From Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 28.—A very important decision of the Wisconsin Supreme Court was rendered at noon to-day, in the case o Gillespie vs. Palmer. The Court decide that the amendment to the State Constitution, adopted in 1847, confers the right of suffrage on the colored population, thus re-versing the decision of the lower courts, in which the case was first tried. The colored people of Madison are jubilating over the matter.

The weather here is still wintry. It has been snowing constantly for fourteen hours, and is at it this evening. Sleigh-bells are jingling in the street, but the snow is rapidly melting. The Boston Encampment of Knights Templar are to leave Boston for Washington on the 1st of June. After receiving the courtesies of the Encampment in that city, they will proceed to Chicago by way of Baltimore and Ohio railroad, taking Cincinnati in their route. They will remain in this city several days, entertained by members of th Several days, entertained by memory of the Order. On their return they will proceed to Detroit, visit Rochester and Oswego, cross into Canada, passing a day at Toronto, thence home by the Grand Trunk Railway, to Mon-A convention of county superintendents of schools was in session to-day at Bloomington. The object of the convention is to ington. The object of the convention is to consider various questions arising under the school laws of the State, and how the whole school system may be more tho-roughly vitalized and brought to bear with ffect upon the more youthful population of the State.

The President's veto of the Civil Rights Bill is the subject of much comment here. Every daily paper in the city, except the Times, disapproves the veto. The Tribune and Republican are characteristically bitter toward the President. The Post echoes what is said by its morning Radical cotemporaries. The Evening Journal regrets the veto, but expresses continued faith in the President's honest motives and patriotic intentions.

Destructive Fire on Oil Creek.

BUFFALO, March 31.—News has just been received here that the most destructive fire ever known on Oil Creek is now raging.

The Egbert and Story farms are in flames, and the town of Petroleum Centre is in great danger.

SECOND DESPATOH-PARTICULARS OF THE CONFLAGRATION. PETROLEUM CENTRE, March 31.—The most disastrous fire over known in this vicinity commenced about eight o'clock this morning, on the Hyde and Egbert farm, and lasted until three o'clock this afternoon.

The fire originated from a gas pipe running from a tank of the Burlington well to a dwelling. At the time there was a very The burning oil, running strong wind. The burning oil, running down the hill, set fire to the famous Co quette tank. The flames, rushing towards the creek, swept everything before them. and on reaching the creek set fire to the same. Six hundred barrels, which were filled and lying on the bank, together with seventeen tanks of oil. were destroyed.

Some eleven or twelve boats lying in the creek loaded for shipment, also took fire and were destroyed. At one time the creek was a vast sheet of flame. The bridge which divides the town of Petroleum Centre from the farms alluded to, took fire several times, thus endangering the place, but the flames were finally extinguished. There was nothing burned on this side of the creek. The fire could be seen for miles around. There was one-half mile of flame. Some thirty wells were burned, besides various engine houses, engines, derricks and tanks; also several dwellings. The most intense excitement prevailed at the time. The loss is about 25,000 barrels of oil and $125,000 in property. At 4 o'clock the fire was about entinguished and everything was quiet.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.--- Ex-Gover-nor John McDougall died yesterday, of

THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN; PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, APRIL 2, 1866. Calling Things by Superfine Mames. M: Saulsbury of Delaware, with that thirst for knowledge for which he has always been distinguished, inquired re-cently in the Senate, if anybody knew what authority there was for calling negroes "colored" people. The authority is usage, and there is none better and there is none better, The term is a euphemism into which people have been gradually drifting in order to avoid the tinge of contemptuousness which the term 'nigger" has gradually communicated to The process by which the change has been effected is one which may be witnessed in the case of many other terms. How few people live in borger, there witnessed in the case of many other terms.

people live in houses; how many "reside" in "residences" or "mansions," How few schools there are left; how many "academies," and "institutes," and "establish-ments." The race of woman is nearly extinct, while "ladies" swarm all over the land. Such a thing as a foul is now hardly ever seen on a dinner-table; the oldest cock that is ever served up is sure to be a chicken." Mutton, too, is becoming scarcer and scarcer, "lamb" more plentiful. There has not been for many a day such a thing in the United States as a storekeeper or shop-keeper; the smallest pedler is now a "mer-chant." We hardly ever hear of anybody in the newspapers, not a day laborer, who does not "move in the very best so-ciety" and who does not boast "fine talents and dignified manners." Nobody now delivers a speech or an address on any set occasion; he delivers an "oration." The President is fast ceasing to be presi-dent, having been promoted to the office of "Our Chief Magistrate," There are even very few men of modern attainments; most when who lay claim to anything beyond a common school education, and are not ac-tually engaged in business, are spoken of as "ripe scholars," and if they at the same time do not spit or chew, and abstain from morning "drinks," they become "accom-pliched contents." plished gentlemen." If anybody advocates negro suffrage, he "takes his stand on the platform of the brotherhood of man." Stewed oysters and chicken salad are neither a supper nor a lunch, but an "elegant col-Sermons are nearly all-or at least all those that are considered worth speaking of, "powerful discourses." Even wives are gradually disappearing; nen write themselves down in the hotel books as being accompanied by their "la-dies," whatever that may mean. In most parts of the West even "academies" and in-stitutes bid fair to become extinct, their places being taken by "universities," No girl now ever leaves school, she "graduates."

Inns and taverns have disappeared long ago; we find nothing but "hotels" in all directions. There are even signs that bar-rooms will soon be superseded by "samplerooms." The process has already begun in New York. People do not teach things now; they are "professors" of them. Corn-doc-ters are "chiropodists." Barbers are not to be four of in corn of the large difference in the "bafound in any of the large cities, while "hair-dressers" abound. Members of Con-gress and politicians are becoming some-what rare; Congressmen are gradually be-coming "statesmen." Some people think we are falling off in our manners, but in our language at least the "bird polity" our language at least the "high polite" was never more successfully cultivated.-The Nation.

PHOTOGRAPHY IN ASTRONOMY.—At a recent meeting of the Royal Astronomical Society in England, Mr. De La Rue stated that his bones with record to the use of that his hopes with regard to the use of photography in astronomical observations had been confirmed, and that the Lunar Committee of the British Association had resolved to make use of photographs to prepare an accurate outline map of ections of these pootographs are to be disributed among observers, who will occupy hemselves with filling in the details of the several parts of the lunar surface. A series of zones being agreed on, each observer will have a zone assigned him, at which he will be expected to work whenever it may be visible.

From Richmond.

RICHMOND, March 31.— The Second Afri-can Church and several adjoining houses of little value, near Gamble's Hill, were destroyed by fire this atternoon. Alexander H. Stevens arrived here tonight, on the way to Washington. The Richmond. Typographical Society held a meeting this morning, to consider the final decision of the publishers of the Richmond daily papers, relative to the rates to be paid for composition. The printers again unanimously refused to accept the reduced rates. The probable result will be a temporary suspension of the publication of the several journals. RICHMOND, April 1.—The publishers held a final meeting to day, and determined to adhere to their ultimatum, and also adopted atresolution to pay the expenses to Rich-mond of compositors who will be employed by them to work at forty cents per them. by them to work at forty cents per thou-sand. The only paper to be issued to-mor-row will be the Citizen, which is published by an association of printers. The strike has caused considerable sensation here.
