The Cargo of Captured Negroes---The Slave Depot of Cape San Antonio --- Horrible Condition of the Negroes---Reported Resignation of Captain General Dulce.

ndence of the N. Y. Herald.] HAVANA, March 15.—I announced in my last letter the arrival here of the steamer, Neptune, with the schooner Matilde, with three hundred and seventy-five negroes three hundred and seventy-nve negroes captured from a slave expedition, and that it was reported that one thousand five hundred and seventy-two in all had been captured. The facts are as follows: His Excellency Don Francisco Marty, since November last, has received three successive lots of negroes, amounting to one thousand trachundred who were lended near Comments. lots of negroes, amounting to one thousand two hundred, who were landed near Cape San Antonio, most of whom were sold. Of those on the Matilde only two hundred and seventy-five are considered by the government legal captures; for one hundred were sold to a wealthy planter here, and were on their way to this port with legal papers and permits, signed by Seifor Mendnina, the Lieutenant Governor of the department of Pinar del Rio, the partner of Arguelles. Much indignation is expressed here about these one hundred negroes, who are considered as part and parcel of the illegal cargoes; but, according to the Spanish laws, they have been decided to be slaves, and delivered over to their owner, the said Marty. The son of the Admiral of the Neptune, who The son of the Admiral of the Neptune, who saw these negroes at Cape San Antonio, says the living were in a horrible condition, and the dead were lying unburied on the shore. He counted more than eighty of the latter, who were left as food for the crows.

The Colonial Minister at Madrid sent out in October last a royal decree ordaining that all enactipades, or negroes captured from slave expeditions, now hired out by the Government to private individuals, should be returned to the Government and sent to the island of Fernando Po. This decree was received at a time when hands were needed. and Gen. Dulce was prevailed upon to refrain from immediately putting it in force. Senor Navascuez called the attention of the Spinrish Government to the fact, in consequence of which a threatening despatch was sent to General Dulce, which caused the issue of the famous decree of March 2. But on the 10th instant a counter decree render that of the 2d null and void. The upshot of all this is that General Dulce sends by the steamer to Cadiz to-morrow his formal resignation, and he has declared that whether it is ac cepted or not he shall leave the island. I have this from the best authority.

Proceedings have been commenced in the Supreme Court against the Military Inten-dant, Senor Galvez, on account of an affair with a negress belonging to Senor Zuasuaba. Senor Aeran, the District Attorney, is implicated in the affair, which creates no little to give information as to proposed reforms here is composed, in part, of the following members:—Don Manuel de Armas and Don Manuel Calvo, a sleve design of Horbres. members:—Don manuel de Armas and Don Manuel Calvo, a slave dealer of Havana; the Marquis Montero, of Matanzas; Don Moralez Lernuz, of Lagua; Don Nicolas Ascarate, of Guinez. The other commissioners have not yet been chosen.

There has lately been an unusual number of fires throughout the island. The Diario de la Marina, the organ of slavery, charges them to the negroes. Strenuous exertions are being made to revive the slave trade here, which has been declining for some years past, while on the other hand there is a strong movement in favor of the total abolition of slavery in Cuba and Porto Rico. The steamer Morning Star arrived yesterthe steamer morning star arrived yester-iny from New Orleans, and leaves to-mor-lew for New York. The Cuba sailed yes-terday for New Orleans. A train on the Havana and Matanzas

Railroad was thrown off the track on the Title, and two persons were killed and eight On the next day another accident occurred on the same road, near San Felipe, by which ave persons lost their lives and fifteen were Wounded.

On the 10th the warehouses of Messrs, Acevedo, Carera & Co., and Pena, Rodriguez & Co., at Cardenas, were destroyed by fire, supposed to be incendiary.
By an arrival from Santiago de Cuba, we learn of the arrival of the French steamer Caraibe, from St. Thomas; also that an American man, of were figure the property American man-of-war, flying the pennant of an admiral, was there—probably the Rhode Island, with Commodore Palmer on

At Cape Haytien were the Haytien war steamer Galatea, the British steamers Aurora and Lily, and the United States gunboat De

Soto.
At this port sixty insurgents were under trial, and it was supposed that twenty of them would be convicted. The French bark Verena Collet arrived here on the 11th, with two hundred and twenty-five coolies from Macao. Several other cargoes are to follow.

