CITY BULLETIN.

Proceedings of the Philadelphia Conference of the M. E. Church—Seventh-ninth Sessions.

SIXTH DAY.—Conference resembled this morning at the usual hour.

Rev. A. Caltin was granted an effective relation.

Rev. G. Barton was granted a superannuation relation without appointment.

The following was offered and passed:

Resolved, That this Conference endorse our brethren of the city of Camden tomorrow, an invitation to meet in a session here, to be held at the Union M. E. Church, in this city, on next Wednesday afternoon, in order to confer with them.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to convey fraternal greetings to the new session conference, and make all the necessary arrangements for the proposed meeting.

The Committee to carry out the above is as follows:—

Ed. J. D. Pepper, J. Cunningham, Adam Wallace, D. W. Bartine, T. A. Forney, Wm. J. Paxson.

An election by ballot for a trustee of the Education Fund was held. C. Heiskell, Esq., was declared elected.

A resolution of thanks was adopted to Rev. Jos. Castle, D. D., for the excellent centenary sermon preached yesterday, and a copy of it was requested for publication.

Rev. S. Runkling, of New Jersey Conference, and Rev. Mr. Albert, of the Lutheran church, were introduced.

S. S. Groves was admitted as a deacon and member of the body.

Rev. Dr. Porter, book agent at New York, addressed the Conference on the interests of the book concern. He stated that the sales of books are greater than ever before, but the profits are less than in the times of low prices.

The cost of all materials in the making of books has so greatly increased, that the prices charged, though higher than before, are not anything like so much in advance as the cost of making the books.

In the course of his address, he said that if men would read Kidder's Homilies, they would find therein not scraps and skeletons, but great principles. The biographies of the old preachers, and the old standards, were also earnestly commended. He attributed his early Methodist bias to the reading of the "Doctrinal Tracks" of Fletcher's Church. He said that he could be taught to shout, which is a good thing, but you cannot make them strong members, which is a better thing, unless you can persuade them to read.

Rev. J. L. Houston was granted a superannuation relation.

Rev. J. Turner was continued in the same relation, subject to any change which may be hereafter made against him, growing out of business transaction heretofore had.

Rev. W. Kenney, D. D., made a feeling address to his ministerial brethren in reference to his failing health, and the sorrow that filled his heart in being compelled to retire at least for a time. He expressed the hope that he might at once cease to work and live in the presence of his dear Lord, but must suffer awhile he must submit. He loved the work of the ministry and if he had his life to live over again he should devote himself to the lowly employ of which he had spent 35 years in calling sinners to repentance.

After several gentlemen had remarked in reference to this beloved minister, he was granted a superannuation relation without an appointment.

Rev. Charles F. Shepherd was located at his own request, which was made on account of circumstances over which he had no control.

Leave was granted James Strong, Esq., L. L. D., of New York, to address the Conference on the subject of Lay Delegation. He opened his remarks by reading an address from a Convention on Lay Delegation in the General Conference held in St. George's Church, two years ago. Dr. Strong dwelt largely upon the merits of the question. He stated that the Laity are divided upon the subject.

A large number who earnestly desire this measure to be adopted have spoken out boldly in favor of Lay Delegation and are still speaking.

Another class among the laity are strongly opposed to it.

A third class are not decided in their feelings and connections upon the question. They have not yet pronounced their views. They take no interest with the subject.

The General Conference, has expressed itself in favor of opening its door to the laity just as soon as the laity of the Church desires the measure.

He asked the co-operation of the members of Conference in bringing about the measure. He asked the concurrence of the Conference in the action of the General Conference, and, thirdly, he asked the Conference to invite the laity cordially to enter the General Conference. Petitions are being circulated in favor of the adoption of the proposed delegation.

Rev. T. T. Tasker, a respected local minister of this city, also addressed the body in favor of the measure.

Rev. Dr. Porter (N. Y.), by request, addressed the Conference upon the subject, and took very strong and decided grounds against the measure. He stated that he had gone years ago though the subject, and was as prayerfully, honestly and sincerely opposed to it as he is a Methodist. He contended that it could not be done without repudiating several important principles of Methodism.

The feeling during the delivery of this address was very high on the part of both parties.

Rev. P. Coombe followed, and by permission S. Halstead, Esq., of New York, made some remarks touching the matter.

Rev. Dr. Hodgson addressed the Conference upon the question, after which, it on motion, adjourned, with the benediction from the Rev. G. Hughes, of New York, at 12 o'clock.
