THE FENIANS.

The Canadian Scare--Mr. Seward Quietir a the Fears of the Kanucks---St. Patrick's Day to be Celebrated by the Hibernians in Toronto -- Great Excitement in Montreal--10,000 Troops Expected from England Within Ten Days---The St. Patrick's Parade Forbidden by the Authorities.

[Correspondence of the New York Herald.] TORONTO, March 167 1866.—The announcement that Secretary Seward promises the British Minister to permit no violation of neutrality by the Fenians causes much rejoicing, and the report that the United States government is sending troops to the Ameri-can frontier is believed to be evidence of her intention to prevent raids upon a friendly Notwithstanding that St. Patrick's Society has decided to make no demonstration to-morrow, about one thousand Hibernians to-morrow, about one thousand Hibernians will turn out unarmed, and it is believed that peace will be preserved. A volunteer arrested yesterday for threatening to fire into the procession to-morrow is to be court martialed to-day.

The Watchman announces the intention of the government to suppress Irish Canadian newspapers for alleged disloyal utterances. Volunteering is going on with spirit. The railway officials still observe all precautions for the safety of their rolling stock. The Watchman asserts that the Hibernian societies will walk to-morrow with banners bearing objectionable language. It ealls

The city has large acquisitions to its inhabitants from the interior, some of whom are Catholics, others Orangemen. Both parties are gathering their clans, and it is possible blood may be shed.

The Montreal Despatch.

Montreal, March 16.—The government has just received a letter from an official in Windsor, C. W., stating that the Mayor of Detroit had informed him that he had caused an inquiry to be made into the extent of the Fenian movement in that city, and discovered there was likelihood of an attack from that point.

The government has also been notified that the American government is sending troops to Buffalo to prevent any attack from that quarter.

I am just informed by an officer of the Royal Engineers that orders were sent to England five weeks since for ten thousand troops, to be landed at Halifax, and who will march from thence to New Brunswick, where the vulnerable point is feared to be. These troops are expected in ten days, and on their arrival, New Brunswick, it is considered, will be safe. The ships of war very much abated. The Montrealers generally believe that the Roberts and Sweeny faction must give their supporters some thing for their money, but that the attack will be in the Upper Province and in New Brunswick, but not here at Quebec. They deem it utter madness to attempt the capture of either of these cities. They are however, actively arming so that they may guard the city in the event of the troops and volunteers being needed elsewhere.

The Flag of the Free Fenians.

The World has this morning an engraving of the ensign of the Irish Republic—the national flag to be carried by the Fenians in the van of their armies of liberation. As the van of their armies of liberation. As the design of the Fenian leaders is to mold the Irish Republic as nearly as possible upon the model of the United States, they have been careful, in deciding upon their standard, to retain as many of the distinc-tive features of the American flag as pos-sible. The flag may be described thus: A white harp on a green field; thirteen lat-oral stripes seven red and six white. The eral stripes, seven red and six white. The difference between the Fenian flag and the United States flag consists in the substitution in the former of a harp for the thirty-six stars, and of a green for the blue field. The length of the ensign is one-third greater than its breadth. Those who have seen the flag pronounce it a very handsom one; and it is quite probable that the Irish Americans of the United States will soon have an opportunity of seeing how it passes through its first baptism of fire and blood. The Fenian leaders have endeavored to keep their flag in concealment until the preparations for publicly throwing it to the breeze were completed; but as that hour has so nearly approached, no harm can be done by giving a fac simile.

A correspondent of the World writes from Ottawa, Canada, March 14, as follows: —Give us but another week of such rainy weather as we have had to-day and we shall care very little for your Fenian crowd. A week's good thaw will make it unsafe to cross the St. Lawrence on the ice and with so broad a river between us and them, covering two-thirds of assailable frontier, we can snap our fingers at them. Are we to have that much breathing time? Is the bold Sweeny going to let his oppor-Is the bold Sweeny going to let his oppor-tunity slip? Are we to have called our our militia for naught, and to have spent a couple of hundred thousand dollars in fighting a phantom? We shall probably know all this before this letter, printed, travels back again to Ottawa.

