[CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

House.—The bankrupt bill being under consideration. Mr. Jenckes argued that the bill was not only for the benefit of the debtor class, but was supported, also, by nineteen-twentieths of the creditor class of the country, as prowided by the resolutions in favor of its passage, adopted by the Chambers of Commerce of New York, Boston, Buffalo and other cities. He held that it was the duty of Congress, under the Constitution, to pass such a measure, and that its enactment would be a great and lasting benefit to the country.

Mr. Jenckes yielded the last four minutes of his time to Mr. Rogers, who said it was a well-known fact that prior to the difficulties of the last five years the party which he represented had persistently opposed the passage of a bankrupt law. He himself had been opposed to it, but he felt now that responsibility rested upon him higher than party considerations, and that it was for the benefit of the whole country that there should be some system adopted which would relieve those who had failed in business owing to events which they could not control. In the city of New York and in other commercial cities men of the best business talent had been prevented for the last three or four years from going into business on account of the want of a general bankruptcy law. He had examined this bill thoroughly, and was free to say that he believed no brankrupt bill was ever drawn in the country that was so equal and just in its provisions to all sections of the country as this one, because it extended to the people of the Southern States as well as those of the North. He would not be doing his solemn duty if he did not, notwithstanding the position which, in times gone by, had been assumed by the Demo-eratic party, cast his vote in favor of the Wilson—73. Mr. Beaman changed his vote from yea to nay, in order to move to reconsider. Mr. Washburne (Ill.) moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was rejected, and also moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

The yeas and nays were taken on the latter motion, and resulted yeas 59, nays 68. Among these who had voted against the bill the following members voted the bill the following members voted against laying the motion to reconsider on the table, namely: Messrs. Mr. Lawrence (Ohio) asked leave to report from the Judiciary Committee a joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States in order to have it amended and recommitted. Mr. Ancona desired to make it a condition that the bill should not be brought back by a motion to reconsider. Mr. Lawrence (Ohio) declined to make that condition.

Mr. Ancona thereupon objected. Mr. Julian offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on the Public Lands to Inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill extending the principles and policies of the laws now in force regulating the sale of coal lands to the iron lands of the United States.

Mr. Noell offered a resolution, which was dopted, instructing the Committee on War Debts of the Loyal States to inquire into the expediency of amending the act to re-strict the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims, &c., approved July 4, 1864, so as to authorize the Quartermaster General to pass upon and recommend for settlement to the Third Auditor all accounts for supplies taken frem loyal citizens of States not in rebellion for the Quartermaster's or Commissary Department, when such stores or supplies were taken by the quartermaster or commissary, or by others under the orders of the officer commanding the force for the use of which such supplies were impressed.

tion as to the amount of money necessar, for the improvement of the harbor of Mau mee bay and river, at the city of Toledo Referred to the Committee on Commerce. The next business in order was the unfinished business of the morning hour yesterday, being the bill reported from the Committee on Indian Affairs, to subject Indian lands and allotted lands in Kansas to the laws thereof.

Mr. Ingersoll made a speech in opposition to the bill, taking the ground that its practical operation would be to enable speculators to swindle the Indians out of their Mr. Stevens offered the following as a substitute for the bill:

That whenever a crime shall be committed by an Indian or white man in Kansas.

he shall be arrested wherever he may be found within said State, and tried wherever the crime was alleged to have been comstitute for the bill:

Mr. Stevens remarked that the only excuse which seemed to be offered for this law against people who were not represented here was that they went into other parts of lands and committed crimes there, and then fell back into their own territory, secured to them by treaty, and where they cannot be punished. If that were the only object, his amendment would secure all that. Mr. Ingersoll declared himself in favor of the amendment. The debate was further participated in by Messrs. Windom, Henderson, Hubbard Lowa), and Drigge.

Mr. Driggs (Mich.) moved a substitute, making its provisions applicable to all the States and Territories. Mr. Windom (Minn.) offered an amend-

Mr. Hooper objected.
Mr. Windom oriered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Public Lands to inquire into the expediency of so amending the Homestead act as to give to soldiers who have been permanently disabled in service, and to the window have been been permanently disabled in service, and to the window have been been permanently disabled in service. dows and other legal representatives of de-ceased soldiers who have located lands under the said act the title to lands so located by them without delay of occupancy re-

Fortress Monroe—The Arrest of Pepper—Excitement Among the Freedmen—Action of General Terry.

