[CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

SENATE. -Mr. Sumner's motion to amend the record and strike off the name of Mr. Stockton (New Jersey) was debated at

Mr. Fessenden rose to explain the circumstances under which his colleague (Mr. Morrill) voted on Friday. Six or seven weeks had elapsed since he paired with Mr. Wright. Mr. Morrill had given Mr. Wright notice of his intention to vote, and had given him reasonable time to get here to vote. His colleague (Mr. Morrill) had consulted him as to what he should do, and stated the facts to him. He told him all that could be required of him was that he should give reasonable notice of his desire to terminate the arrangement. If there was any imputation upon his colleague's conduct there was the same on his (Mr. Fessenden's). He considered Mr. Morrill as acting per-

Mr. Sumner said he too was willing to take his share of the responsibility. He advised Mr. Morrill to vote, and believed he did right.

did right,
Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) addressed the Senate in defence of the right of Mr. Stockton to vote on the question of Friday last.
Mr. Foster (Conn.) took the floor in a brief explanation of his decision as presiding officer on Friday. The Senator from Nevada, Mr. Nye, rose after Mr. Stockton had cast his vote on Friday, and asked if a member had a right to vote in his own case, to which 'it was replied that the Chair had no prerogative to settle any question of the kind, except to hold that the name of every Senator on the list may be called; and it is the privilege of every member whose name is on the list to have his vote recorded. That is not, in my judgment, deciding that the Senator from New Jersey had a right to vote. It expressly disclaims the right of the Cheir to decide the question

Chair to decide the question.

Mr. Stockton rose to withdraw his vote, stating while he did so that he had no doubt of the validity of the vote, but as it appeared that some of the ablest lawyers in the Senate, including Mr. Trumbull, had doubts of its constitutionality he withdraw his vote and constitutionality, he withdrew his vote, and requested some gentleman to move a reference of the matter to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Clark (N. H.) in the chair—It is the opinion of the Chair that he cannot except by unanimous consent.

Mr. Poland (Vt.) said he had voted in favor of Mr. Stockton, believing him entitled to his seat. He did not think, however, he had a right to vote in his own case.

He moved to reconsider the vote of Friday Mr. Johnson (Md.) moved to postpone the further consideration of the subject until Thursday next, to enable Mr. Wright and others to get here to vote. Mr. Lane (Kansas) hoped Mr. Stockton would have leave to withdraw his vote. Mr. Summer offered a resolution, in lieu of this pending motion, declaring that the vote of Mr. Stockton be not received in determining the question of his seat in the Senate. Mr. Sherman (Ohio) moved to refer the resolution of Mr. Sumner to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to report it on Thursday morning.

The motion to refer the resolution of Mr. Sumner was debated by several Senators, after which it was disagreed to by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Anthony, Buckalew,
Cowan, Davis, Guthrie, Harris, Hendricks,
Johnson, Lane (Kansas), McDougall, Nesmith, Norton, Riddle, Saulsbury, Sherman, Trumbull, Van Winkle and

Sherman, Trumbull, Van Winkle and Willey—18.

NAYS—Messrs. Brown, Chandler, Clark, Conness Cragin, Cresswell, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane (Ind.). Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sprague, Sumner, Wade, Wilson and Yates—22.

ABSENT OR NOT VOTING—Messrs. Dixon, Doolittle, Foot, Henderson, Morgan, Morrilli, Stewart, Stockton, Williams and Wright—10.

The question then recurred on postponing the further consideration of the subject until Thursday next.

Pending the decision of this motion the Senate at 4.30 P. M., adjourned.

HOUSE,—The business in order being the call of States for resolutions, the resolutions offered last Monday, by Mr. Rogers came up as the pending question.

A debate followed, when the morning hour having expired, Mr. Blaine inquired as to the disposition of the resolutions.

The Speaker said they would go over and would remain open for debate until the House disposed of them.

Mr. Grinnell (Iowa) introduced a bill to establish a manufacturing and statistical division in the Treasury Department. Read twice, and referred to the Committee on wate, and referred to the Committee on Manufactures.

Mr. Moorhead (Pa.) presented the jointresolutions of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, urging the repeal of the tax on crude oil or petroleum. Referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. Stevens introduced a bill to authorize the building of a military and postal railroad from Cumberland, on the river Potomae, in the State of Maryland, to the city of mac, in the State of Maryland, to the city of Pittsburgh, in the State of Pennsylvania, which was read twice, and referred to the Special Committee on Military and Postal Railroads. On motion of Mr. Stevens, two members were directed to be added to that Special Committee.