The information upon which the Canadian government has acted in mobilizing a large body of volunteers is very precise. One may laugh at the Fenians in public, but every one here talks very seriously about them in private, by ne means echoing the light jeers of some of our New York scribes you had real men at the head of your affairs we might feel less anxiety, but we don't believe you have. When will your people learn that there is something in true politics greater than smartness, something more estimable than snappishness, something more to be respected even than physical strength and pecuniary resources Your government once was a dignified government—nay, it long continued so, but it seems to have lost that character now, at least in the estimation of the people on this side of your Northern frontier. Strong you are in men and means. You have no end of monster cannon and repeating rifles and five-twenty bonds and greenbacks. You are a determined and persistent people, too, going towards your ends with a fine directness in many things. But you do not inspire your neighbors with confidence, and your administration lacks that moral force which many of the governments of Europe high many of the governments of Europe have To what end (you, Mr. Editor, may well ask,) all this objurgation, which with a sublime coolness you areasked to print and pay for? That is just what I am coming to. Mr. Seward says the Fenians will not be allowed to invade our country. Sir, there's not a man in Canada believes he's earnest; that is, earnest after the good oid fashion of our mutual fore-fathers, whose yea meant yea and their nay, nay. Our government, as I told you, have precise; information of the Fenian movements. It is strange, but it is true, that wherever you have half a dozen Irish "patriots" you have at least one Irish "informer," and our detectives have no diffi-Mr. Seward says the Fenians will not be former," and our detectives have no diffi-culty in discovering the preparations the Finn McCoolians have made. The Cabinet Council here never meets without having at hand a detailed weekly, and often daily, report of the Fenian proceedings. Our Ministers have had the handling of Fenian cartridges taken by spies from the Fenian cartridges taken by spies from the Fenian depositories in your frontier cities. They have seen the Fenian bonds. Why, sir, if Mr. Seward be sincere, has he not stopped this business in the bud, where he could control it? Why did he not seize the plates when the bonds were being printed? Why does he not lay hands even now upon these bonds themselves? Why does he allow American uniforms to be disgraced by being worn at Fenian meetings? How, think you, can your Secretary of State thus neglect his duty and you as a people claim our respect? How is the matter personal to Mr. Seward? We are disposed to honor at least one of your representative men, the President; but is it true that he gave the countenance of an official reception to a Fenian delegation?

Many of the readers of the World will say that the United States don't care for Canadian opinion. True, you are thirty millions of people, and we are only three. You are strong, and we are weak, But strength has nothing to do with abstract right; and we stand your equals before the tribunal of the world at large, which takes cognizance of right and wrong, without respect of strength. But some of you will say—those of you to wit who, like Bancroft, fly the untamed American eagle without refly the untamed American eagle without regard to decency at all—that they don't care for the tribunal of the world. Then, sir, I shrug my shoulders. I know that I am but a dwarf, and that I stand face to face with a huge giant; but upon my soul I pity the giant, that I do! These considerations should be of more These considerations should be of more importance than a narration of mere facts. But you want facts too. Here they are then. Our government decided the other day that it was advisable to call out ten thousand volunteers. At 3 o'clock in the morning orders were issued from this city to the various militia officers, and at day-break that are thousand, were under correct. break the ten thousand were under arms. By night the government had declined the By night the government had declined the services of twenty thousand more. Two years ago this would have been impossible in Canada. Then we were in the habit of begging England to help us in everything. Now not a newspaper has thought of asking Great Britain to send us a single man. The volunteers are billeted out, and their duties as yet consist chiefly in guarding the bank from robberv. The cost to the Province is as yet consist chiefly in guarding the bank from robbery. The cost to the Province is about $10,000 a day.

Some day, sir, it is to be hoped the Sewards, the Thad. Stevenses, and Morrills will disappear from power. That day will not be far on the other side of the next census; it may be a good deal on this side of it, for the reign of contracted ideas like theirs may be brought to a sudden end at very short notice. When it comes, I hope it will not be found more difficult to restore cordial trade relations between you and us, than it where the vulnerable point is feared to be. These troops are expected in ten days, and on their arrival, New Brunswick, it is considered, will be safe. The ships of war Ariadne and Pylades are even how in the Bay of Fundy.

Sir Frederick Bruce has ordered the West India squadron to sail immediately for Halifax, with all the disposable troops in the West Indies. The excitement here has Particulars of the Recent Revolutionary Demonstration.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.] HAVANA, March 10, 1866.—The Sagua newspaper of the 5th inst. publishes the following regarding the late outbreak at Villa Clara, which I translate literally:

Our meritorious civil guard has just rendered an important service. It appears that a band of highwaymen, consisting of some lourteen or sixteen foolbardy individuals, armed with knives, cutlasses and muskets attempted a rising at Villa Clara, or some point in that district. Their intention apparently was to get up a sort of marauding expedition, and their suspicious proceed ings created considerable alarm in that peaceful section of the island. They made their first appearance in the Calabazal district; but information of their arrival having been received by Don Jose Hernandez Galvez, commanding the civil guard in that district, he immediately started in search of them with a portion of his force, and, supported by the lieutenant commanding at Cienfuentes, he came across them at point called Taguayabon, in the district of San Juan de los Remedios. Some shots were exchanged, and, finally, the civil forces succeeded in capturing twelve of the insurgents, among whom were Don Ventura, Rosell, Andres Lopez, Maximo Guerra, Antonio Rodriguez and Augustin Milian. They were taken to Remedios and duly delivered to the custody of the civil authorities to await trial. The parties implicated are stated to belong to the respectable class of society. Villa Clars, where the demonstration took its rise, is a town of considerable importance on the north side of Cuba, distant about ixty leagues from Havana. Its situation is favorable for a revolutionary movement, as the eastern portion of the island is the most mountainous and the most disaffected, being inhabited by a manly class of countrymen, termed greajiros. ANOTHER ACCOUNT. ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

(From the Prensa of March 1.)

