INSUBANCE,

The Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of the Bank for Savings in the city of New York vs. M. B. Field, has de-cided that the said bank is liable to pay the tax of one twenty-fourth of one per cent, each month upon the average amount of deposits of money held by it, &c. The liability of all similar institutions to pay said tax is thereby determined beyond further, controversy, and you will please to notify all savings banks and saving in-stitutions in your district that have not made complete returns and paid the tax thereon, to this effect. An immediate and strict compliance with the law must now be insisted on, and in case of further refusal you will proceed as instructed in Circular connected with those early days. The United States Consul at La Rochelle,

The United States Consult at La Rochelle, France, in his despatches to the Department of State, dated Fab. 20, recommends that a rigid quarantine be enforced against all vessels from the ports of Caen, Brest, La Rochelle and Bordeaux. He, says the cholera appears to be moving along the western coast of France and is now at the Sable d'Olonne, and from present appear-ances he thinks it will pass along the coast and through La Rochelle and Bordeaux into Spain.

Spain. The Consul at Candia, in the Grecian Islands, having had considerable experience in connection with the cholers, gives to the Government several suggestions for the im-provement of quarantine. He recommends that vessels take on board, at the pert of de-parture, health officers, sworn by and re-with the approval of our Consul at such port of departure, on whose report that no symptom of cholera had manifested itself might be admitted to pratique—thatine oc-cupied on the passage to be counted as part The United States Consul at Amstada