The Speaker announced the appointment of Messrs. Washburne (Ill.) and Wilson (Iowa) as two additional members of the Relect Committee on Military and Postal Railroad from Washington to New York.
On motion of Mr. Schenck, the Army bill was made the special order for Monday next, and until disposed of.
The next business in order was the motion to recognider the rote by which the bill to to reconsider the vote by which the bill to amend the postal laws was, on the 15th of February, recommitted to the Post-office Committee

The vote was reconsidered, and the bill came before the House for consideration.

Mr. Alley, having charge of the bill as Chairman of the Post-office Committee, moved to strike out the first section, authorizing the Postmaster-General to sell stamped envelopes at the value of the stamps. The amendment was agreed to, and the section was struck out.

Mr. Alley also moved to strike out the fourth section, authorizing the Postmaster-General to cause the mails to be transported by sailing vessels between any port of the United States and any foreign ports.

The motion was agreed to, and the fourth section was struck out.

The fifth, sixth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth sections were struck out.

On motion of Mr. Grinnell, section eight was inserted as an additional section.

The bill was then passed. It provides as follows, the section being numbered anew:
Section 1. Be it enacted, that from and after the first day of April, 1860, pre-paid letters shall be forwarded at the request of the matter day of the provided at the request of the matter days of the provided at the request of the matter days of the provided at the request of the matter days of the provided at the request of the matter days of the provided at the request of the provided at the provided at the provided at the request of the provided at t the parties addressed from one Post Office to another, without additional postage charge, and returned dead letters shall be rectored to the writers thereof free of postage. SEC. 2. That the tenth section of the act entitled "An act to establish salaries for postmasters and for other purposes," approved July 1st, 1864, and so much of the twenty-eighth section of the act entitled "An act to amend the laws relative to the Post Office Depositional Property 2 converged March 3d Office Department," approved March 3d, 1863, as requires postage to be charged at the pre-paid rate, to be collected on the return delivery of letters, endorsed with a request for their return to the writers, be and the same are hereby repealed, and all letters bearing such endorsement shall hereafter be excels.

SEC. 3. That the third section of the act entitled "An act to establish a postal moneyorder system," approved May 27th, 1864, be and the same is hereby amended so as to authorize the issuing of a money-order for any sum not exceeding fifty dollars, and that the charge or fee for an order for a sum not exceeding twenty dollars shall be ten cents, and for an order exceeding twenty dollars, twenty-five cents.

SEC. 4. That a money order shall be valid and payable when presented to the deputy postmaster on whom it is drawn within one year after its date, but for no longer period and in case of the loss of a money order a duplicate thereof shall be issued without charge on the application of the remitter or the payee, who shall make the required proofs; and postmasters at all money-order offices are hereby authorized and required to administer to the applicant or applicants in such cases, the required oath or affirma-tion free of charge.

SEC. 5. That all railroad companies carry-ing the mails of the United States shall convey, without extra charge, by any train which they may run over their roads, all printed matter as the Postmaster General shall from time to time direct to be transported thereon, with the persons in charge of the mails designated by the Post-office of the mails designated by the Post-office Department for that purpose.

SEC. 6. That if—any—person shall wilfully and maliciously injure, deface or destroy any mailable letter deposited in any letter box, pillar box, or other receiving boxes established by authority of the Postmaster General of the United States, for the safe deposit of matter for the mails, or for delivery, or shall wilfully aid and assist in injuring such mailable matter so deposited as aforesaid, either by pouring into such boxes oil. said, either by pouring into such boxes oil, water or other fluids, or by any other means, every such offender, being thereof duly convicted, shall for every such offence be fined not less than one hundred, nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one year, nor more than three years, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. That whenever it shall become expedient, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, to substitute a different kind of psstage stamp for those now in use, he shall be, and is hereby authorized to modify the existing contract for manufacture of postage stamp, so as to allow to the contractors a sum sufficient to cover the increased expenses, if any, of manufacturing the stamps so substituted.

SEC. 8. That Section 2 of chapter 137 of the act approved July 1st, 1864, be amended by adding the following: "Provided, That when the quarterly returns of any post-master of the third, fourth or fifth class shows that the salary allowed is ten percent less than it would be on the basis of commissions under the act of 1854, fixing compensations, then the Postmaster General shall review and re-adjust under the provisions of said section.

Mr. Dawes, from the Committee on Elections, reported the testimony in the elec-tion case of Mr. Dodge against Mr. Brooks. the report ending with the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Hon. James Brooks is not entitled to a seat in this House as a Representative in the Thirty-ninth Congress from the Eighth District in New York York. Resolved, That William E. Dodge is intilled to a seat in this House as a Representative in the Thirty-ninth Congress from the Eighth District in New York. Mr. Dawes gave notice that he would call up the report for action as early, probably, as on Thursday next.

Mr. Marshall presented the views of the minority of the Committee on the same subject.
