AN ECLIPSE OF THE MOON .- TO-MOTTOW evening there will be a total eclipse of the meon which will be wholly visible throughout the United States, and nearly the whole continent of America. Although our satellife will be on this occasion immersed in the shadow of the earth more than an hour and a-half (one hour and thirty-eight miand a-nair (one hour and thirty-eight mi-nutes), it will not entirely disappear, but will remain visible of the color and appear-ance of a disc of tarnished copper, with its light so much diminished that it will seem ing too much diminished that it will seem to be rayless, or without scintillation. In Philadelphia, the eclipse will be visible as follows: Begin at 9.37 P.M.; the total eclipse begins at 10.44 P. M. and ends at 0.22 A. M. Eclipse ends at 1.28 A. M.

FIRE PROOF SAFES .- The fire at Brady, Shaffer & Co.'s Planing Mill, on Tuesday morning, afforded a new test of the supe-rior quality of the Philadelphia-built safe of Evans & Watson. The books, papers and money of the firm were found, after the fire, in a perfect state of preservation, although the safe had been exposed to a most intense heat for several hours. This practical testimony to the excellence of Philadelphia workmanship, is very grati-fying, and must increase the confidence which is already felt, in the safes of this well-known firm.

MR. GOUGH AT THE ACADEMY THIS EVENING .- The indications are that Mr. Gough's new lecture on Temperance at the Gough's new lecture on remperance at the Academy of Music, this evening, will fairly test the capacity of the house. Should there be any tickets remaining unsold up to this evening, they can be had at the door of the Academy. We are also authorized to state that in order to meet the great demand for administrate will admissions, house or standing tickets will also be for sale at the door this evening.

HOLY WEEK .- Services appropriate to Holy Week are being held daily in the Ca-tholic and Episcopal churches of the city, and are more than usually well attended. In the former the solemn chants of the "Tenebræ," commemorative of Christ's Good Friday. The ceremonies at the Cathedral are very imposing.

EXCURSIONS TO CAPE MAY .- During the coming season Cape May bids fair to become a favorite resort for excursion parties, as the completion of the railroad brings that famous watering-place within a few hours' ride of the city. Mr. J. Van Rensse-laer, the Superintendent of the railroad, is now receiving applications from so-cieties and others desirous of obtaining excursion trains.

SWINDLING A SOLDIER .- A young man named Edward Woodruff, was before Recorder Eneu yesterday afternoon, upon the

N. S.) Presbyterian Church, at the corner. See Second Page for additional Am of Sixteenth and Tioga streets, has just been completed, at a cost of $15,000, and will be dedicated on Thursday afternoon, the 5th of April next. The Rev. F. Hendricks is the pastor.

LARCENY OF A COAT.-Chas. Baker has been committed by Alderman Jones for the larceny of a coat valued at $90, from the Wm. Penn Hotel, on Market street, near Eighth.

DANGEROUS .- The inlet at Third and South streets has caved in, and is now in a dangerous condition.

FINE DISPLAY OF SPRING BONNETS.— The vernal sun seldom shone from a lovelier sky han marked the former part of yesterday. At a com-paratively early hour the streeds were thronged with ladies, who seemed to dispute with young Sol his bril-lance, and to make the day subservient to one great object, to wit: the homage due to Fashion's shrine, as it was yesterday erected at the Millnery Establish-ment of Messrs. E. P. Gill & Co., 720 Arch street, on the creasion of their semi-annual "Opening" of Bonnets. Their store, which had been arrayed in its neatest dress for the event, was thronged with the exclusion suit a late hour, and the results, judging from appearances, were donbtiess commensurate with the exclusive pre-parations made by this house for the stair. The various Parisian novelites in the erhibition were fuly scanned, commented upon and generally admired. The ladies, in fact, never seemed more earnestly in love with anything than they seemed to be with Messrs. Gill & Co.'s Bonnets. And how could the dar-ing, ting little things fail to elicit their warmest affec-lovely because they were never half so diminuitye. A few specimens of these dear little bon-nets in the erhibition may be thus destribed: The Eugenie, a buff crape, open crown, with four straps crossing the back and a fail of thile from the valley. The Cautife, a streen enge bonnet, shirred, trinmed FINE DISPLAY OF SPRING BONNETS .-

Valley. The Camille, a green crape bonnet, shirred, trimmed on the outside with quilling of the same material, a sliver chain suspended from the back, and a vine of clematis in the lace. An exquisite little gem in the display was a three-quarter Gypsy of French chip, trimmed with green ribbons and ornaments of emerald, mounted with ribbons and ornaments of emeraid, mounteu with silver. A Charlotte Corday also attracted much notice. This was a while chip front, with an open crown, having a band of scarlet a round it and white illuss failing from the top; also, a fall of lace at the bottom, with silver ornaments, and a corresponding face trimming. The 'Extelle' also deserves mention: a blue crape, with shirred pieces on the crown, and trimmed with silver 'walls of Troy.'' [This latter item, we beg to mention, was accidentally omitted from the 'cata-logue of a lady's wardcobe' in Mr. Gough's lecture on Monday evening. | The same bonnet is also orna-mented with a silver wing and a graceful how of nar-row ribbon.

row ribbon. In hats, Messra Gill & Co.'s "opening" was also ex-cellent. In the latter their "Yacht" will be a favorite. It is trimmed with a band of black ribbon and bouquet of flowers at the side, and ornamented with atraw of howers as the order, and order with green, a quill-anchors. Their "Highland" hat, trimmed with green, a quill-ing on one side, and streamers of green ribbon with straw ornaments, is also pretty. The next and last which we have room to speak of to-day is their "Coutinental" hat, trimmed with white velvet and straw wheat, with a black vell at the side. The "opening" was in all respects a decided success. ""The BY DAY WIND OF MARCH." to-

"THE "opening" was in all respects a decided success, "THE BLEAK WINDS OF MARCH," to-gether with the rains of the same disagreeable month make some of us "tremble and shiver," but there is really no necessity for so doing as long as we can pro-cure our coal at the yard of W. W. Alter, No. 957 North Ninth site et, or at his branch office at Sixth and Spring Garden streets.
