From our Third Edition of Yesterday.

From Washington. [Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Ways and Means Commit ee have been engaged-all the morning considering the new Loan bill. A majority of the Committee are in favor of reporting back the bill which was recommitted; but they will probably adopt the sug-gestions of the House and change it so as to make it acceptable to the majority of that body. The great point of difference between Congress and the Secretary is respecting the authority to fund greenbacks. The former will not concede this point. Secretary Seward to-day notified the Eng lish Minister that he had positive information that the Fenians had no idea of making an attack on Canada, and that, in his judg-ment, the whole thing had exploded.

From San Francisco.

The Flag newspaper of this city having harged the members of the State Senate with bribery, in the passage of the special contract vessel act, an investigating committee was appointed, and D. O. McCarthy, its editor, was called to tell who were his witnesses to sustain the charges. He refused and was imprisoned. After lying in prison a month, the Senate has re-leased him and promised to go on with the investigation.

McCarthy will, it is stated, produce his witnesses.

XXXIXTH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION. Washington, March 21. House.—Mr. Price, from the Committee on the Pacific Railroad, reported back a bill to secure the speedy construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad and Telegraph line, &c., which was recommitted and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Julian (Ind.) introduced a bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers and sailors who served in the United States army and navy during the late rebellion. Read twice and referred to the Committee on Military Mr. Henderson (Oregon) presented joint resolutions of the Legislature of Oregon in regard to Oregon war claims. Mr. Ward (N. Y.) made a statement to the House that he had received numerous letters from friends and relatives of soldiers buried in the cemetery at Arlington Heights, as to the title which the Government had to the property, fearing that the bones of the
