

From our Third Edition of Yesterday, The President's Veto. (Special Dispatch to the Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The President has just returned to the Senate, with his objections, reviewing the constitutional points connected with its provisions, and the serious objections to which very many of its features are objectionable.

Veto of the Civil Rights Bill. WASHINGTON, March 27.—At 10 o'clock, P.M. The President has returned to the Senate the Civil Rights bill with his objections.

From California. SAN FRANCISCO, March 26th.—One of the most severe shocks of earthquake since that of October last, occurred to-day at 10.15.

Fortress Monroe. FORTRESS MONROE, March 27th.—The schooner Lizzie Lawson, from New York for Charleston, S. C., was sunk on Chincoteague shoals on Sunday morning, and went to pieces. One seaman was drowned.

XXXIXth Congress—First Session. SENATE.—Petitions for equal rights and woman's rights, a resolution of the Senate to the effect of an international copyright law, and for provisional government for the late rebellion States were received and appropriately referred.

Mr. Stevens (Pa.) moved to lay the bill on the table, which was agreed to. Mr. Stevens then appealed to Mr. Stevens to let it be recommitted.

Mr. Stevens consented to that, but Mr. McKee (Ky.) objected, and the bill was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Spaulding (Ohio) introduced a bill to grant certain privileges to the telegraph companies. Read twice and referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Sherman (Mich.) introduced a bill granting certain lands to the State of Michigan, to aid in the construction of a canal to connect the State with the Superior with the lake known as Lac la Belle in said State, and to transfer the same to the Smithsonian Institution and Canada.

Mr. Ingels (Ill.) introduced a bill defining and yielding the manner of the election of the members of the District of Columbia, and for the election of members of the District of Columbia.
