleration of the rebel cruisers may serve as a precedent to be followed by the belligerent power. It seems to be admitted, by the withdrawal of the motion, that England has no right to assert the right proposed by Mr. Gregory. She is prevented from doing it by her own conduct during our rebellion.
