The stated mouthly meeting was held on Monday evening, the President, John Welsh, Esq., in the chair. Mr. Wetberill stated that the committee having in charge the increase of the legal rate of interest from six to seven per cent had personally, at Havisburg, nrged the passage of such an act upon both Houses of the Legislature, and that their confidence in its final success was very strong. The committee was continued. Reard of Trade.

six to seven per cent had personally, at Harrisburg, surged the passage of such an act upon both Houses of the Legislature, and that their confidence in its final success was very strong. The committee was constitued.

From the committee having in charge the subject of a United States Navy Yard at League Island for the construction of iron armored and other war ships, Mr. To tham stated that the question would soon be dedicted that the question would soon be dedicted as the state of the construction of iron armored and other war ships, Mr. To tham stated that the question would soon be dedicted that the state of this commanity. That assistant Secretary Fox had urgently pressed in the secretary of the Navy from the first and was now with equal urgency, and with facts and arguments exhausting the subject, and perfectly demonstrative in character, advocating before the Naval Committee and Congress the claims of League Island as the only anitable pine for such a national work.

Mr. Taham said that he felt that this Board and this city owed to Mr. Fox some public and enduring record and acknowledgment of his patriotic and statesman-like conduct in that, whist a native and citizen of another State having personal and pecuniary interests in a locality which might be considered antagonistic to those of League Island, had yet, from public and mational considerations alone, thrown all the influence of his high personal and omicial rosition on the side of League Island, had yet, from public and mational consideration was read from A. C. Gray Esq., urging the claims of the Fenhasial Rastern Shore Bailroad upon the business community of Philadelphia, action, the services of this highly meritorious. Capable and efficient officer.

Accommunication was read from A. C. Gray Esq., urging the claims of the Fenhasial Rastern Shore Bailroad upon the business community of Philadelphia, and points urther North, and Norfolk, Wilmington, and the South, for the purposes of travel or general trade.

On motion of Mr. Merrick, the ollowing

sent work; and if not, they be authorized to oring
the subject before Congress through our Representatives, or otherwise.

The following report was then read and adopted, and the Board then adjourned. The Committee of Ten will be named at a future day.

The Special Committee to which were referred the letter of the New York Board of Trade and their report, on the subject of the Exposition of the Manufactures, a c., of all nations, to be held in Paris France, in the year 1867, report that, concurring in the general view of the Board of Trade of New York as to the importance and value of such an undertaking as that which has been assumed by the French government, and believing that the State of Pennsylvania can largely contribute to its success, we recommend the adoption of the resolutions herewith submitted.

The very sole arguments of the Hon. N. P. Banks, presented to the House of Representatives of the United States when the bill making apprepriations for the proper exhibition of the products of the United States, and for their proper transportation to the French capital, cover the whole ground on which the support of the people to such enterprises should be given.

support of the people to such enterprises should be given.

Our own State, rich as she is in natural and artificial products, can do herself great honor and credit by a hearty co-operation in filling the space allotted to the United States, and it should at once be made the budiess of some competent persons to take the matter in hand, and secure the co-operation of our agriculturists, miners, manufacturers, mechanics, artist's, &c., in procuring and forwarding specimens of their productions.

The regulations adopted by the Department of State, and the provisions that will be incorporated into the act of Congress making the appropriation will probably meet all the necessities of the case, and it will only be requisite to have some organization to carry details into effect.

Essolved, That the Philadelphia Board of Trade heartily approve of the acceptance by the government of the Brench to participate in the Exposition of the manufactures and products of all nations, its be held in the city of Paris, in they ear 18.7, and earnestly recommend that liberal appropriations be made by Congress for securing a full display of the products of our country in all its industrial and artistic departments.

Resolved, That the President of the Board be requested to forward copies of the foregoing resolution to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

Resolved, That a committee he appointed, to consist

the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

Besolved, That a committee he appointed, to consist of one member from each of the branches of industry and art, whose contributions are invited to said Exposition, and that said committee be requested to take the most energetic and comprehensive measures for securing the largest possible display of Pennsylvania products at the Exposition.

Dear Brethron.—The General Conference of 1861 expressed, by a formal resolution, its approval of the principle of Lay Representation in that body, and its willingness to enact that measure whenever satisfied that such was the wish of the Church. On the other hand, many of the Annual Conferences, in fact, a majority of the traveling preachers, vected adversely to that measure, thus setting themselves, apparently at least, in an attitude o' opposition, on this question to the body which represents them in the highest conncils of the Church. This discrepancy has been a great himrance to the laymen in their advocacy of the measure, thus adverse action of the Annual Conferences in the aggregate, which amounts to the declaration of an univorable opinion as to the measure itself, the General Conference in 1864 most decidedly re-affirmed its approval of Lay Representation, and now only awaits a favorable response from the Church in order to enact the satisfies of the measure itself, the General Conference in 1864 most decidedly re-affirmed its approval of Lay Representation, and now only awaits a favorable response from the Church in order to enact the latty ought not to be taken as a jair expression of the s nitiments of the membership at large. They have never before been called upon to vote upon such general questions, and their voting, could, therefore, only have been, what in fact it proved to be, meagre, reluctant, and indecisive. We will not disguise the fact that many of our laymen have been backward to interest themselves in such connectional issues; but this tendency to excuse themselves from the responsibilities and concerns of our 2000, in her broadest dedominational operations, constitutes the mist cogent reason way our ministers is should take the lead in urging them to share in all the ligher cares and labors which develove upon the delegates to our quadrennial se
