

CITY BULLETIN.

ALL FOOT'S DAY.—The first of April, known generally as all Fool's day, occurred yesterday, and the usual number of pranks were performed by the little ones, while some huge jokes were got off by big ones.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET, April 2.—Beef Cattle are in fair demand this week at a further advance. About 1,000 head arrived and sold at the various Drive Yards at 16@17 cents for extra, the latter rate for choice; 14@15 cents for fair to good, and 13 cents for common to quality.

The following are the particulars of the sales: Head, Name, Amount. 43 T. Frank, Lancaster, 12 @15. 80 Schramberg & Frank, Lan. Co., 10 @11. 15 M. Schamberg, Penna., 10 @11. 50 H. Chain, Lancaster co., 14 @15. 22 Hope & Co., Lancaster co., 14 @15. 22 Dryden & Dryden, Pottsville, 14 @15. 17 Owen Smith, Lancaster co., 15 @16. 70 A. & J. Christie, Lancaster, 14 @16. 84 F. McFillen, Lan. co., 14 @16. 85 Hathaway, Lan. co., 14 @16. 04 J. S. Kirk, Chester co., 14 @16. 119 Christie & Wildey, Lancaster, 14 @15. 81 A. Kennedy, Penna., 15 @18. 62 J. Jones, Lancaster, 14 @16. 52 B. F. McFillen, Lancaster, 14 @16. 55 J. McFillen, Lancaster co., 15 @16. 65 E. S. McFillen, Lancaster co., 15 @16. 121 Moore & Smith, Lancaster, 14 @16. 120 Moore & Smith, Lancaster, 14 @16. 30 P. West, Chester, 14 @15. 30 P. West, Chester, 14 @15.

Among the amusing and significant features of the hoax, concerning the visit of the President, was the fact that large proportion of those who went to see and hear him belonged to the Copperhead persuasion. Grave charges were made against the school, looting laymen and gentlemen of "conservative" proclivities, who are willing to serve their country in any office that will pay well, were plentiful among those who were anxious to see the President. The "sell" was a most cruel one, but somehow the "sold" failed to receive any sympathy from those who were not themselves victims of the hoax.

Another Sunday paper made an editorial announcement that President Johnson, Secretary Seward and Senator Cowan had arrived at the City Hall on the way to different evening and would attend divine worship at Rev. John Chambers's church yesterday afternoon. During yesterday morning the "City House" was the scene of a number of persons who desired to pay their respects to the Chief Magistrate of the nation, while in the afternoon Mr. Chambers found that his congregation was much larger than he had expected.

At Washington street wharf a number of cannon of large calibre were on some freight cars marked for export to the Government. A 15-inch columbiad was lying on the ground awaiting transportation, and had not been regularly labeled, when some wag procured some white paint, and the following words were soon blazoned forth conspicuously on the piece of artillery: "To Colonel John O'Mahony, Head Centre Fenian Brotherhood, Dublin Castle, Dublin, Ireland."

A restaurateur on Chestnut street displayed in his window a large fish ingeniously fixed up to resemble a man, and to represent a flying fish. Nearly all day there was a crowd gathered in front of the establishment gazing upon the "great curiosity." There were jokes of various kinds perpetrated in different parts of the city, and the day, although it was the Sabbath, seems to have been observed with more spirit than usual.

THE JEWISH PASSOVER.—The Jews are now observing the Passover, which continues eight days from Friday evening last. The event which it commemorates is the departure of Israel from Egypt, and their passage over the Red Sea. This festival is rigidly adhered to, and sacredly cherished. During the eight days of Passover no leaven of any kind is allowed to be eaten or used for any purpose. During this time cakes, called matzohs, or unleavened bread, are substituted for the ordinary "staff of life." These Passover cakes are prepared and made under the special superintendence of each Jewish congregation.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Before Recorder Eneu, on Saturday, Oscar Willis was charged with highway robbery. A few evenings since John McDermott, of Norris-town, was robbed in the neighborhood of Ninth and Green streets. Willis was taken in the cars when he was enticed away by a crowd and taken to a drinking saloon, and after leaving that was robbed of a gold watch, worth $100, and a diamond ring, and forty-seven dollars in money, and a certificate of stock. Willis, it is alleged, committed the theft. The watch was recovered, and the prisoner committed in default of $3,000 bail to answer.

CITY MORTALITY.—The number of interments in the city during the past week was 280 against 354 the same period last year. Of the whole number 142 were adults and 138 children—70 being under one year of age; 150 were males, 130 females; 74 boys and 64 girls. The greatest number of deaths occurred in the Seventh Ward, being 19, and the smallest in the First, being 4. The new ward, where only one was reported. The principal causes of death were, croup, 8; consumption, 47; convulsions, 8; disease of the heart, 9; typhoid fever, 6; inflammation of the brain, 2; inflammation of the lungs, 22; inflammation of the stomach, 9; and old age, 17.

BEQUESTS.—The following are among the bequests of Mr. John P. Crozer, recently deceased: Upland Church, at Chester, $5,000. Pennsylvania Colonization Society, $5,000. Baptist Educational Society, $1,500. 10th St. Asylum, $1,000. It is stated that he left $350,000 in cash to his widow, and $1,000,000 to be divided among his children. Mr. Crozer was believed to be worth somewhere between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000.

TO BE REBUILT.—The office of the Gas Works, on Seventh street above Chestnut, is to be torn out and rebuilt in a beautiful and substantial manner. The cost of the same will reach $20,000. The new structure will be on a line with the other buildings on Seventh street; the wings will be extended at another story added.