The report which we copied yesterday from the Sagua, regarding the capture of a number of individuals suspected of being about to get up a marauding expedition, turns out to have been greatly exaggerated. The truth of the matter, as we have learned from sources worthy of credit, is as follows Some dozen or more individuals were drinking together in a tavern (bodega) when one of them, being excited by his potations, expressed himself in violent terms against the government, and a lieutent from Taguabez, who was present, rebuked the man, and, fearing that the dispute might end in violence, the civil guard were notified, who, meeting two of the party coming out of the tavern, arrested them for carrying arms without authorization, and after inquiring be names of the others they arrested them also and handed them over to the officers of justice at San Juan de los Remedios. Upon investigation it appears that the man whom the lieutenant had reproved is addicted to drunkenness, and in the habit of talking wild when under the influence of liquor, and that the others belong to the respectable class of society, having never offended against the laws.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin ] Washington, March 17 .- The Reconstruction Committee are in session to-day for the purpose of deciding upon a satisconstitutional amendment in regard to representation; one which the entire Union party can stand on.

Union party can stand on.

The friends of the loan bill are very sanguine to-day of being able to carry that measure on Monday. The vote, as sent North, was erroneous. It was 64 for and 70 against

Its fate, however, is exceedingly doubtful.
Mr. Romero, the Mexican minister, has not, as alleged, been before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, relative to the fifty million Mexican loan. The Ways and Means Committee are still unable io agree upon what articles shall go in the free list. They are in session again

In the freehet. They are in session again to day in regard to it.

The friends of the Tennessee resolution have, it is said, a positive assurance from the President that if it passes he will veto it.

The Excitement in Canada.

TORONTO, C. W., March 17.—It is reported that a United States revenue cutter is watching the Fenians off Ogdensburg. Large renforcements from England are expected shortly, including several regiments of cavalry.

At present there are about 10,000 regulars in Canada, besides 11,000 volunteers on duty.

There are at least 15,000 fully armed militia ready to move at a moment's notice, and 80,000 more could soon be made available.

The Government has an immense number of officers of veterans, well drilled to ead the militia.

There are a large number of volunteers at St. Johns and they are daily increasing. Some little excitement was occasioned on the Western frontier last night by noisy demonstrations in honor of St. Patrick.

The troops were under arms all night, but all is quiet to-day.

Fire at Buffalo.

[SECOND DESPATCH.] BUFFALO, March 17th .- A fire broke out in the New York Central Railroad Com-pany's freight depot in this city, at 6 o'clock this morning. The fire was caused by the watchman upsetting a can of kerosene oil near the stove.

The flames spread rapidly and communicated to the splendid elevator belonging te the Railroad Company. Both buildings were entirely destroyed, together with a large number of loaded cars in the depot and piles of freight. The freight depot was an immense structure. There were about 400,000 bushels of grain in the elevator, little or none of which was saved. The stock of grain was insured. The loss on the elavator, depot and freight, cannot now be correctly stated, but it is estimated at over a milion dollars. This loss will fall on the company, which

"The Children of the Commonwealth"-General Crawford's Letter.

The following letter of Gen. Crawford to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State, in reference to the orphan children educated by the Commonwealth, was received too late to be incorporated in the Legislative proceedings of yesterday:

HARRISBURG, PA., March 16, 1866 .- Hon. Jas. R. Kelley, Speaker of the House of Representatives—Sin: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the invitation of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania to the meeting of the Schools for the Orphan Children of our deceased Soldiers and Sailors, in the Hall of the House, today.

While it was my intention as well as my sincere wish to have participated with you upon this most interesting occasion, it will not now be in my power.

Sir, if the sight to-day does not appeal more eloquently than words can do to the heart of every man and every woman who loves and cherishes the honor of their native State, that heart must be cold, indeed. It must appeal in tones not to be mistaken for hat justice we are bound by every high and hat justice we are bound by every high and holy obligation to render.

Trusting, sir, that this great and noble charity, so honorable to us as a people, may be permanently and liberally secured.

I am sir, with great respect, your obedient servant,

S. WYLIE CRAWFORD,

Brevet Brigadier-General, U. S. A.

CITY BULLETIN.

ROBBERY.-A few days ago Mr. Robert Mercer's summer residence, near Hayer-ford, in the Twenty-fourth Ward, was entered and completely sacked of all its valuable contents, consisting of silk dresses, summer clothing, jewelry, silverware, &c. The thieves broke open all the bureaus, wardrobes and closets, and equipped them-selves upon leaving the premises in Mr. M's clothing. Most of the jewelry was marked with the family initials. Among the articles carried off weresome old family keepsakes, which were highly prized.
