Cholera in the East—Quarantine Regulations.

We have already announced the opening of the Cholera Conference in Constantinople. The French representatives have made the following proposals in regard to the stoppage of all sea communication between Arabia and Egypt in the event of another epidemic:

1. That the Ottoman Sanitary Commission, now in the Hijaz, should report on the health of the pilgrims.

2. The presence of several vessels of war to interrupt maritime communication.

3. An organized surveillance over the Egyptian coast to prevent any disembarkation in infringement of the prohibition.

The manner of carrying this plan into execution was set forth as follows:

1. In the event of cholera breaking out among the pilgrims, the members of the Ottoman Commission, assisted if need be by other medical men appointed ad hoc, shall report the fact to the local authorities and to the vessels of war stationed at Jiddah and Yeddo, and shall also transmit the intelligence to Europe.

2. On the declaration of the said medical men, the local authorities shall interdict, until further orders, all embarkation, and shall invite all pilgrims destined for Egypt to proceed thither by land.

3. At the same time the vessel of war shall send away from the ports of embarkation all steamers and sailing vessels which may be found there, and shall exercise a strict surveillance in order to prevent any clandestine departure.

4. On advice being received of the presence of cholera among the pilgrims, the Egyptian authorities shall forbid the entry of all arrivals from the Arabian coast, commencing from a point to the south of Jiddah to be determined. Further, they shall assign to the suspected vessels, after revictualling them, in case of necessity, a locality on the coast of Arabia—Tor, for instance—where they shall perform quarantine.

5. With regard to the caravan, it must be stopped, as is usual, several days' march from Suez, where it shall be visited by a medical commission, and shall not be allowed to enter Egypt until its sanitary state is declared free from danger.

6. As respects the pilgrims destined for India or other countries beyond the Red Sea, it will be best in order to avoid the risk of a partial embarkation, to subject them to the same general rule, namely, to make them wait till the end of the interdiction. However, it may be possible to assign them a particular spot some days' journey to the south of Jiddah, where they may embark.

7. The prohibition to embark shall cease fifteen days after the last case of cholera declared in the Hijaz.

Objection was made to these requirements by the English, Russian, Turkish and Persian delegates, but there was a majority in favor of them, in spite of a declaration on the part of the Turkish Government that it could not engage to carry out the scheme. At the last meeting, however, on the 3d instant, several modifications were made in the French proposals, owing to the strong objections urged by the English delegates on behalf of the Indian pilgrims. By paragraph three, as it now stands, the ships of war are to send away all steamers and sailing vessels from the ports of embarkation only; and paragraph six has been altered as follows:

"With regard to the pilgrims destined for India, or other countries beyond the Red Sea, it would be best to assign them a special point for embarkation, several days' march to the south of Jiddah, unless the authorities judge that they may be embarked without risk at Jiddah."

The cholera has reappeared at Alexandria, Egypt, though in a modified form. There had been sixteen deaths up to the 8th instant, since the beginning of the new visitation.

Statistics of Ohio.

The Toledo Blade publishes an abstract of the annual report of the State Commissioner of Statistics of Ohio, from which we extract the following summary:

"The amount of land cultivated in 1864 was 700,000 acres less than in 1862. Machinery did the work of 50,000 persons while the men were at war. The average production in 1865 of crops was up to that of a series of preceding years. The crop of oats was estimated at 18,000,000 of bushels; corn, 90,000,000 of bushels, and hay 2,000,000 of tons. From nine counties in the State was grown an aggregate of 13,144,779 pounds of tobacco.

"The destruction of almost the entire fruit crop of 1865 was traceable to the ice, storms of winter, and the extraordinary humidity of the atmosphere in April, May and June.

"There are 3,340 miles of railroad in the State, with a paid up capital of $77,694,737, and an indebtedness of $58,931,686.

"The number of marriages last year were 23,198, and the number of divorces, 837. Indictments for crime, 2,811; convictions, 1,025. Violent deaths, 1,014. Number of civil suits brought in 1865, 11,777, and judgments rendered, 8,773.

"Number of houses erected, 4,850; barns, 1,158; mills, 78; furnaces, factories, etc., 311. Cost of these new structures, $4,889,912.

