you groaning after it? Commit the person groaning to the acceptance of that special throng of sanctification which declares that ordinarily those who are born of God are not clean from all sin, until they have sought, distinctly and separately, for that blessing?

Respectfully, A. T. SCOTT, JOHN BAZEL, Rev. Jos. Mason, objects upon the ground that the foundations of the Church upon that subject were settled, and need not be disturbed, therefore he moved to lay it upon the table, which was carried.

Notices were given, and the Conference adjourned with the Benediction, by Rev. Mr. Dunn, of England.

SINGULAR CASE OF EMBEZZLEMENT AND BURGLARY.—A young man named Wm. R. Mitchell, was before A. J. Bell, yesterday afternoon, upon the charge of having broken into the notions store of Messrs. Hess, Rodgers & Chambers, No. 411 Market street, on the 7th inst.

Mr. Jacob S. Hess, a member of the firm, testified that Mitchell was employed for three years past as book-keeper in the store of the firm, and that everything pertaining to money matters was left in his hands.

The prisoner was enjoying the full confidence of the firm, within about a month before the robbery, discovered that an entry had not been made in the cash-book, which had received some money, and on questioning Mitchell about it, he said he had forgotten to enter it. After the robbery, the firm suspected Mitchell for committing the offense, and from the fact that some of the leaves of their books were torn out and burned on the night of the robbery, they were induced to make an examination of the cash-book.

The firm had since March, 1864, the books have not been properly kept, and that they have been robbed of about $7,000. On April 14th, 1864, they find in the cash-book, a list of bills paid to a certain firm $698.62, and in transferring the same to the general cash-book the entry is made, and charged to the merchandise.

The firm did not receive any money. A number of other false entries were made, but only a few of them were produced in evidence. The store was entered on the night of March 7th, and $265 in greenbacks, a $50 bond, compound interest notes to the sum of $400, $104 in gold, valuable goods and many of the bills to the value of $400 were stolen. The prisoner had the key of the safe.

Detective Tiggart testified that he made an examination of the safe at the store, on the morning after the robbery. He came to the conclusion that the "job" was not done by a professional; the safe had been opened by either the original key or a key taken by impression; the trace for entering the building had been left behind; one end of it contained a speck of blood, and on arresting the prisoner his thumb was found to be slightly out and a little blood on it.

Several other witnesses were examined, who testified to seeing the prisoner on the night of the 7th inst., between 8 and 9 o'clock, on Market street; he had two visits to the front of the store, but did not go in.

The accused was committed in default of $10,000 bail for trial.

SAINTE PATRICK'S DAY.—The natal day of the patron Saint of Ireland will be observed to-morrow in the usual manner by the natives of the Emerald Isle.

In the forenoon Grand Pontifical Mass will be celebrated at Saint Patrick's church, by the Right Rev. Bishop Wood; the Panegyric of the Saint will be preached by the Rev. Chas. King, one of the Jesuit Fathers who have just given the mission at that church. The choir, which is now of the best in the city, will perform Hayden's Grand War Mass.

In the afternoon there will be a demonstration by the Fenian Brotherhood at National Hall on Market street. A flag presentation and speeches by a number of prominent gentlemen are included in the proceedings.

In the evening, at the Academy of Music, Very Rev. Dr. Moriarty, O. S. A., will deliver an oration for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd, this is his last tour in Ireland: The Apostle, The Nation, The Faith.

THE MANNERCHOR MASKED BALL.—The private ball, of the Mannerchor, given to the honorary and contributing members of the Society, at the Musical Fund Hall, last evening, was a very successful affair. The attendance was fair and the participants all enjoyed themselves.

BEFORE STREET MISSION.—The thirteenth annual meeting of this institution was held, last evening. The report of the managers shows that during the year the mission has been greatly prospered, and that the managers in consequence had purchased a plot of ground adjoining their present building, measuring 30 by 120 feet, on which they intend to erect a building for the better accommodation of the recipients of this charity. A flourishing Sunday School is attached to the mission. There is also a day school, numbering about 200 pupils. This school has four teachers, who receive pay for their services. The meeting was addressed by Rev. A. Cookman and Rev. James Neill.

A MISCHIEVOUS CHILD.—A colored girl, employed as a domestic in a house No. 707 Cowhill street, was arrested yesterday, under the direction of Fire Marshal Beck, upon the charge of having fired the premises twice during the day. A wash-tub was set on fire in the morning and had in the same room in the afternoon. No serious damage was done, however. The prisoner was locked up for a hearing. The reason she assigned for her conduct, was, that she was tired of living in the family and wanted to go home.

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES.—In accordance with the general belief that the Asiatic cholera is spreading in this country, and that the present summer, the proper authorities of Camden seem to be determined to put the city in as clean and healthful condition as possible. Many parts of the city are being washed with mud and garbage which have accumulated during the winter, and in South Ward stagnant pools of water lie in low lots only waiting the hot summer to become a pestilence for their mephitic exhalations to engender disease and death.

CULVERT BROKEN.—A portion of the culvert on Mickle street fell in yesterday, and unless it is repaired, the water will overflow that street which will again be flooded with water. This culvert is but a small wooden concern and needs replacing with a new and substantial brick building, a new one being under way on the building of a new one has been passed for over a year, but the authorities have neglected to commence the work, although the property owners have already been ready to pay their respective assessments for it the moment the work is completed.

CONFERENCE.—The New Jersey Annual Conference will commence its sessions in the Third Street Church, on Wednesday next, and will probably continue for a week or ten days. There is considerable interest in the proceedings, and the members of that persuasion are engaged in making preparations to accommodate the ministers and others in attendance from distant parts of the State, and the continuation of the Conference some very interesting meetings are expected to be held.

NEW DWELLING HOUSES.—On Third street, above Penn, Camden, five new and elegant houses are nearly completed, and on Second street, above Cooper, six more are soon to be erected, one of which has already been commenced. These will be the most complete and elegant manor.

CURIOS HEN'S NEST.—A young lad named Edwin Erickson, while hunting for hens' nests under a barn, a few days ago, at Barnyard, came across a nest containing nearly a hundred dollars in greenbacks. It is thought that the money had been stolen and hid away there for safe-keeping, and to avoid detection.

THE ORATOR.—Some considerable interest is manifested concerning the organization of the City Council to-night. The official returns of the election will then be published, and the ordinary business of the Council will be transacted.

MARLTON.—The M. E. Church at Marlton, Burlington county, has, within the last few months, more than doubled its membership, a noteworthy revival having prevailed at that place.

THE RECENT BURGLARY.—No traces of the perpetrators of the robbery at Mr. John Morgan's office, on Wednesday morning, have yet been obtained. The thieves made a successful escape.
