

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION DECLARED AT AN END.

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, By proclamations of the 15th and 19th of April, 1861, the President of the United States, in virtue of the power vested in him by the Constitution and the laws, declared that the laws of the United States were opposed, and the execution thereof obstructed in the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, and Texas, by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, or by the powers vested in the executive branch of the Government...

And whereas, By another proclamation, made the 16th day of August, in the same year, in pursuance of an act of Congress approved July 13th, 1861, the inhabitants of the States of Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Florida, were declared to be in a state of insurrection against the United States...

And whereas, By another proclamation made on the 2d day of April, 1863, in pursuance of the act of Congress of July 13th, 1861, the exceptions in the proclamation of August 16th, 1861, were revoked, and the inhabitants of the States of Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Florida and Virginia, except the forty-eight counties of Virginia designated as West Virginia, and the ports of New Orleans, Key West, Port of Beaufort, in South Carolina, were declared to be still in a state of insurrection against the United States...

And whereas, The House of Representatives, on the 22d day of July, 1861, adopted a resolution in the words following, namely: "Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the United States, that the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunion of the Southern States now in revolt against the Constitution and the laws, and in arms around the capital; that in this national emergency Congress, banishing all feelings of passion or resentment, will recollect only its duty to the country, that this war is not waged on our part in any spirit of oppression, nor any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor any purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights of established institutions of those States, but to defend and maintain the Union, with all its dignity, equality and rights of the several States united, and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease..."

And whereas, These resolutions, though not joint or concurrent in form, are substantially identical, and have been adopted as having expressed the sense of Congress upon the subject to which they relate...

And whereas, In view of the before recited premises, it is manifest that the determination of the American people that no State of its own will, has the right or the power to go out of or separate itself from, or be separated from the American Union, and that therefore each State ought to remain and constitute an integral part of the United States...

And whereas, It is believed to be a fundamental principle of government that people who have revolted and who have been overcome and subdued, may either be dealt with so as to induce them voluntarily to become friends, or else they must be held by absolute military power, or devastated so as to prevent them from ever again doing harm as enemies, which last-named policy is abhorrent to humanity and freedom...

And whereas, The observance of the national equality, as a principle of right and justice, is well calculated to encourage the people of the aforesaid States to be and become more and more constant and persevering in their renewed allegiance...

And whereas, The policy of the Government of the United States from the beginning of the insurrection to its overthrow, and final suppression has been in conformity with the principles herein set forth and enumerated.

Now, therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that the insurrection which heretofore existed in the States of Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Mississippi and Florida, is at an end, and is henceforth to be so regarded.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington the second day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

Andrew Johnson, President.

By the President: Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State.

CITY COUNCILS. A special meeting was held yesterday afternoon to take action in reference to the street cleaning contract, recently declared void by the City Council.

SELECT BRANCH. Mr. Barlow offered a resolution requesting the Legislature to legalize and confirm the contract for cleaning the streets, just made by the Mayor. He offered the present resolution in order to prove to the Legislature that the Councils and city desired the passage of the act proposed.

COMMON BRANCH. Mr. Fox presented the resolution relative to the street cleaning contract that was offered in the Select Chamber.