"The production of maple sugar, sorghum sugar, maple molasses, and sorghum molasses was, in total, sugar, 5,239,729 pounds; malasses, 2,933,697 gallons."

From New Orleans and Texas.

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—The New York mails of the 24th have arrived. In the Natchitoches and Upper Red River districts the spring is forward. More land has been plowed and planted this spring than ever before. The freedmen are working well. Alexandria is being rebuilt. In Northern Louisiana the crops will be equal to that of any past year.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 28.—A resolution has been passed to send delegates to Washington. Messrs. Porter, Hancock and Henderson have been elected.

The New Orleans True Delta newspaper has failed.

The Texas trade is lively, and the West India and Mexican trade is reopening.

The Mobile and Eastern Gulf trade continues large. Thenty-five to fifty thousand bales of cotton are expected soon from Lake Besteana.

It is said the New York steamships are losing money. The direct line of Liverpool steamships is doing a large business.

A TERRIBLE AFFAIR, resulting in the killing of a whole family, has occurred on Felicity Island, Terrebonne Parish, La. The Houmas Civic Guard, says: "It seems that the land had been rented to a man by the name of McDonald, who, with his wife and son, lived on another island. Another man by the name of Bourg took the liberty of squatting on the island, and was repeatedly ordered off by McDonald, but refused to go. The consequence was a continued war between the two families. On last Sunday McDonald, his wife, son, and a negro man who, it seems, was in the employ of McDonald, went to the house of Bourg, all armed. What their intentions were does not appear clear, nor have we been able to get the particulars of the fight that ensued, but the result is tragical to say the least. McDonald, his wife and son were all killed, and the negro slightly wounded. Bourg has been arrested."

A CURIOUS CASE of smuggling occurred in Detroit the other day. One Ellen Goodenough, who was a bad enough character, came over from Canada on a lark, and took quarters at a hotel in the town. When the landlord presented her bill she offered in payment of it a gallon of whisky from a two-gallon india-rubber canteen which she wore under her clothing. The lanlord, in defiance of grammar, "declined the article," and called on an officer to incarcerate the "female smuggler." In default of bail she was sent to the House of Correction.

Literary.

It is said that the Emperor Napoleon is determined to edit and have a newspaper of his own, and that La National, altered greatly in tone and language, will appear as such in Paris early in April. The Constitutionnel and other semi-official journals dislike the prospect.

Mr. Thomas Carlyle is to be installed as rector of the University of Edinburg on the 2d of April. He was elected in November, 1865.

M. Eugene Pelletan is at work on the conclusion of his Babylone Moderne. It is to be entitled Le Luxe, and his friends assert that it will strike very hard and at very high marks.

A significant caricature is being circulated in the smaller States of Germany. It represents an Austrian and Prussian soldier, in uniform for a campaign, making obeisance to the Emperor of the French, and inscribed underneath with the words: "Ave Cæsar morituri te salutant." The production has been prohibited in Austria and Prussia.

Father Lefevre, of the Jesuit Order in France, has published a ponderous work bearing the title "On Insanity, Considered in its Bearings in Regard to Religion." The reverend author considers madness as the general rule of conduct in the affairs of the world—assuming, in fact, the idea that "all the world's a madhouse."

PURE GRAPE WINE, PASSAIC, Oct. 20th, 1865.—I hereby certify that Mr. A. Spear of this village has a large vineyard of choice grapevines, which are looking very fine. He also purchases a great many grapes not as yet producing as many himself as is required to keep his stock of wine full. He has the Samburg Port Grape, the wine of which is held in high estimation, and of which he has a large quantity on hand lying in his cellars requiring age before he disposes of it.

CITY ORDINANCES.

RESOLUTION OF REQUEST TO THE LEGISlature of Pennsylvania.

Whereas, The rate of municipal taxation for the city of Philadelphia has been greatly increased and that without sufficiently increasing the revenues; and whereas it is a matter of notoriety that the evil is largely attributable to the great inequality in the assessments of property in the said city; and whereas, it is incumbent upon the authorities to use every effort to relieve those of our citizens who pay an unjust proportion of the taxes.