Fortress Monroe, March 27.—Two schooners, which were sunk in the James River during the war, have been raised and towed to Norfolk for repairs. Six or saven towed to Norfolk for repairs. Six or seven essels were sunk in the vicinity of Dutch

Gap to obstruct the passage of the rebel iron-clads. Some of these vessels were seized and sunk by the military authorities without the necessary formality, to adjust their valuation to secure a prompt remuneration for the losses sustained by their owners. The workmen at the Gosport Navy Yard are engaged in stripping the frigate Macedonian, lately arrived there from Annapolis. She is to be docked, and will be put in a seaworthy condition, and will then go to Annapolis for the use of midshipmen at the Naval Academy.

The Sanitary Board of Norfolk is actively engaged in cleansing the city and adopting measures to prevent the cholera during the coming summer. An effort has been made to employ the prisoners in the hard labor prison in cleaning the streets. The steamer Patapsco, from Baltimore for

New York, has put into Norfolk leaky, and having her boilers started. Two of the saliors attached to the Macedonian got into a fight yesterday in Nor-folk, and one stabled the other with a sheath khife, wounding him very se-

The arrest of Calvin Pepper, of Norfolk, who has figured lately as a disinterested hu manitarian in a colonization scheme fo-operation amongst the freeden on the Peninsula, has caused much excitement amongst the freedmen, who had subscribed largely towards the project. Mr. Pepper proceeded to Richmond in charge of Lieut. Fessenden, of the 5th United States Artillery, and had an inierview with General Terry. The investigation of the charges were conducted under General Terry's personal supervision, and every opportunity was given Mr. Perry to make the necessary

For more than an hour the General lis tened to Pepper's elaborate defense, and when he had concluded, took up his prospectus, published in the columns of a small paper issued at Norfolk, and dissected it with a minuteness of inquiry which soon led to his entire discomfiture, and exposed the utter worthlessness and maudling character of the scheme. Major General Howard had telegraphed to Washington his entire disapproval of the affair, and from the evidence dduced it became apparent that he was acting entirely without the co-operation of the Freedmen's Society of the North, as stated in his prospectus. The result was that General Terry ordered Mr. Pepper's compliance with the contents of Major General Mile's letter, served upon him a few days previous to his arrest, viz:— To refund and turn over the money collected by him and his coadjutors from the freed men of this district to a commissioned offi cer appointed to receive the same. Mr Pepper has been permitted to return to Nor-folk, but is prohibited from visiting the Peninsula or engaging in any colonization scheme.

Another Interview with the President WASHINGTON, March 28.—A committee of gentlemen from the State of New Jersey called upon the President to-day, for the purpose of presenting a series of resolutions passed at a recent mass-meeting held in the county of Hudson. The Committee consisted of Gen. Wright, Representative of Fifth district; Hon. M. Rogers, the Mayors of Jersey City, of Hudson City and Hobo-ken, T. W. Maries, Esq., Col. Robertson, and others. Gen. Wright addressed the President as follows:

Mr. President-You must be aware that the attention of the whole country at this time is directed towards you. The course of every eminent man is the subject of observation and criticism. So far as I can judge the announcement of your policy in regard to the States lately in rebellion, and the consequent speedy restoration of the Union, meets with the favor of every loyal man and every well-wisher of his country.

I am here to-day as the bearer of the general opinion of my district upon the sub-ject of the veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill. I come to-day before you with a series of resolutions affecting the subject just mentioned, passed at one of the largest meetings ever held in the county of Hudson, and called together without distinction of party. After free discussion the resolutions were unanimously adopted, and accordingly I now have the honor of presenting them, and with your permission I will read them. The General then presented resolutions thanking the President for the veto of the Freedmen's bill, endorsing his restoration policy and pledging him support.

Mr. Wright added—The manifest efforts at centralization recently exhibited, which at centralization recently exhibited, which have so happily been frustrated by your prompt and manly action, will, I trust, be the last ever made, and your self-denial when tendered $30,000,000 and two millions of men, to use them for purposes other than those known to the Constitution, will ever mark you a pure and unselfish patriot.

The President replied—I do not know, gentlemen, that I can make any reply to the complimentary manner in which you have complimentary manner in which you have complimentary manner in which you have addressed me, and to the sentiments and principles set forth in your resolutions, further than to refer you to my public acts. You must take them as my reply. I must, however, thank you most fervently for the encouragement you have given me, for we are occupying a position now that needs en-couragement from those who are desirous of maintaining the first and original princi ples of the Government.

My line of policy I think unmistakable, and I have advanced too far in life to make any retrograde movement. I can make no step backward, and I hope you will find that the generous confidence you have given me has not been misplaced. I can say no more, but thank you, gentlemen.
At the conclusion of the President's remarks the committee retired.