The British corvette Carmen arrived here on the 12th. It is reported that the slave dealers formed a plot to burn down the office of the Siglo newspaper last Monday night. Precautions were taken by Governor Dulce, by which the building was probably saved from de-

AMUSEMENTS.

MR. GEORGE HOOD'S complimentary benefit yesterday at the Academy of Music was one of which that veteran among "amusement people" might well be proud. In despite of the inclement weather the house was crowded by an audience of the most intelligent and fashionable of our citizens, and the performance went off with real dash. In the musical way we can especially eulogize M'lle Drinba and Mr. Wilhelm Formes, who took the places of Madame Johannsen and Mr. Habelmann. Their singing was truly superb. Mr. Mordaunt's recitation was the perfection of ease and grace. Dramatically, Messrs. Marlows and Fawcett were delightful in their several parts and in fact their contrainment was most capital.

THE CHESTNUT.—'Cartouche; or, the Stolen Jewels," was produced last evening in a style of splent of worthy of any theatre in the country, and in its incidents the play is remarkably striking and effective, keeping the andience in a constant state of excitement and expectation up to the fall of the curtain on the final scene. The scenery is admirably arranged and the effects are truly grand. Of the acting, the plot. &cc., we will speak further hereafter, for it deserves warmer praise than we can give tit a hasty notice to day.

THE WALNUT.—Last evening the Walnut was crowded with a very critical audience anxious to see and hear Mr. J. H. Hacket; in his famous part of Faistair, in Shakspeare's "Henry IV." The audience in all his unctnousness, and they also had the gratification of seeing him ably supported by Mr. Roberts as Fawcett as Poins. The entertainment passed off staff in love, in "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

THE ARCH.—We have heretofore expressed the opinion that Mr. Charles Dillon's Belphegor is a marvelots characterization and see no reason to change it is supero. It will be repeated this evening, and will be followed by a lively farce.

THE MINSTELL BAND of Burgess, Prendergast, Hughes and La Rue will commence a brief engagement this evening at the Assembly Building. They promise to introduce new music and songs, choruses and fresh jokes. There are twenty performers. They have gained great popularity in eastern cities.

A WARNING TO BOYS.—Yesterday afternyed, as one of the ferry boats at the foot of Federal street was approaching the slip, a couple of boys got over the chain, and before the boat was fastened, attempted to jump ashore. One of them succeeded but the other fell, and before he could get up, his leg was caught between the boat and the slip, and crushed in a shocking manner. Dr. Cullen dressed the wound, and the lad was then sent to the Hospital. The frequency of such accidents ought to serve as a warning to boys in thus exposing themselves to danger. Within a few months past several lads have been maimed for life by their recklessness in jumping on cars while in motion, or from the ferryboats before they are properly secured to the slips.

A LIVELY SERENADE — A night or two secured to the slips.

A LIVELY SERENADE.—A night or two since a party of seronaders, "just for a little fun," went out on an expedition, and performed under the window of a friend's house. After having exhausted their reportory, they were invited in, induged pretty freely in "Jersey kerosene," and soon after got into a regular fight among themselves. One had a staccato mark placed over his eye, another in attempting to caharp was knocked into a flat, and another who had made a splendid run on high g suddenly changed his key to c natural, thus rendering the whole performance a scene of discord rarely witnessed in musical execution, even by the most experienced of amateur performers.

M. E. Conference.—The annual confer-M. E. CONFERENCE.—The annual conference of the M. E. Church in New Jersey, commences its thirtieth session in Camden to-morrow, in the Third Street Church. Bishop Scott will preside and during the continuance of the conference some highly interesting meetings will take place, which will be addressed by some of the able ministers in attendance. The conference will most probably last for eight or ten days, as there is considerable business of importance to attend to and dispose of.

THE EDWIN FORREST .- It is thought that this steamer, which was sunk, below Trenton, on Saturday afternoon, will be raised in a few days, and so thorough repaired as to be able to resume her trips again in a short time. The work of raising the sunken steamer is rapidly progressing, and the engines from Camden, which went up to her on Sunday, are doing excellent service.
